Lost Articles
Are quickly found through the LOST & FOUND Columns. We look for it Through More Than Two Million Eyes.

BOSTON AMERICAN
THE TWENTIETH CENTURY NEWSPAPER
UNION LABEL TRADES COUNCIL 98 UNION MADE
Fair To-night and Saturday
8 P.M. EDITION
VOL. 5—No. 153. 10 PAGES. Registered in U. S. Patent Office. BOSTON, FRIDAY, AUGUST 21, 1908. Copyright, 1908, by the New England Newspaper Publishing Company. 10 PAGES. PRICE ONE CENT.

RED SOX SCORE ON CHICAGO

BLACK HAND DEATH THREAT FOR MAIL MAN

FEDERAL EMPLOYE AT MILLIS GETS SECOND LETTER DEMA NDING MONEY.

George T. Simmons, sixty-seven years old, who drives a mail wagon between the Rockville railroad station and the town of Millis, is alarmed to-day over an alleged Black Hand letter demanding money which came to him by this morning's mail. It was the second such missive Simmons has received within a week.

To-day's letter, dated yesterday and bearing a Rockville postmark, read:

"This is your last chance. We want that $100. Saw you talking last night with one of the selectmen. Don't know what you said. Be sure and leave the money, as Friday will be your last chance.
(Signed) "HAND UP MEN."

The first letter, which bore a Millis postmark, said:

"Place $100 near the barn. Don't tell anybody about it or we will kill you."

Simmons disregarded the demand and also disregarded the command to keep the matter quiet. He notified the Millis selectmen, and town authorities this afternoon are endeavoring to trace the authorship of the letters.

Simmons recently received some money through the sale of property in Millis and he is of the opinion that the writer of the letters was aware of it.

IDENTIFIES PRISONER AS BOLD ROBBER

Aged North End Fruit Dealer Confronts Man Held By Police.

Enos Castelluci, twenty-two, was this afternoon identified by Frank Spadaro, the aged fruit vender of No. 115 Richmond street, North End, as one of the two men who, on August 6, lured him to his cellar, beat and robbed him of $2,000 in bills and $20 gold chain and $10 in gold.

As soon as Spadaro confronted Castelluci in the rogue's gallery he cried: "You're one of the men who robbed me. You're the man who cut the money from my trousers."

"You're wrong," said Castelluci gruffly.

But the police found a picture of Castelluci in the gallery and also records which showed that he had been arrested before on larceny charges.

Castelluci arrived this morning in Boston from New York. Inspectors Hines, Cavanaro and McCauley trailed and arrested him. The inspectors say the man confessed to Chief Watts that he was one of three men who robbed Spadaro.

After the robbery they fled to Somerville, then to the South Station and New York, where they divided the money. One of the trio fled to Europe, while Spadaro says the other is in New York. He gave the police the names of the others, the inspectors say.

HUNT OUTLAWS IN WOODS AFTER ATTEMPT TO KILL

TWO WEALTHY RESIDENTS OF WESTWOOD FIRED UPON TO-DAY FROM AMBUSH.

Dozens of policemen and private citizens of Westwood, Norwood and Dedham are scouring the Birch Woods, near Westwood, this afternoon, for bandits who early to-day attempted to assassinate Albert Dean, a wealthy Norwood real estate owner and promoter, and his brother Charles, in the woods, about a quarter of a mile from their home.

From ambush the bandits fired three shots at the men. Two shots missed past Albert Dean's head. The third shot grazed the nose of his brother. As if by a miracle both escaped being hit, and hastened to Norwood, where they summoned the authorities.

Unarmed and fleeing down the woods road for their lives, they heard but additional shots were fired at them as they hastened toward the town of Westwood. Armed citizens and police from Westwood, Norwood and Dedham are scouring the woods for the assailants this noon.

The police are strongly of the opinion that the attempt on the lives of the two men were made by members of the bandit gang which recently terrorized Jamaica Plain and who, after the "shooting up" of the latter place, found refuge in the neighborhood of the Norwood woods and thicket. They will call for additional volunteers to surround the woods and assist in the effort to capture them this afternoon.

That the attempt was the work of foreigners the police are positive. Only yesterday Albert Dean was warned by an Italian—a man whom he knows by sight—to be on his guard. Approaching him in the street, the foreigner said to him:

"Be careful, Mr. Dean. Look out for yourself. There's a plot on foot against your life. Take my warning."

The man offered no explanation. He walked away before Mr. Dean could question him. Mr. Dean thought no more about the matter until he and his brother were attacked this morning.

The Dean brothers are among Norwood's most prominent citizens. Both are wealthy. Albert Dean owns considerable property in the town, and the water supply for all his tenants is derived from a large reservoir which he maintains in the woods near where the shooting was done to-day.

This reservoir has recently been out of repair. A gang of six Italians, under William Carr, foreman, has been at work for ten days repairing it, and both the Deans and Carr have noticed that the men seemed deeply interested from day to day in the progress of the various bandit hunts in eastern Massachusetts.

This morning the two Deans went to the reservoir to pump out the water in order that the repair work might be resumed to-morrow. Albert Dean went into the engine room to light the fire under the engine. Charles walked over to the reservoir, fifty feet distant.

Shots Follow Whistle.

It was shortly after 5 o'clock. No one was to be seen in the neighborhood. Suddenly Charles Dean heard a shrill whistle —probably a signal, the police think—from the direction of the woods. He started back to ask the brother if he wanted to fire what the whistle meant.

Instantly a shot rang out from the woods. It was followed in a twinkling by another shot. Both were aimed at Albert Dean, who was outside the engine house, and he says they whizzed within an arc of his head.

The third shot passed under the nose of Charles Dean.

Both men were unarmed at the time, and fearing they would be killed if they remained they ran at top speed down the woods road. Reaching the town they went immediately home and armed themselves. Then they notified Chief Sutherland of the Westwood police.

Town Quickly Aroused.

Sutherland called upon Norwood and Dedham for assistance and a band of officers, armed to the teeth, returned to the woods with the Deans and made a search, but found no trace of the bandits. News of the attempted assassination spread quickly throughout the town and a score of the townspeople, also armed, joined in the search.

State police were called upon and Officer Kent went to the scene. A genuine hunt is in progress.

"There is no question about it," said Albert Dean to a BOSTON AMERICAN reporter, "but somebody wanted to take my life and at the same time perhaps kill my brother. The scrape was miraculous. I cannot understand it."

The police believe that if the assailants of the men can be apprehended they may be able to tell something about some of the recent crimes throughout Eastern Massachusetts.

DUTCH LINERS TO VENEZUELA WITHDRAWN

WILLEMSTAD, Curacao, Aug. 21.—Each day brings a development in the difficulty between the Netherlands and Venezuela, indicating retaliatory measures on the one side or the other, and to-day it was learned that the Royal Dutch West Indian mail line had decided temporarily to discontinue its Venezuelan service.

The steamers of the Royal Dutch Mail line on their regular schedule call at the Venezuelan ports of Puerto Cabello, La Guaira, Guanta, Cumana and Carupano.

FIRE CHIEF AND DRIVER THROWN OUT

District Fire Chief Sennott and Driver Dunphy of the Fort Hill squad were thrown from their wagon and severely injured this afternoon in front of No. 70 Broad street. Both men are in the Emergency Hospital in Kingston street. They were responding to an automatic alarm in the John H. Pray store, No. 640 Washington street.

The axle of the apron broke on Exeter street, and both men were thrown out. Sennott was badly shaken up and received a severe scalp wound. Dunphy sustained many bruises and sicalons of the skin. The blaze did slight damage.

RUSSIAN MOB SLAYS ENTIRE JEWISH FAMILY

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 21.—News has reached this city of a terrible vengeance taken by the revolutionists of Tarievlan, in Yekaterinoslav province, upon a Jewish family named Edelstein, who were accused of giving information to the authorities regarding the activities of the agitators.

They visited the Edelstein home at night and threw two bombs through the window. They then shot to death the father, a daughter, a woman guest and her child. The mother, a son, a son-in-law and two grandsons were severely wounded.

The revolutionists temporarily retired, and help for the wounded was summoned. In the course of a couple of hours the victims, who were still alive, had been conveyed to a hospital. Not satisfied with their vengeance, the revolutionists, now a well-armed band of about forty or fifty men, descended upon the hospital, overpowered the nurses and guards and killed the mother and son in the ward in which they ranged.

Another dispatch from the provinces received here says that the prisoners in the jail at Saratoff, upon learning that two of their comrades were traitors, beat them to death.

CLOTHIER AND WRIGHT EASILY WIN AT NEWPORT

CASINO COURTS, Newport, R. I., Aug. 20.—The championship singles in the all-comers' tennis tournament were continued to-day, the fourth and fifth rounds being completed. There were also two matches in the intercollegiate tourney.

In the all-comers' singles the feature of the day was the great uphill fight put up by G. S. Touchard, who defeated A. L. Westfall after what seemed to be a lost battle. Losing the first two sets, he won the third, 7—5, and the fourth, 6—2. After a desperate struggle in the fifth set Touchard came off victorious, 7—5, thereby winning the match.

Another close battle was that between Nat Emerson and C. M. Bull, Jr. Clothier and Beals Wright easily won their matches, while Richard Stone was badly beaten by J. E. D. Sohst. Summary:

ALL-COMERS' NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP SINGLES.

Fourth round—W. J. Clothier beat J. O. Anderson, 6—3, 6—3. N. Beals beat C. M. Bull, Jr., 6—4, 4—6, 6—2, 6—2.

Fifth round—W. J. Clothier beat H. C. Martin, 1—6, 7—5, 6—3, 6—4. G. S. Touchard beat A. L. Westfall, 2—6, 6—4, 4—6, 7—5, 6—2. N. Beals beat Richard Stone, 6—1, 6—2, 6—2. Beals C. Wright beat C. Dale, 6—1, 6—2, 6—3. H. Torrent beat R. L. Jones, 6—4, 6—2, 6—3.

INTERSCHOLASTIC SINGLES.

G. M. Church, Colonia, beat R. H. Whitney, Harvard, 7—5, 6—2, 6—3. D. Mathey, Princeton, beat M. Babcock, Cornell, 6—1, 6—2.

DENY REPORT OF ILLNESS OF FAIRBANKS

By Boston American Leased Wire.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 21.—A telegram received here from Excelsior Springs, Mo., states that Vice-President Fairbanks, who was reported mysteriously ill in a sanitarium, addressed a large meeting at that place last night, and the rumor "exploded." The Vice-President is now understood to be either in Chicago or on the way to his farm near Farmer City, Ill. It is admitted by friends here that Mr. Fairbanks was "not very well" when he received hospital treatment when in Chicago, but the telegram received last night banished their uneasiness regarding his health.

OFFICER HURLED THROUGH GLASS BY A RUNAWAY

In attempting to die a runaway horse in Pemberton square to save scores of people on the sidewalk, Patrolman E. J. Ivers, crossing policeman in Scollay square, was hurled through a large plate glass window in Epstein's fruit store. His uniform was torn and he was badly cut. The horse, owned by Bagni & Hill of No. 24 John street, was stopped by other officers and citizens.

WALTER T. BABCOCK ADJUDGED INSANE

QUINCY, Aug. 21.—Walter T. Babcock, aged sixty, one of the best-known men in the city, was adjudged insane in the Quincy District Court to-day by a jury of six men, and was ordered committed to the State Insane Asylum at Westboro. Mr. Babcock's wife acted that he be adjudged insane.

ROGERS TO FOUND MODEL MILL TOWN

NEW BEDFORD, Aug. 21.—Henry H. Rogers intends to establish a model mill settlement in his native town, Fairhaven. The oil king is planning to erect eight wooden houses in Huttenston avenue, Fairhaven, at the start, at a cost of $50,000. Architect Harry E. Bisbee of Boston was here yesterday consulting Mr. Rogers about the project. The cottages to be built will have every modern convenience, and are to be rented to the employes of the Boylston Shoe Factory, the concern which Mr. Rogers is backing in his fight on the United Shoe Machinery Company.

ADMIT 3 GIRLS AND 154 YOUNG MEN TO THE BAR

Among the 157 law students who successfully passed the bar examinations and were to-day admitted to practice by Judge Knowlton of the Massachusetts Supreme Court were three pretty young women. They were Miss Stephne Grant of Worcester, Miss Alfretta McClure and Miss Bertha Greenberg of Boston. All three said that their plans for the future were not yet formulated, except that they would take a long rest from their years of hard study of Coke and Blackstone and many dull court reports before taking up practice.

There were several well-known athletes in the list of new lawyers, including W. H. Matthews, the famous colored shortstop who became noted at Cambridge later; Albert Harrard; Fisher Nesmith, halfback on the 1905 Harvard varsity team, and Harold Nesbitt, former captain of the Williams College baseball team.

Statistics prove that 90 per cent of the income of the average family goes into the family circle—for clothes, for home furnishings, for food, etc.—so it is evident that the advertiser using the evening newspaper—(homeward-bound circulation)—to tell his goods reaches best the very heart of the family circle. Don't forget that the BOSTON AMERICAN has twice the circulation of all the other evening papers combined.

GOVERNMENT RENEWS FIGHT ON OIL TRUST

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—Claiming that the Standard Oil Company has continued its obedience to law and practically nullify the Interstate Commerce Act, the Government filed a petition to-day asking a rehearing of the appeal of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana from the $29,240,000 fine of Judge K. M. Landis.

Although it is not specifically stated in the petition, it was agreed by counsel for the Government in their conference at Lenox, Mass., following the reversal by the Appellate Court of Judge Landis's decision, that if the interpretation of the law given by Judges Grosscup, Seaman and Baker were allowed to stand, successful prosecution of trusts under the Sherman anti-trust law would be impossible in the future.

The lawyers at the conference, over which the Attorney-General of the United States presided, were of the opinion that the reforms in rebate matters brought about by the Roosevelt administration would represent so much waste paper unless the upper court can be convinced that it is in error in its construction of the law.

HEADQUARTERS FOR WAR VETS

Walter Scott Hale, commander-in-chief of the United Spanish War Veterans, has issued general orders establishing the national headquarters at Young's Hotel during the fifth national encampment of the organization, which is to be in this city, September 1, 2 and 3.

Delegates are requested to call there on and after August 29 to register and deposit their credentials with the adjutant-general. It is planned by this method to have the committee on credentials able to report immediately after the national convention is called to order.

It is expected that the regular order of business will be suspended at the request of the commander-in-chief, so that the amalgamation agreement between the Veteran Army of the Philippines and the United Spanish War Veterans can be acted upon, as there will be a representative of the Veteran Army of the Philippines awaiting the action of the convention.

The council of administration will hold its first session at Young's at 5 p. m. Monday, August 31.

REALTY DEALER GETS 4 MONTHS

Frank A. Connors, about twenty-one years of age, of No. 6 Kingsbury street, Roxbury, a real estate dealer at No. 363 Dudley street and No. 396 Warren street, was in the Roxbury Court to-day on a larceny charge.

Thomas E. Slavin of No. 3 Greenmount street, Dorchester, and Harry Dunkeo of No. 25 Dale street, Malden, charged with being hired as rent collectors by Connors, Slavin paying $15 as a bond and Dunkeo $10. Both said they got no salaries, nor did they get their bonds back.

Recently Connors was arrested in Newspaper Row, Boston, by a police inspector on the same charge, made by a Boston man he caught him on the street, and held him till the inspector came.

Judge Williams sentenced him to four months at Deer Island. He appealed and was held in $600 for the Grand Jury.

HUB DOVES DESPERATE, HOPED TO WIN GAME

BATTING ORDER.

BOSTON.		CHICAGO.
McConnell, 2b.		Hahn, r.f.
Lord, 3b.		Jones, c.f.
Thoney, 1.f.		Donohue, 1b.
Gessler, r.f.		Dougherty, l.f.
Stahl, lb.		Atz, 2b.
Sullivan, c.f.		Parent, s.s.
Wagner, s.s.		Sullivan, c.
Criger, c.		Tannehill, 3b.
Steele, p.		Smith, p.

BY DYKE CLARK.

HUNTINGTON AVENUE GROUNDS, Aug. 21.—The White Sox knew there was a deep gulf to put them on the decline in spite of the cordial greeting they received when they lined up with Jim McGuire's Red Sox for the final Eastern series of the campaign.

They had heard of the big rout handed the Naps and were keeping a good look-out for sudden surprises which would send them the same way.

It was rather a battered aggregation of ball tossers from the Windy City, as they had won just one game out of the seven played on the Eastern trip till they struck the Hub, and the prospects did not look for the duel.

SAY too golden to them considering the pay the Red Sox were getting.

Of course all due regard was given to Freddy Parent and Pat Dougherty, the players so familiar to Hub fans, and their valiant work was not forgotten, and though greatly admired they were in the wrong boat and had to take the latter medicine the modern Red Sox were furnishing to all teams.

According to calculation the Red Sox were scheduled to take the big end of the games from the visitors, for wasn't the Naps ahead of the same team, and they proved easy victims.

But the way the talent had been getting the upsets lately there was just that uncertainty of the home team being able to get the grip on the White Sox at the breaking, yet there were plenty of faithful followers who could see nothing else.

Maintaining the same clouting that was displayed against the Naps, there was no doubt that the Red Sox would survive, as the latter under Fielder Jones's standard could not cope with them when it came to the question of swinging the wand for business.

It was Elmer Steele's turn to repose on the mound, and the youngster was primed for keeping up the high-class work of the other star members, while Cannonball Smith, for the White Sox, was hooked up the Hub, and the prospects did not look for the duel.

WEST SIDE BALL PARK, CHICAGO,

Aug. 21.—Reulbach and Lindaman were scheduled for slab duty in the third game of the series between the Cubs and Doves at the West Side Park this afternoon. Reulbach was almost a certainty, but Manager Kelley couldn't quite determine whether he would send Dorner or Lindaman to oppose, but big Ed Pfeister seemed to have the call, however. The two teams drew a large crowd.

BOSTON		CHICAGO
Browne, r.f.		Hofman, c.f.
Bates, l.f.		Sheckard, l.f.
Becker, c.f.		Chance, 1b.
McGinnis, 1b.		Evers, 2b.
Ritchey, 2b.		Steinfeldt, 3b.
Dahlen, s.s.		Howard, c.f.
Devereaux, 3b.		Tinker, s.s.
Gr. nam, c.		Kling, c.
Lindaman, p.		Reulbach, p.

The weather conditions and the two straight defeats administered to the Doves by the Cubs and the reverses the Pirates have met with have thrown the fans into a pennant fever and no excited throng was there to see the game.

Kelley was urging his men on to-day and rallying them to take the game. His seven split in Pittsburg and him to expect at least an even break on the series, and he was urging his men to stop the losing streak.

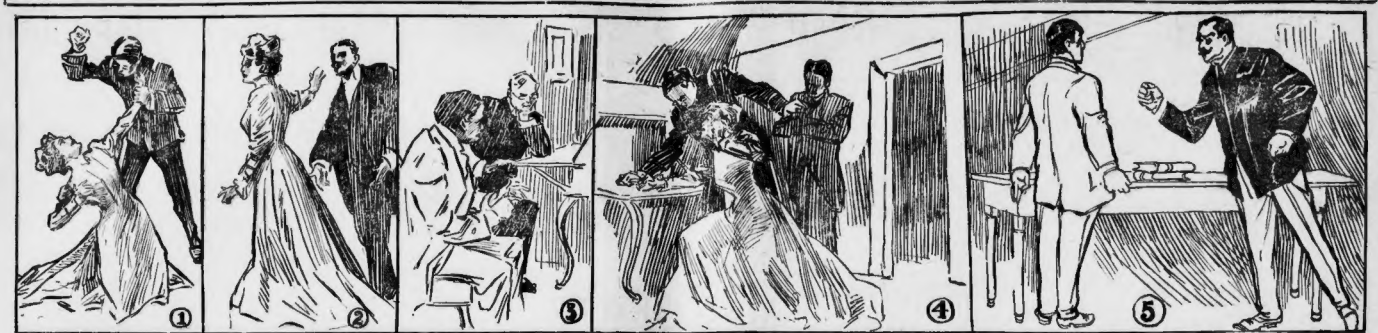
The success of the Cubs in the last two games yet there were plenty of faithful fol- gave them a lot of confidence, and to-day they are certain that they will be in the hunt until the very last, and that they will win the pennant.

"To see the bottom of the ocean." New submarine telescope is designed for us to look down 3,000 feet, and the steel diving armor to let men walk the bottom at enormous depths. See the SUNDAY AMERICAN.

New Brinkley Picture In Brilliant Colors
"YOU GET THE SEA URCHIN" DON'T MISS IT!
Free in Greater Boston With Sunday's American

YOUNG WIFE'S OWN STORY OF THE HAINS-ANNIS TRAGEDY, TOLD IN PICTURES

'MY HUSBAND WOULD HAVE KILLED ME, TOO,' CRIES MRS. HAINS



1. "Captain Hains constantly beat and threatened me."

2. "Thorndyke Hains, during my husband's absence, tried to make love to me, but I repulsed him."

3. "When Captain Hains returned, his brother Thorndyke poisoned his mind against me."

4. "Together they made me sign some paper when I did not know what it was about, from the effects of the starving and beating which I had received."

5. "Thorndyke Hains hated Annie because he claimed Annis, as a publisher of influence, had prevented him from selling some of his stories."

HAINS TELLS HIS STORY OF THE BAYSIDE TRAGEDY

Captain Declares His Wife's Actions Led Him to Shoot Annis to Death.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—While Captain Peter C. Hains was for the first time telling his version of the troubles with his beautiful wife which led him to shoot William E. Annis to death, he was seized with sudden frenzy and sprang upon his brother, Major Hains, and attempted to strike him. The story of the secret conference at which this occurred became known to-day.

The sensational encounter took place in the counsel room in the Queens County Jail, and for a time created a scene of disorder and confusion. The frame of the military officer was so great that it was with extreme difficulty that Major Hains was rescued from actual injury at the hands of his maddened brother.

In spite of, disjointed sentences Captain Hains told Attorney Joseph A. Riley, associated with John McIntyre as counsel for the Hains brothers, that his wife's confession, made to him in the presence of his father and brother, T. Jenkins Hains, was voluntary.

"I never had the slightest suspicion of my wife," said Hains, "until about three months ago, when in the Philippines I received a warning cable from my brother. I immediately dropped everything and hurried back home."

Attacked Major Hains.

While the captain was telling of the wrongs he declared he had received at the hands of his young and pretty wife he grew excited and agitated. His face worked with emotion and his hands clinched and opened spasmodically.

Before he had told more than a small part of his story his brother, Major Hains, entered the counsel room, and Captain Hains, apparently not knowing him for the time, sprang at the major and struck viciously and blindly at him.

Attorney Shay, Major Hains and several attendants had all they could do to overpower and quiet the man, and then his state of mind was such that Mr. Shay gave over all hope of hearing any connected story from him at the time.

The sense of wrong which the imprisoned army officer was laboring under as he charged his wife with being the slayer of Annis seemed to drive reason from his mind and make him a maniac.

Contradicts His Wife.

This is the first complete story as told by Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., of his trouble with his beautiful young wife. It differs radically from the many disjointed versions that have been printed and contradicts emphatically Mrs. Hains's assertion that the statement she made to her husband, his aged father and her brother-in-law, was extorted.

"I never had the slightest suspicion of my wife," the captain said, "until about three months ago, when in the Philippines I received a warning letter from my brother. Immediately I dropped everything and hurried back home. I could not believe the story was true. There must be some mistake somewhere, I thought. It seemed impossible.

Thought Only of Claudia.

"Oh, God, I cannot believe it!' I kept repeating to myself.

"The month or more I knew it would take me to get home seemed like eternity. I don't believe I slept a wink in all the three long weeks of the voyage across the Pacific. I could think of nothing but Claudia and the horrible stories about her.

"To make it worse, there was not a soul on board with whom I could discuss my trouble or from whom I could obtain a shred of hope. I wandered about the deck by day and tossed in my berth by night, cursing the science that could not devise some swifter method of travel by sea.

"I tried to read, but I could not concentrate my mind on anything. Inevitably I would turn to the subject that was racking my heart and head.

Felt Himself Going Mad.

"By every means I endeavored to distract my attention, for I felt the strain would drive me mad.

"Still, with all this, there was something in my heart that seemed to tell me that it could not be true; that as soon as I saw Claudia she would explain everything and stamp the horrible stories, the lies that they were. It could not be that the woman I loved so dearly, the mother of my children, could be the creature she was painted. Some spiteful woman, jealous of her beauty, must have inspired the atrocious allegations.

"And so, between fear and hope, I passed the long, weary days and the longer nights until we reached the United States. From the coast I sped home and arriving in Fort Hamilton, Claudia, as I had hoped and expected, denounced the awful accusations as lies. Her smile removed the gloom from my mind as the sun dispels the clouds.

Believed in His Wife.

"That night was one of the happiest in my life. I refused even to speak to my brother, who had written me about Claudia, and I determined to show her how that their dastardly attempts to defame a good, true woman had failed miserably.

"Still it was not to be expected that I could instantly forget the maddening story. I had dwelt on it too long for that. It began to go over it again, wondering how anybody on earth could be so base minded as to have originated it. The author, I thought, must have been an accomplished liar. Soon I would discover him or her and then I would confront him with his cowardness and make him swallow his words.

"The details were very full. I sneered. Nothing had been ignored to give an air of truth to the story. But Claudia had contradicted them all.

Wife's Stories Differ.

"I repeated over and over the explanation he had made. Her words had been burned indelibly in my mind.

"Suddenly I remembered a slight discrepancy. There could be nothing in that, though. Claudia would be able to clear away that little difference. To-morrow I would ask her.

"Lovingly, the next day I put the question to her. 'Remember, dear,' I said, 'I am here to vindicate and defend you, to clear your name.'

"Her absence from home she had explained by saying she had gone on a visit to the mountains. Previously she had mentioned a trip by boat. I could not quite understand how she could get to the mountains by boat, and I asked some more questions. To my horror, I discovered in her replies several more points of difference between them and the story she had told me the night before.

"I wanted to disentrust questioning her, but I could not. The more we talked the more she contradicted herself. At last, she broke down and confessed.

Confesses at Last.

"She had not gone to the country at all, she admitted in tears, but had accompanied Annis to New York.

"I thought I should lose my mind. Then it was true, after all. What should I do? I loved her dearly. The blow was awful. No one who has not cared for a woman can tell what I suffered. Perhaps my ears deceived me. I sent for my father.

"To him, of her own volition, without being asked any questions, she repeated the story she had told me.

Wife Confesses to Father.

"My father, who at first had opposed my marriage, had afterward accepted my wife and had become very fond of her. In silence he listened and at the end we decided to send for my brother.

"Before him she told the same story. Then we sent for a lawyer, for instantly I had made up my mind that it was impossible for me to continue to live with her. My father and brother agreed. I must obtain a divorce at once. We sent for a lawyer and before all four of us she, for the third time, made the statement.

"The lawyer reduced her story to paper and she signed it. That night I left the house. I was like one possessed, but still I would not take her story for truth. I investigated it and I investigated Annis.

"At last I felt that I must have satisfaction from the man, who with such devilish design and in such a cold-blooded manner had deliberately wrecked my home and disgraced my poor little innocent children."

ANALYTIC COMPARISON OF HAINS BROTHERS BY PHRENOLOGIST

Captain P. C. Hains has a nervous mental temperament.

T. Jenkins Hains has a strong motive temperament.

The Captain has a large posterior lobe.

T. Jenkins Hains has an almost straight posterior lobe.

The Captain has a high superior region of head.

T. Jenkins Hains has a lower superior region of head.

The Captain has a weak, receding chin.

T. Jenkins Hains has a strong protruding chin.

PETER DID ONLY WHAT WAS RIGHT

—T. Jenkins Hains

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Captain Hains has collapsed in his cell, and, pacing its floor, wrings his hands and talks disjointedly about his wife and the man he killed because he suspected her. The remarkable nerve he showed when he killed Annis and during the first few days he was behind the bars seems to have deserted him. Dr. Clarence N. Platt, the jail physician, was sent to his cell, and found the prisoner weeping.

"Can I do anything for you?" asked the physician.

Captain Hains stared at him blankly and then replied: "I loved my wife—I loved her."

When questioned by one of his attorneys about Annis, Captain Hains moaned: "He robbed me of my wife—I loved her. My God, I loved her terribly."

When told of the army officer's condition District Attorney Travis, who has all in hands the task of trying to send the Hains brothers to the electric chair, said:

"He Is Not Shamming."

"I do not think he is shamming. The seriousness of his position has unnerved him. But he is not insane, and was not insane when he killed Annis."

But T. Jenkins Hains holds his extraordinary nerve without a tremor. When told of his brother's condition, Jenkins, who is blamed by many as the instigator of the tragedy, said:

"Peter should not act like that. He should bear up bravely. He did only what was right."

Since he has come to the conclusion that the defence will be insanity, counsel for the leading attorney is perplexed. He says he has not the money to pay the experts he will need to offset the testimony of those who will appear for the prisoners. He has, he says, only $7,000 for office expenses, and will need at least $10,000, if not twice that amount.

It is said that Mrs. Annis, widow of the man shot to death by Captain Hains, will discuss the situation with her attorney today and may make a statement in regard to her views of the alleged confession by Mrs. Hains. It is stated by a relative of Mrs. Annis that the widow does not believe that the charges made against her husband are true. She had absolute faith in him.

"I Will Not Leave Peter."

In regard to the status of T. Jenkins Hains in the case it is said by one of his legal advisers:

"The defense has positive proof that he did not know that Captain Hains went to the Bayside Yacht Club for the purpose of killing Annis. He drew a revolver only to protect his brother after the latter had shot Annis."

It is said that when it was proposed to get Thornton out of jail under heavy bonds, the story writer said:

"If you get me out of here I will sleep on the jail steps to be near Peter. He needs me and I will not leave him."

GUARD HAINS IN CELL IN FEAR OF SUICIDE ATTEMPT

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Frank G. Wild, Mrs. Hains' attorney, in a statement made this afternoon declared to be false a number of allegations made earlier to-day by former District Attorney John F. McIntyre, counsel for the Hains brothers.

"I want to deny positively," said Mr. Wild, "that there is any question as to the legitimacy of Mrs. Hains' young child.

"I also want to say," said Mr. Wild, "that in the charges filed by Mrs. Hains in answer to her husband's suit for divorce she makes no allegations of moral depravity against any one other than Captain Hains.

"There are no other officers of the army now involved in those charges. They have to do with Captain Hains alone."

Captain Hains is in the Queens County Jail, began to show the effects of his confinement today. He was apparently in a despondent mood and his actions became so alarming that a special guard was placed in front of his cell to prevent him from committing suicide.

"Tantalizing Mystery of Tar and Feathers." Who is the "fiance" of this victim of two angry husbands? How did she happen to be living at the same address as that of the wife most immediately involved? What is the secret of the terribly humiliated victim's energy in prosecuting his torturers? Will the trial bring forward one of these women, behind whose skirts the whole mystery now lurks? See the SUNDAY AMERICAN.

ANNIS'S STORIES DIFFER.

"I repeated over and over the explanations that I had made to my wife, but she refused to believe me. She would not even look at me. She would not speak to me. She would not answer my questions. She would not even look at me. She would not speak to me. She would not answer my questions. She would not even look at me. She would not speak to me. She would not answer my questions

TAFT MAKES AN APPEAL TO THE SOUTH

Addresses 5,000 Visitors at Hot Springs on the Issues of the Campaign.

COMPARES PARTY RECORDS

By Boston American Leased Wire.

HOT SPRINGS, Aug. 21.—Nearly 5,000 visitors, mostly Virginians, came to Hot Springs to-day to listen to Judge Taft's speech, in which he answered Bryan's question, "Shall the people rule?" and compared the efforts of the Republican party to meet the abuses of the trusts and monopolies with what the Democratic party has tried to do. The speech also contained an appeal to the independent Democratic voters of the South.

Mr. Taft said in part:

I have no hesitation in saying that not since the beginning of the government has any other national administration done so much for the cause of labor by the enactment of remedial legislation as Theodore Roosevelt and the Republican party have elected and sitting during his terms of office.

It is true that additional legislation is needed to perfect many matters by enforcing the principles laid down by Mr. Roosevelt and directed in the remedial statutes already passed, so as to clinch the progress already made and secure further progress. It is also true that Mr. Roosevelt has made recommendations for some of such needed legislation, which has not been enacted by the present Congress into law. The present Congress has not amended the interstate commerce law so as to prevent overissue of stocks and bonds on interstate railroads, and it has not amended the anti-trust law in accordance with Roosevelt. The failure of the rate bill in the Republican Congress was followed by the passage in a much more drastic and effective form by the next one.

Misuse of Capital.

The abuses due to the misuse of combinations of capital are a development in our body politic and social requiring a limitation upon the use of property and capital such as to prevent the evils described on the one hand and to interfere with the institution of private property and the maintenance and a motive for dividualism and thrift as little as possible on the other. No evil to be avoided is not one which yields to hastily formed or vaguely described nostrums suggested in the hurry of a political campaign or approved for the purpose of catching votes. It involves a careful study of the operation of detailed provisions of law and a knowledge of the difficulties of criminal prosecution under our present system.

It is said that the people do not rule in this country. My impression has always been that the election of Mr. McKinley and a Republican Congress in 1896 was one of the most intelligent and effective expressions of popular will ever manifested to the world, and that the maintenance of the gold standard and a protective tariff by his administration was a correct interpretation of the people's will.

This was conclusively shown to be so by even a greater majority for Mr. McKinley in 1900. When Theodore Roosevelt was chosen in 1904, a still greater majority was returned, and the inference that he and the Republican Congress under him had again carried out the people's will was indisputable. We may well submit to the country whether his present administration has not expressed the will of the people in the Roosevelt policies.

Why Obey Popular Will.

There is not the slightest doubt that after the present campaign; after the declaration by the Republican national convention that the Roosevelt policies are to be followed; after the specific promises by the national convention to render more effective the provisions of the anti-trust law and the interstate commerce law, by restricting the overissue of stocks and bonds on interstate railroads, a Republican Congress when elected can be counted on to take up and with due consideration of the form and details of the proposed measures adopt the remedies promised with all loyalty to the popular will.

The situation with respect to the present national issues in the South is most peculiar. Everyone having the interest of the country at heart as an abstract proposition would rejoice to have the Solid South as a Democratic asset in every national campaign broken up. It would be better for the States themselves; it would be better for the country. The Republican party has improved the waterways, is building the Panama Canal, and has started the movement for the reclamation of swamp lands, the conservation of forests and water resources, and is taking many other steps that are for the development of the South.

An Appeal to the South.

I know the South is a conservative portion of the country. By tradition its attachment to the Democratic party is firm; but a party represents principles, and when the principles change, though the name of the party remains the same, it would seem that after a while the traditional attachment to party would rest lightly on an intelligent community.

Many Independent Democrats in the South agree with the Republican party in all its main economic doctrines. The Southern Democrats are opposed to the policy of scuttling out of the Philippines; they generally believe that we have a problem of national responsibility there of aiding these people to stand upon their feet, and that we ought not to leave the islands until we have fully completed our work. They rejoice in the missionary character of what we are doing and in the spread of Christian civilization that we are helping on by our policy in the Philippines.

We bear much of Jeffersonian Democracy and the adherence by the present regime of the Democratic party to the principles of Thomas Jefferson. I venture to say that if Jefferson were to return to life he would not recognize his reputed political descendants.

It is the duty of the Republicans of the South to take advantage of the mental attitude I have described on the part of many Independent Democrats. They should show that they are a real political party, determined to discuss the issues, and to attract into their ranks those men who sympathize with the fight they are making.

$2.10 in Park Coupons in Sunday American

Here is the list of free tickets to be given with next Sunday's BOSTON AMERICAN. They are for the leading summer parks of New England, are twenty-six in number and of an aggregate value of $2.10:

Wonderland Park—
Admission to park 10
Darling's Punch Monkey-Doy Circus 10
Pawnee Bill Wild West Show, 25-cent tickets for 10 cents 15
Velvet Coaster, two rides for ticket and five cents 05
Miniature Railway, two rides for ticket and five cents 05
Merry-Go-Round, two rides for ticket and five cents 05
Total 50

Paragon Park—
Admission to park 10
Human Roulette Wheel 10
Punch Mirrors 10
Lowande's Fun-Ring Circus, 15-cent tickets for five cents 05
Alligator Farm, ten-cent ticket for five cents 05
Olympic Theatre, ten-cent ticket for five cents 05
Mystic, ten-cent ride for five cents 05
Roller Coaster, two rides for ticket and five cents 05
Merry-Go-Round, two rides for ticket and five cents 05
Total 65

Nantasket Park—
Admission to park 10
Thompson's Scenic Ride 10
Thursday, admission to the park 10
San Francisco earthquake 10
Double Whirl, ten-cent ride for 5 cents 05
Merry-Go-Round, two rides for ticket and 5 cents 05
Saturday, park admission to children under ten years 10
Total 60

Canobie Lake Park—
Admission to theatre with seat 10
Circle Swing 10
Merry-Go-Round 05
Total 25

Lexington Park—
Admission to the park 10
Total 10

Grand total $2.10

FOUND BAKER TAKING A NAP IN BREAD TRAY

Startling Conditions Revealed in Tour Made by the Health Commission.

"Italians, Hebrews, and bakers of other nationalities make bread for their people under conditions which require constant supervision. There are many transgressions of the most obvious rules in these foreign bakeries. In one place, for example, we found one of the bakers taking a siesta in one of the great trays in which the bread is laid out. In another we found bread and cake spread out on the floor to cool."—Health Commissioners Ritchie and North.

The Boston Board of Health has inaugurated a system of inspection for all bakeries in the city. Their first day's tour, made among the South End bakeries, disclosed the above conditions. Several tenement houses and tables were also visited.

The bakeries visited included establishments producing bread and cake, and ranged from the more pretentious ones on Boylston street to the foreign establishments of Hudson street and Harrison avenue. Some Syrian establishments were viewed, some German, English and American. A Syrian woman making cottage cheeses with her hands was one of the picturesque features of the trip.

The manufacture of ice cream by the larger firms seems to be under excellent conditions, and scrupulously clean, they were the rule. Most of the smaller places of manufacture are cellars, in which the light is none too abundant, but in general the mixing is done in places that are pretty well adapted to the work.

The Commissioners also inspected the smallpox hospital, just vacated, and at present undergoing the process of cleaning, and viewed the portion of the South Bay living above Southampton street, which in the warmest of weather occasionally develops odors. They inspected the Strandway bathhouse and discussed some of the minor problems of its sanitation, one difficulty under which this house suffers being that it is distant from any of the mains of street water.

Mrs. Walter Bowles, Who Loyally Stands with Her Husband

GIRL BRIDE SAYS HUSBAND IS INNOCENT

Refuses to Believe Bowles the Daring Thief Pictured by the Police.

BROCKTON, Aug. 21.—When Walter A. Bowles, traveling salesman, man of fashion, and alleged factory thief, was arraigned in the police court here for the third time, the public dragnet apparently drawing tighter with each succeeding day, a pair of a girl, dressed in black, sat in an unobtrusive place in the courtroom and flashed sympathetic messages to the prisoner with her eyes.

It was his bride wife, whom he married less than five months ago, and who since his arrest has stood by him loyally. Mrs. Bowles is not quite eighteen years old, prior to her marriage she was Miss Ethel Tuncliffe of Porter avenue, noted for her attractiveness of face and form, and having posed for local photographers as a model.

She is Bowles's second wife, and their courtship was brief. According to the girl friends they met a romance. Bowles meeting her at a dancing party last Winter and both immediately forming a strong sentiment for each other. The girl's mother was not favorable to a wedding, and the young couple quietly slipped out of the city and the State one day and were married.

"My husband has been kind to me, except when he has been indulging too freely in liquor," she said last night. "It was a fault, but not a serious one, and I'm going to do all I can for him. I can believe that Walter is the reckless, daring thief they have tried to picture him."

He pleaded guilty to several charges of larceny about $400 worth of shoe leather tops, cut and finished for uses and around Mr. W. Webster, and with another young man of the same set of which Bowles is a type. Both are said to have been into the F. L. Pyfer leather remnants factory, where Bowles was employed, and stolen bags of leather. Webster has been a traveling salesman and recently was employed at the C. H. Tower Company. His parents are eminently respectable and it was a terrible shock to his father when he was arrested and held for hearing in $500 bonds. It was his mother who provided surety for his appearance.

THOUSANDS TO ATTEND NEW PARTY'S FIELD DAY

MEN OF NATIONAL FAME TAKE PART IN RHODE ISLAND EVENT.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 21.—With a mammoth field day and outing, which is expected to be attended by an immense throng, the Independence party of Rhode Island will make its bow to the public tomorrow.

This outing will be one of the biggest events of the season in Rhode Island. Bowles Heights, on Narragansett Bay, where it will be held, is one of the most commodious places of outdoor amusement in the State, but it is anticipated that its capacity will be taxed to the utmost tomorrow. The outing will be free to everybody.

Thomas L. Hisgen, Independence party candidate for President of the United States, and other men of national prominence and leaders in public affairs in New England, are expected to be present.

Serve Big Clambake.

A monster clambake will be served, and to whet the appetites of the vast throng for this there will be a baseball game between two rattling teams, a programme of athletic events, band concerts, dancing and many other entertaining events. It will be on all day and evening affairs from 10 a. m. to 11 p. m., and promises to be one the like of which Rhode Island never saw before.

Bowles Heights, which is one of the most attractive spots along picturesque Narragansett Bay, is fully large enough to accommodate an immense gathering, and is an ideal place for such an affair. The dining hall is sufficiently commodious for the big Rhode Island clambake—the most famous American shore dinner.

Thomas L. Hisgen is known throughout Rhode Island, and is one of the State's popular visitors.

The following, many of whom have already accepted, have been invited to attend the outing and several of them will deliver speeches: Washington A. Coles of Boston, the famous blind orator; Joseph A. Buchanan of New Jersey, Charles E. Gehring of New York, chairman of the New York Independence party committee; Clarence J. Shearn of New York, Charles O. Power, secretary of the Independence League in Massachusetts, John D. Spellman of Vermont, William N. Osgood of Lowell, Junius T. Auerbach of Bowdoin, John F. Finerty of Clinton, Mass., Charles A. Walsh, national secretary of the Independence party, Milford Howard of Alabama and Alfred Neal of Indiana, among the most prominent men in their respective States.

Athletic Contests.

The ball game is to be between the Red Hooks and the Oysterville. Besides this game, which will be lively contested, there will be a quarter-mile run, an eighth-mile run, and other events. A handsome gold cup has been offered by the BOSTON AMERICAN as a silver prize for the quarter-mile run, and the second prize will be a gold medal offered by Michael T. Kane of Lincoln. The Bowles Heights management has not as another gold cup for the winner of the eighth-mile run, and President O'Neill of the Rhode Island Independence party will give a gold medal as second prize. There will be two prizes for a sprinting contest. James J. Dunn of East Providence has given a gold medal and Arthur Smith a silver medal for the amateur 100-yard dash.

Band Concert All Day.

Another feature of the day will be the concert throughout the afternoon and evening. Butterfield's famous brass band has been engaged, and will hold forth on an especially elevated platform.

A reception will be tendered to the guests at the Bowles Hotel from 11 to 12 o'clock, and all the guests are requested to be present not later than 12 o'clock. Another reception by Thomas L. Hisgen will be held from 4 to 5 o'clock at the Heights, and this will be immediately followed by the orchestral part of the program.

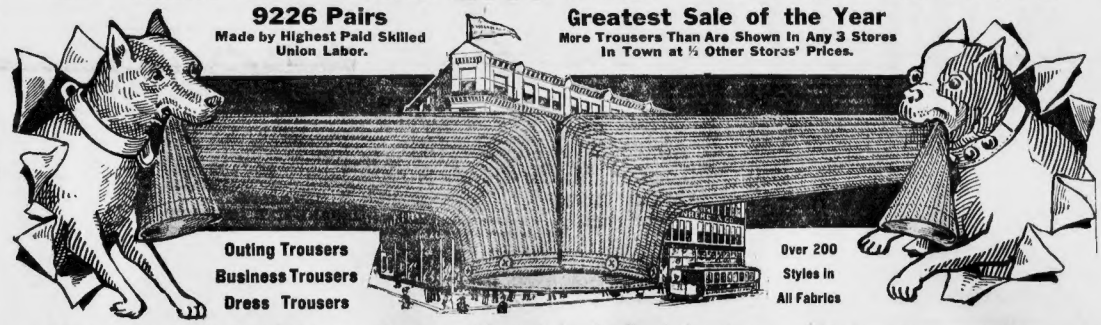
Everybody is invited to this first annual outing and field day of the Rhode Island Independence party. Admission to the grounds and to the sports is free to all. The programme of the day will be brought to a close late in the evening, when the Heights will be illuminated by a grand electrical display, and there will be a magnificent exhibition of fireworks.

Thousands of Men's High-Grade Trousers

On Sale at Prices Less Than the Cost to Make

9226 Pairs
Made by Highest Paid Skilled Union Labor.

Greatest Sale of the Year
More Trousers Than Are Shown In Any 3 Stores In Town at ½ Other Stores' Prices.



You never saw such styles, such patterns, such prices as this wonderful sale offers to shrewd buyers. Original cost was never considered. "Clear the tables" was the cry of Weigert & Meyer, the overstocked makers, and we bought the entire lot lower than we ever bought before

$2.50 TROUSERS FOR $1.45 BIG TROUSERS OR	$3.00 TROUSERS FOR $1.65 LITTLE TROUSERS OR	$3.50 TROUSERS FOR $1.95 OUTING TROUSERS OR	$4.00 TROUSERS FOR $2.45 BUSINESS TROUSERS OR	$5.00 TROUSERS FOR $2.95 DRESS TROUSERS
Weigert & Meyer's Regular $2.50 Trousers Elegant outing flannels, pretty gray plaid cassimeres, with belt straps, cuff bottoms, or plain cut, all for 1.45	Weigert & Meyer's Regular $3.00 Trousers Neatest collection of dressy patterns in both outing and regular cut for business or vacation wear. Worth $3 easily, for 1.65	Weigert & Meyer's Regular $3.50 Trousers Beautiful dark, rich striped worsteds, light and medium cassimeres and nobby outing flannels in dark and light effects 1.95	Weigert & Meyer's Regular $4.00 Trousers Select from a big variety of patterns elegant $4.00 trousers, which are never sold at less than this price. All the newest cloths, for .. 2.45	Weigert & Meyer's Regular $5.00 Trousers Just think of fifty new, fresh 1908 patterns. Every pair worth no less than $5, in dressy worsteds for business or evening wear 2.95

HOT

Weather causes sore, swollen, tired feet. People addicted to corns suffer extreme misery when their feet are in this condition. There is nothing that will nag one and cause nervous derangements and a general breakdown as will aching, tired, throbbing feet. A few drops of Cabot's Sulpho-Napthol in a basin of water will give instant relief, remove inflammation, prevent swelling and cure corns. It is a scientific preparation, whose great virtue lies in the fact that it is a positive and harmless germicide.

Sold only in yellow packages by druggists and general dealers, 25c, 50c and $1.00. Don't accept anything said to be "just as good." Sulpho-Napthol Company, 20 Hayward Sq., Manufacturers. Sawyer Crystal Blue Company, Selling Agents, Boston, Mass.

HELP WANTED—Female.

WANTED

An experienced woman as Manager and Head Trimmer

In our millinery workroom. Best references necessary. All letters treated confidentially. Address,

JAMES A. HOUSTON CO.,

Boston, Mass.

Our Great Sale of Friedman Suits Nearing the End

This Is Your Last Chance to Share in These Extraordinary Low Prices on High-Grade Suits

$10 Men's Suits
Values that will meet with your highest expectations. Smart worsteds in dark and medium plaid effects. Smart single breasted models with long roll lapels. Splendid $10 suits for $5.75. 5.75

$12 Men's Suits
Elegant serges, worsteds and cassimeres of new, snappy materials, in single and double breasted. $12 was always a fair price here, for five dollars less than you will pay elsewhere. 7.45

$15 Men's Suits
See these splendid values and you will recognize the enormous savings in store for you. Choose from Tru Blu serges, brown, tan and olive cassimeres, pretty striped worsteds, handsome velours in the latest shades. 9.70

$18 Men's Suits
Hand tailored in every detail, best trimmings and linings, made from the highest grade materials. Finest weave serges, soft finished velours and pretty fancy worsteds. Great values. 11.65

Boys' Clothing Bargains

50c Boys' School Blouses 35c
Puritan Make in Madras and Chevlot.

98c Boys' School Knickerbockers 39c
Ages 3 to 16 years. All Wool Cassimeres.

5.00 Boys' Knicker Suits 3.45
Brown & Gray Mixed Cassimeres. Great Val.

Vorenberg's

Washington, Hanover and Elm Streets

Bargains in Furnishings

2.00 Negligee Shirts 1.23
Finest Shirtings, Coat Style, attached or detached Cuff.

50c New Suspenders 19c
New Pretty Webs. All Guaranteed.

50c White Lisle Underwear 33c
Reinforced Drawers. Long and Short Sleeves.

MEN FOUGHT WITH CLUBS FOR PILE OF WOOD

Antonio Cherello, sixty years old, and Severino Alesandro, fifty-five, battled with clubs over the possession of a pile of wood in the dark celar of a tenement in the north end, both live, at No. 90 Washington street north, just before noon to-day. Alesandro was battered over the head. Cherello was arrested.

The police were attracted to the scene by cries of "Murder, help, police!" They found Alesandro on the floor, bleeding, and semi-conscious, and Cherello standing near him with an oak club, two feet long, in his hands.

The injured man was removed to Station 1 in the police ambulance, and after his wounds were dressed by Dr. Dunn he was held as a witness against Cherello. Revlving, he said that Cherello attacked him first and that before he could defend himself he had been knocked down, his adversary wielding blow after blow upon his head.

Cherello has a police record.

BABES HURT BY FIRE TEAM

Frances and Emily Alston, seven and four years old, were knocked down on River street, Cambridge, to-day, by the hose cart attached to Engine 6, which was responding to a fire alarm. The accident was caused by a big St. Bernard dog, which ran out of a yard and by snapping and barking at the heads of the horses caused one of them to swerve. He forced the other horse upon the sidewalk, where the children, who are rotated, were walking with Mrs. John D. Alston of No. 58 Prince street, their mother.

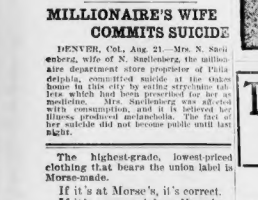
Emily was cut and bruised and her sister escaped with slight hurts. Bystanders thought both children killed. A cry of horror went up. Driver Charles Hess had a difficult task in preventing the hose cart from tipping over. It smashed a fence. The fire was in the house at No. 13 Pleasant street and was caused by an oil stove. The damage was slight, but the excitement great.

MILLIONAIRE'S WIFE COMMITS SUICIDE

DENVER, Col., Aug. 21.—Mrs. N. Saelenberg, wife of N. Snellenberg, the millionaire department store proprietor of Philadelphia, committed suicide at the cottage home in this city by eating strychnine tablets which had been prescribed for her as a medicine. Mrs. Snellenberg was afflicted with consumption, and it is believed her illness produced melancholia. The fact of her suicide did not become public until last night.

The highest-grade, lowest-priced clothing that bears the union label is Morse-made.

If it's at Morse's, it's correct. If it's correct, it's at Morse's.



If you've ever been "stung" by a "fake sale"—one of those "enormous-purchase-at-a-fire" mendous-sacrifice" affairs—you are just the man to appreciate a Morse sale. It's so different.

In the first place, we offer you clothes that you don't have to guess about. You know they're good because they're Morse-built.

And then, too, the prices are really marked down. Not first marked up so as to show an apparently great reduction. Just an honest cut of from 20 to 33 1-3% from the prices of our regular stock as marked at the season's beginning.

With these facts before you the following items possess a degree of importance that you cannot afford to ignore.

$16.50 and $15 Suits $10 Marked Down to

Fancy worsteds and Scotch cheviots in gray, blue and brown, plaid and check effects, representing many of our most popular lines. All sizes.

$10 Scotch Cheviot $6 Suits Marked Down to Excellent suits at a price that does not begin to express their actual value.

In our better grades that formerly sold as high as $35 there are other markdowns of an equally decisive character.

We're closing out all our Boys' Wash Suits at half price.

Open Saturday Until 10 P. M.

Leopold Morse Co.

Adams Square

NATIONAL STOCK

(BAY STATE GAS)

And All Other Curb and Listed Stocks Bought and Sold on Commission.

DANIEL J. SHEA & CO.

INVESTMENT SECURITIES

7 Congress St. 31 State St.

SADIE KNOWLTON DIVING INTO TANK AT WONDERLAND AFTER THRILLING BICYCLE DASH DOWN STEEP INCLINE

Miss Sadie Knowlton, the most daring of women bicycle leap-for-life riders, is the newest and latest free feature at Wonderland, Revere Beach. She gives a remarkable performance every afternoon and evening. The rides down a high, steep incline fifty feet, then up a three-foot hook on the end of the incline which tosses her into the air. While in the air she dives over the handle-bars of her bicycle into a small tank of water, a leap of thirty feet.

This daring act by the well-known Roxbury girl is proving a great feature, attracting thousands to the park.

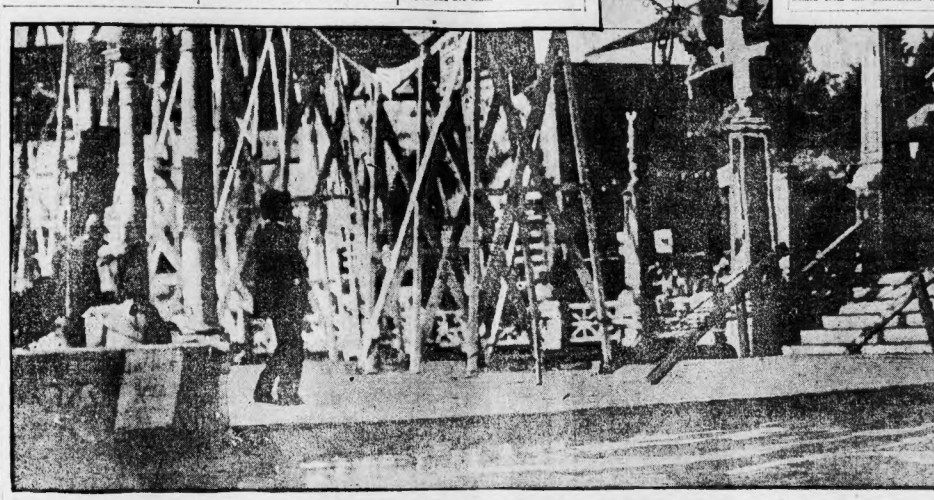
The most picturesque gathering in the history of the Church of the Immaculate Conception will be held next Sunday, when, at 10 a. m. solemn high mass, celebrated by Rev. Father Gasson, president of Boston College, the Wonderland Indians, Mexicans and cowboys from the Pawnee Bill show, in their native garb, will be present to the number of thirty or forty.

Photographs will be made of this party on the church steps, including delegates from the St. Francis Mission, South Dakota. A dinner will be served, and special cars will convey the party.

Preparations for the production of "Alice in Wonderland" are being completed by Assistant Manager Perry, and Manager Higgins says it will be the most spectacular carnival held in any Summer park, beginning with September and lasting until the close of the park, a three weeks' run.

The attendance Tuesday of the Sunday American Outing Club to Wonderland exceeded by many thousands any previous day of the year, the park being filled afternoon and evening and it resembled a holiday attendance.

Last week's layout of fifty cents' worth of free tickets will be repeated next Sunday when the BOSTON AMERICAN will publish another full list with the exception that Darling's Pony Monkey-Dog Circus will replace the ride as the free attraction, with the Pawnee Bill Show at forty cents and the Aerial Coaster, Merry-Go-Round and Miniature Railway in each instance at the rate of two rides for a coupon and five cents.



The Great Morgan Robbery

A Thrilling New York Story of Mystery, Romantic Love and Daring Deeds

By JOSEPH O'BRIEN

CHAPTER XXIV.
Norman's Vindication

NORMAN of the swift succession of events that followed his arrest, Norman spent a gloomy night in his cell in Police Headquarters. Drew's lawyers called on him, and after hearing all that Norman could tell him expressed the belief that he would be held to await the action of the Grand Jury, and might reasonably expect to spend a considerable time in the Tombs before his trial.

The next day—the day after the murder of Rogers, the rescue of Ruth and the shooting of John Tarlton—was marked by the death of James Garden which was recorded.

Norman was arraigned and the evidence of the police was presented against him. This was chiefly that he was known to have gone to Rogers on the night of the murder, and to have had an engagement with Garden at about the time the crime was committed.

Norman said Drew and his cousin, John Warden, in the back of the court room. He did not know it, but Nora Warden, Ruth Garden and Anna Drew were outside in an auto room.

Before the case began his lawyer went back and had a long consultation with Drew and Warden. When it was over he returned, and there was a satisfied smile on his face which Norman could not understand.

The police testimony against Norman hinged chiefly on his being an ex-convict. That was sufficiently damning to cause him to be held. An assistant District Attorney was at the trial to see that the evidence against him was properly presented, and Norman's lawyer could not cross-examine. This seemed strange, but presently his lawyer asked permission to call a few witnesses.

The Coroner gave permission and Bowdin called out:

"Will the court officer please call Miss Nora Harding?"

"Nora Harding," echoed through the corridors, while the police gasped in astonishment, and the woman for whom they had searched New York for weeks walked calmly into the court room.

She made her way straight to the witness stand, took her seat and was sworn. Then she told the story of the night of James Garden's death. She herself admitted to the house the man who killed him.

"Who was that man?" asked Bowdin.

"His name was Rogers. He was in the employ of John Tarlton, who also employed Mr. Garden as his man of business."

He Is Dead!

"Do you know where he is now?"

"He is dead. He was murdered last night by his employer."

Her answer caused a tremendous sensation. Without pause the lawyer proceeded:

"What caused the quarrel which resulted in the murder of James Garden?"

It was an old conspiracy which had resulted in the imprisonment of Norman Taylor for a robbery he never committed. Mr. Garden had threatened Tarlton, to compel him to make restitution to the boy. Tarlton sent Rogers to kill him.

Who actually committed the Morgan robbery for which Mr. Taylor suffered imprisonment?"

This question was objected to by the district attorney, and ruled out, as saying nothing to do with the murder. Nora was excused.

Drew took the stand and told all the facts he had embodied in his statement. Then Nora Harding was recalled.

"Just one question, Miss Harding," said the lawyer. "Can you tell us where John Tarlton is now?"

"He committed suicide in his home last night, after the murder of Rogers, and when he found that he was about to be unmasked."

This answer created another sensation. As Nora left the stand a couple of detectives from police headquarters hurried in. They held an earnest, whispered consultation with the Assistant District Attorney. After it was over he addressed the Court:

"Your Honor, I think there is no longer any question of the innocence of Mr. Taylor in this matter. I am quite willing to have him discharged on his own recognizance, pending a final disposition of the case. I have just received from the detective Bureau confirmation of the amazing story told by this witness."

Norman, without a moment's hesitation, walked over and took Ruth in his arms, where she lay content. But her first words showed that some purpose lay in her mind.

"Norman, I want to go on to the witness stand and tell what I know of the Morgan robbery," Norman said gaily. "Come, Ruth, let's try to be happy without taking that up.

"You know I am innocent, and so do Drew and his dear wife, and my cousin. The rest of the world will learn it in due time. As for the money, it doesn't matter much. I would rather lose it all than have you suffer, sweetheart."

"I will not accept the sacrifice," Ruth asserted with decision. "It is rightfully your wealth, and you ought to have it. It is your good name, and you are entitled to that."

"There's lots of time, Ruth, and I'm too happy just to be free and with you and Anna here to think about it."

Drew, who had left them, entered again with John Warden and Nora. Norman greeted his cousin affectionately and turned to Nora.

"Here is a lady of mystery whom I have to thank for much. She said you loved me better."

"What is Norman's name?" said Warden. "She is my wife and, therefore, something of a cousin."

"It Was Fate"

Nora came forward and Norman expressed his joy at another new-found relative. Ruth and Anna Drew were then in his arms.

"It was fate," Norman said.

Bowdin joined them and conferred with Drew and Warden while Norman turned again to Ruth. She renewed her protests against his sacrifice, but Norman laughingly put her off.

"We will hear no more of all this, foolish dear," he said. "Some day I will go at it, and I am going to settle down to be happy."

"I think Mr. Taylor is very wise," Bowdin said, joining them. "As far as the property which should belong to him is concerned, he will get it anyhow. He and his cousin, Mr. Warden here, will receive everything left by Tarlton, and a very skilful manager, and I believe the estate has grown considerably. Both will be wealthy young people."

"I owe this to you," Norman said, grasping Warden's hand.

"I owe it quite as much to you," his cousin replied.

"My motor will just hold seven," said Drew, "and it is at the door. We will all go to Flushing. That's the place for the celebration, and we'll all be together, including old Bowdin here."

"And we will hear no more of the great Morgan robbery," said Norman, taking Ruth's hand in his.

THE END.

"IK MARVEL" 86, IS SICK.

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 21.—Donald G. Mitchell, the well-known author who writes under the pseudonym of "Ik Marvel," is suffering from an attack of indigestion, but it is said that his illness was not of a serious nature, despite the fact that he is eighty-six.

Homely Philosophy About Electricity

There is a good deal back of the dialect story that begins: "The man that never does nothin' for nobody never has nobody do nothin' for him."

The rates for electricity having been reduced 20% to 12 cents in Greater Boston, we are confronted by a large shrinkage in our annual income.

We must have more customers.

The best way to get them is to please those we have. On this policy stands our business, which is larger in Boston for the population served than in any other city. If we hadn't pleased our customers it wouldn't be.

So there is nothing new in our policy of offering the service of a Department of Illuminating Engineering to our patrons. It is only the idea itself that's new.

Now we have come to scientific lighting. Not getting something for nothing—but using all the light in electric lamps—not wasting part of what you pay for.

There are many ways to do it. Each case has to be studied by itself. Beginning September first we shall do this for our customers without charge.

Better insure early attention by applying now.

The Edison Electric Illuminating Company

JAIL TRUST OFFENDERS IS HISGEN'S POLICY

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Aug. 21.—Jails instead of fines for the punishment of corrupt corporations, just the same as for other criminals, has been announced as his policy by Thomas Jefferson Hisgen, candidate for President by the Independence party.

Mr. Hisgen made this declaration without equivocation before the largest audience that has assembled this year at Finest Ridge, midway between this city and Hartford.

The meeting was a rousing one and Mr. Hisgen was in his best speaking mood. The popularity that won the fight against the Standard Oil Trust bristled from him all through his address. He declared that he was better qualified to handle the trust question than any of the accomplished men the presidency because he had actual experience in the administration of a good deal dribbling to one of the biggest of these concerns on earth.

Not Is a Result to the People?

In the course of his speech, Mr. Hisgen said:

"What has been the net result of all this anti-trust agitation? There is just one commodity that is being sold to you cheaper than it was before the agitation began. That is oil.

"I have fought the oil trust and I have beaten it. I stand ready, if elected President, to put the same energy into a fight against all of the oppressive corporations. I know how to fight the trusts because I have fought one of the most merciless of them all my life.

"When I was shipping oil into Vermont I found that I was paying 20 cents a gallon freight while the oil trust was paying 6 cents. I furnished evidence to the tune of $18,000,000 but only got the case nolle prossed, and not any more than the $20,000,000 was paid.

"If I were President of the United States I'd try to find a way necessary for them to get lawyers to get them out of jail.

"The trusts and monopolies have the power to take the bread out of your mouth and the beds from under you. What can you do with them? Practically nothing. The Republican party is responsible for the great corporations, and every man who does not want them to continue to be this country will be forced to vote against Taft, because he would not injure the trust, and against Bryan, because he could not, if he would, because of certain elements in his party.

True Party of the People.

"The Independence party is the true party of the people. It seeks to restore to the people their rights as they then had under Jefferson and under Lincoln. If the planks in our party are made into laws the people will rule, and when they do there will be an equal opportunity for all."

It was certainly "Hisgen night" at the popular resort. Thousands of people had been placed in the spacious pavilion, and these were all taken before the speaking began. The crowd gathered from both Bay and Nutmeg States. Workingmen from the large factories in the towns not far distant were out in force, members, and they gave the closest attention to the speakers. Several thousand buttons were distributed. They were snapped up with avidity by both men and women.

Mr. Hisgen, his brother, Henry A. Hisgen of Albany, and their families, together with about fifty of their personal friends, made the trip to Pines Ridge from this city in a special electric car, which left here about 2:00 o'clock.

All of the way are decorated with bunting and flags, the end of each being adorned with a picture of Hisgen.

When the party reached the grove, cheers for "Tom Hisgen, the next President," rent the air. The candidate and his friends were conducted to the stage.

INSANE MAN ATTACKS MAYOR OF HOBOKEN

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Attacked by William Carmody, an insane man armed with a knife, in his office, Mayor Stoll of Hoboken had a narrow escape from death and was saved by the arrival of his body guard, a detective, at a critical moment. After a desperate struggle the Mayor and detective disarmed and arrested Carmody.

THE GREAT TRUST TRIAL

with the United States authorities.

Declaring "I did it all for Mrs. Gardner," she has left Chicago for the purpose of conferring with the millionaire Boston woman.

"We shall be delighted to see Mrs. Chadbourne when she comes to Boston, and we hope it is true that she took a train from Chicago this city," said Henry W. Swift, legal adviser of Mrs. John L. Gardner, today.

"We have no official knowledge whatever of what has happened in Chicago. Mrs. Gardner came days ago telegraphed Mrs. Chadbourne asking that she come to Boston, and she received no reply. The relations between the two have been and continue to be pleasant."

According to the United States District Attorney's office in Chicago, the case is to be presented to the Federal Grand Jury there next month, and the Government will also undertake to collect $82,111 besides. This sum is the exact figure at which the articles have been appraised, making with the amount already paid, a total of $152,820.18 which the Government intends to exact.

Mr. Crane, according to dispatches from Chicago, looks to Mrs. Gardner to reimburse him for his payment of the $70,000 penalty.

"Mrs. Gardner 'Broke'? Silly!"

Mrs. Chadbourne declares she imported the articles for Mrs. Gardner and Mrs. Gardner's lawyer insists that, while Mrs. Chadbourne may have thought she was doing a friendly act for his client, the fact is that Mrs. Gardner did not intend that the articles should be brought here and did not

SPECIAL NOTICE.

TAKEN AT NIGHT

For sciatica, colds and chills, Sanderson's Eucalyptus is a potent and best of warming remedies. And always healthful. 40 years the standard in Boston and everywhere. Look for the Owl Trade Mark on the wrapper, when you buy.

I DID IT FOR MRS. JACK, SAYS MRS. CHADBOURNE

Mrs. Emily Crane Chadbourne of Chicago, whose father, R. T. Crane, the millionaire elevator manufacturer, has paid upwards of $70,000 in fines and penalties for the importation of Mrs. "Jack" Gardner's $82,500 works of art as "$8,000 worth of household goods," will see Mrs. Gardner, in the hope of extricating both women from the difficulties they are in know they had been imported until customs officers called on her.

The United States authorities at Chicago say, on the other hand, that Mrs. Gardner has made a full statement to them. One of them—Special Treasury Agent Will Jamieson quoted in Chicago to-day as saying that Mrs. Gardner told him she was bankrupt and could not pay the charges.

"This is perfectly silly," said Henry W. Swift, attorney for Mrs. Gardner, to-day. "You can say for me that, for all I know, Mrs. Gardner is far from being broke, and I guess she is still in comfortable circumstances. She is still in control of her property."

Here is the circumstance, all right enough, but the statement which is to be made by Mrs. Gardner made to him, and which Mr. Swift characterizes as absurd.

Fine or Imprisonment or Both.

"I deeply regret this trouble, because I have no money to defend myself, should the government prosecute me. I discharged my attorneys some time ago because I couldn't pay them for their services. So I am now all alone. And I have just one servant. I have nothing left now but my art and my devotion to the things that are good and beautiful. I have spent my entire fortune on art. What I haven't spent on the art goods themselves I have paid to the government in duties and penalties."

According to a dispatch from Chicago it is said unofficially at the district attorney's office there that the compulsory clause of the law relating to smuggling would be invoked against one or both women. That clause calls for a maximum fine of $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, upon conviction.

Mr. Crane, Mrs. Chadbourne's father, declines, according to the same dispatch, to answer Mrs. Gardner's statement that she merely loaned the art collection to Mrs. Chadbourne to furnish a home in Paris, and did not know Mrs. Chadbourne contemplated bringing the collection to this country.

"We obtained Mrs. Chadbourne's confession," said Major William, in Chicago, "and turned the whole matter over to the Department of Justice. The art works are now locked up in the Chicago Customs House, awaiting action by the United States district attorney's office.

It is declared in Chicago that Mrs. Chadbourne was betrayed into the hands of the government by a society woman who had been her friend.

FOUR INCINERATORS TO BURN GARBAGE

Superintendent of Streets Guy C. Emerson to-day announced that he is planning the institution of four garbage incinerators to dispose of the city's refuse. The present system of cremating garbage at the South Boston yards and taking it in lighters down Boston Harbor is considered as expensive and antiquated, according to Mr. Emerson. He plans to erect incinerators in West Roxbury, Dorchester, Brighton and Charlestown for the handling of the garbage in those districts. The cost to the city proper will probably be taken to Spectacle Island.

WAS DELIRIOUS WITH ECZEMA

On Chest, Back, and Head—Pain, Heat, and Tingling Were Excruciating—Nerves in Exhausted Condition—Sleep Badly Broken.

CURE BY CUTICURA SEEMED LIKE MAGIC

"Words cannot express the gratitude I feel for what Cuticura Remedies have done for my daughter and myself. She is fifteen years of age, and had never had anything the matter with her skin until four months ago, when an eruption broke out on her cheek. The first symptom was a redness, and this was followed by itching and blisters, which would break and run matter. I took her to a doctor, and he pronounced it eczema, and a very bad form. He treated her, but instead of the trouble getting better it spread. It showed itself on her back, and then quickly spread upwards until it was on the top of her head, and then all her hair had to be cut off. The pain she suffered was most distressing, and what with that and the heat and tingling her life was almost unbearable. She became run down in health, and at times was very feverish, languid, and drowsy, and nervous and irritable to a terrible degree. Her nerves were in such a low state that she could not bear to be left alone, even for a few minutes, neither she would insist on having her bedroom window open, and would lean out on the window sill. She did not have a proper hour's sleep for many nights. The doctor's medicine simply afforded her just as little relief as the first, and I really do not know what we should have done if we had not read how Cuticura cured a similar case. I purchased a cake of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and Cuticura Pills, and before the Ointment was three-quarters finished every trace of the disease was gone. It really seemed like magic. Her hair is coming on nicely, and I still apply the Cuticura Ointment as I find it increases the growth wonderfully. (Signed) Mrs. Oscar Place, Brentwood, Essex, England, Mar. 8, 1907."

Cuticura Soap (25c.) to Cleanse the Skin, Cuticura Ointment (50c.) to Heal the Skin, and Cuticura Resolvent (50c.), or in the form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per vial, to Purify the Blood, sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., sole Props., Boston, U. S. A.

Mailed Free, Cuticura Book on this Disease.

W. L. DOUGLAS

THE BEST $3.50 SHOES FOR MEN

W. L. DOUGLAS MAKES AND SELLS MORE MEN'S $3.50 SHOES THAN ANY OTHER MANUFACTURER IN THE WORLD.

The reason W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes are worn by more men in all walks of life than any other make is because I give the wearer the benefit of the most complete organization of skilled shoemakers in this country, who receive the highest wages paid in the shoe industry and whose workmanship cannot be excelled.

The selection of the leathers and other materials for each part of the shoe and every detail of the making is looked after by specially trained experts in every department.

If I could take you into my large factories at Brockton, Mass., and show you how carefully W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes are made, you would then understand why they hold their shape, fit better, wear longer, and are of greater value than any other make.

(Signed) W. L. Douglas

W. L. DOUGLAS $4.00 GILT EDGE SHOE Cannot Be Equalled at Any Price.

W. L. DOUGLAS BOYS' SHOES $1.78 AND $2.00. JUST THE SAME AS MY MEN'S $3.50 SHOES. THE SAME LEATHERS, FOR $1.78 AND $2.00.

W. L. Douglas name and price is stamped on the bottom, which protects the wearer against high prices and inferior shoes. BEWARE OF SUBSTITUTES. TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE.

Send Color Eyelets used exclusively. Catalog Mailed Free. W. L. Douglas, Brockton, Mass.

W. L. Douglas Shoe Stores in Boston:

635 Washington St. 291 Washington St., cor. School St.
62 Court St., cor. Howard St. 130 Hanover St.
115-117 Summer St., cor. Lincoln St.

$30 SEWING MACHINE $16.95

EASY TERMS

WRITE FOR PARTICULARS

Manufacturers Outlet Co. 3rd Floor Hobbs

ORRINE Cures the Liquor Habit

Or money will be refunded. Simple home treatment; no publicity. Can be given secretly if desired. The Ribon Jaynes Drug Stores.

FREE MONTH'S COUPON

This coupon entitles the bearer to one month's instruction, including all necessary text-books and stationery, FREE, if presented to the DENIS-CHERMOT Physiculum, 19 Boylston street, on or before Aug. 31, 1908, and day (except Wednesday) classes 9 a. m. to 12 m., 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 p. m.

TRIO OF CELTIC BEAUTIES IN CONTEST

The upper picture on the left is that of Miss Florence Mackie, on the right is Miss Lennie F. Daley and below is Miss Catherine M. Belmont.

SEEKPRETTIEST IRISH COLLEEN IN ALL BOSTON

Prize of $100 and Opportunity to Join Andrew Mack's Company.

One hundred dollars and a splendid opportunity for dramatic training for the prettiest Irish colleen in Greater Boston.

Who is she?

Andrew Mack, who opens at the Park Theatre Monday night in "Arrah-Na-Pogue," needs a girl to take the part of a typical Irish colleen in his company. Needless to say she must be a pretty girl, one of Irish birth or Irish-American descent. Mr. Mack is a Bostonian. With praiseworthy pride in the beauty of the Irish girls of Boston, he chooses to obtain this colleen in Boston.

He asks the BOSTON AMERICAN to help him find, among the thousands of Celtic maids in this city, the most beautiful one of them all.

The BOSTON AMERICAN inaugurates this contest, with a prize of $100 for the girl of most typical Celtic beauty in Boston. The winner will get the $100 and will be offered a place in Mr. Mack's company.

Who will she be?

Photos to Decide Contest.

The contest is to be decided by photograph. Here are the rules of three candidates already entered.

One is that of Miss Lennie F. Daley, one of the pretty Irish girls of Malden.

Another one in the trio is Miss Katherine M. Belmont. She lives at No. 739 Tremont street, Boston. She is a native of County Cork, Ireland, and one can be no more Celtic than that. Her picture will interest the Hibernians of Boston as of County Cork nativity or ancestry.

The third picture is that of Miss Florence Mackie of No. 44 East Brookline street, whose friends declare her a prime rising candidate for the Celtic Beauty prize.

The Celtic Beauty Editor of the BOSTON AMERICAN wants photographs of pretty Celtic girls, candidates for this cash and dramatic prize.

There is no lack of material. There are thousands of Irish girls in Boston and the Celtic beauty is noted. The head of an Irish girl, Mary Cunningham, is on our editorial sanctum. Artists and sculptors have praised the grace and beauty of the daughters of Erin.

The Celtic Beauty contest is attracting an immense amount of attention so soon. Every man and woman is interested in a beauty contest. The tremendous Celtic influence in Boston makes the contest particularly important. The men are always willing to discuss the question of feminine charms and the women and girls, being the principals in the absorbing question, think that he problem of beauty is about as important as any. Why wouldn't they, bless their pretty faces?

The More the Merrier.

Pictures of candidates for this contest should be sent to the Celtic Beauty Editor of the BOSTON AMERICAN at No. 82 Summer street. Mark the name and address of the candidate plainly on the back of the photograph. Do not hesitate to send in pictures. The more the merrier.

The Celtic Beauty Editor wishes pictures of all the pretty Celtic girls in Boston. If you know a likely maid see to it that her photograph is sent in. Maybe she is too modest to send it herself. Wouldn't it be a shame, though, not to have her picture entered in the contest, just because Miss Norah or Miss Margaret or Miss Eileen was too timorous of her own charms. It certainly would be a shame. Maybe some friend would send in the picture for her. You know?

The Celtic Beauty Editor is not to be a judge in this contest. He expects to be busy enough keeping track of pictures.

The contest is to be decided by a board of judges from the leading Irish organizations of Boston. The judges will not be swayed by sentiment but will judge on the beauty merits alone. And a person may they have, trying to select the fairest among such a galaxy of beauty.

Contest Open to All.

What the judges say goes. The BOSTON AMERICAN and Mr. Mack have agreed to abide by their decision. The winner selected by the judges will get the $100 and will be offered the place in Mr. Mack's company.

Now, you Celtic maids of Boston, which one of you is the fairest? Who gets the prize?

STOPS ITCHING AT ONCE.

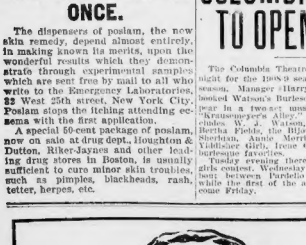
The dispensers of poslam, the new skin remedy, depend almost entirely, in making known its merits, upon the wonderful results which they demonstrate through experimental samples, which are sent free by mail to all who write to the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West 25th street, New York City. Poslam stops the itching attending eczema with the first application.

A special 50-cent package of poslam, now on sale at drug dept., Houghton & Dutton, Riker-Jaynes and other leading drug stores in Boston, is usually sufficient to cure minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, rash, tetter, herpes, etc.

COLUMBIA TO OPEN AGAIN

The Columbia Theatre opens to-morrow night for the 1908-9 season. To start the season, Manager Harry N. Farren has booked Watson's Burlesquers, who will appear in a two-act musical farce entitled "Krausemeyer's Alley." The company includes W. J. Watson, "Billy" Spencer, Bertha Fields, the Bijou Trio, Marguerite Sheridan, Annie Morris Bernstein (the Yiddisher Girl), Irene Goodwin and other burlesque favorites.

Tuesday evening there will be a chorus girls contest, Wednesday brings a wrestling bout between Pardello and Jim Gaffyn, while the first of the amateur nights will come Friday.



William McKinley

"A Head of Them All".

"The Flag is There!—
Who Will Haul It Down?"

Piedmont cigarettes follow the flag, and are made of the very choicest selections of the fine old tobacco grown in the famous Piedmont district. In every package of

PIEDMONT
CIGARETTES

there are now two coupons which are just as good as money. 50c cash will be paid for 100 of these coupons.

10 for 5c

Piedmont Cigarettes are packed in TIN FOIL

MAY 'PHONE ACROSS OCEAN BY WIRELESS

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Wireless telephone messages between New York city and Paris, and wireless transmission of the music of opera in New York to the saloons of ocean liners 500 miles or more at sea, are among the things promised by Dr. Lee DeForest, experimenter with a new telephone.

A contract has been entered into by which the 700-foot tower of the new Metropolitan Life Insurance Company will be equipped with a wireless plant, corresponding with another now on the 1,000-foot Eiffel Tower in Paris, and it is expected that within a year wireless telegraph messages will be exchanged between Paris and New York, the wireless telephone service to begin soon afterward.

CHINESE PUPILS IN CONVENTION AT ASHBURNHAM

ASHBURNHAM, Aug. 21.—One hundred and fifty Chinese young men and women, representing the leading colleges and preparatory schools of the country, are here in attendance at the most unique convention ever held in this section.

Wu Ting Fang, Chinese minister to the United States, is to make the principal address of the annual gathering at the session to be held to-morrow. The gathering is held each year in a different section of the country, during the vacation season.

The program includes addresses, papers and discussions on educational matters, athletic sports and the presentation of a Chinese drama. To-day's program includes an address by Principal H. S. Cowell of Cushing Academy, the opening play of the tennis tournament, and a reception at the Yale Chinese Students' Club in the afternoon, and an oratorical contest and reception to the young women of the conference in the evening. Tomorrow has been selected for the conference carnival.

DUTCH TRY TO LOWER FLAG OF VENEZUELA

WILLEMSTAD, Curacoa, Aug. 21.—The Dutch island of Aruba has furnished the latest incident in the existing difficulty between the Netherlands and Venezuela.

Five days ago a Venezuelan coastguard vessel arrived at Aruba for the purpose of taking away the Venezuelan consul. As soon as the purpose of the visit became known the people of the island started a demonstration. They crowded around the residence of the consul and wanted to haul down his flag. The Governor of the island appeared, however, and succeeded in putting an end to the disorder.

The consul refused to leave his post, saying that illness made his going away impossible, and consequently the coastguard vessel sailed away with her mission unfulfilled.

HOLD AUTOIST IN $5,000 FOR MANSLAUGHTER

Charles E. Davis, forty, a wealthy automobilist of No. 68 Lakeview avenue, Cambridge, was held in $5,000 bonds for a hearing on September 1, by Judge Almy in the Cambridge District Court to-day, upon a charge of manslaughter in causing the death of Mrs. Margaret Kilby, thirty-eight, of No. 139 Massachusetts avenue, Cambridgeport.

Mr. Davis's automobile ran down Mrs. Kilby and her eleven-year-old daughter, Edith, while they were crossing Massachusetts avenue, near the Harvard Bridge, on Monday night. Mrs. Kilby was so badly injured that she died yesterday. The child is still in the hospital.

Davis declares the accident was unavoidable. His hearing will take place on the same day as the inquest into the case.

Legal Stamps as Usual

"Your Money Back If You Want It."

WOLF'S

"MY CLOTHIER"

Hanover and Portland Streets

Outing Trousers
$1.00 White Duck Pants 59c
$2.50 Reg. & Outing Pants 1.97
$3.50 Reg. & Outing Pants 2.47
$4.00 Reg. & Outing Pants 2.97
$5.00 Reg. & Outing Pants 3.47

Men's $1.00 and $1.50 Shirts Red Tagged at 69c

Men's Straw Hats
$1.00 Split Straw Sailors 79c
$1.00 Sennit Braid Sailors 79c
$1.50 Split Straw Sailors 98c
$2.00 Milan Braid Straws.. 98c
$3.00 Porto Rican Panamas 1.50

Men's $2.00 Blue Serge Vests Small Sizes 50c

Fresh Lot of Red Tags Today

There hasn't been a dull moment since this sale started. As fast as one low-priced lot has dwindled away, another lot, in the majority of cases of a higher-priced quality, has been Red Tagged at the same price. This has served to keep the interest up to the highest pitch.

This Red Tag Sale is our final clean-up before stock-taking. What we don't sell now we'll have to count up then. We don't intend to count any of the goods below if prices will clear them out. Just take a look at the reductions—then come and see how real Red Tag bargains are.

For $10 and $8.50 Suits $5

And you're not restricted to one particular kind. We've taken $10 three-piece cassimere suits—$10 two-piece worsted outing suits—and $8.50 three-piece blue serge suits and marked them down to the same little price—five dollars. Every suit is thoroughly dependable.

For 7.97

$12 Blue Serge Suits
$12 Two-Piece Outing Suits
$12 Three-Piece Worsted Suits

Light, summery fabrics in snappy patterns; cut in the latest style, thoroughly made, every fashion idea looked to

For 9.97

$15 Blue Serge Suits
$15 Fancy Cassimere Suits
$15 Three-Piece Worsted Suits

Hand tailored, hand padded shoulders, hand worked collars, lapels and buttonholes. Better than those elsewhere at $15.

For 11.97

$18 Fancy Worsted Suits
$18 Fancy Cassimere Suits
$18 Lightweight Cheviot Suits

High-class fabrics that will wear until you tire of them; long style coats, full peg trousers, and newest cut vests.

Savings Women Will Appreciate

Suits—Skirts—Waists

6 $2.00 Dotted Jumper Suits, now.. 98¢
3 $5.00 Prince Chap Linen Suits, now 1.98
18 $5.98 Black Voile Skirts, now... 3.98
35 $4.50 Princess Jumper Dresses... 1.98
18 $4.50 Colored Panama Skirts, not 2.98
9 $14.50 Panama Suits Tagged at 6.39
69c White Lawn Waists Tagged at... 49¢
$1.00 White Lawn Waists Tagged at. 69¢
$5.00 Ecru Net Waists Tagged at... 2.98
$10.00 Black Net Waists Tagged at 3.98
98c White Muslin Skirts Tagged at. 79¢
$3.00 Muslin Night Gowns Tagged at 1.69
$3.00 Muslin Night Gowns Tagged at 1.98

Hats—Gloves—Vests

10c Wash Belts now Red Tagged at.... 5¢
17c Gauze Cotton Hose Red Tagged 12½¢
39c Tan Lace Lisle Hose Tagged at. 25¢
39c Plain Lisle Vests Red Tagged at. 25¢
$1.00 White Silk Gloves Red Tagged at 79¢
50c Lace Trimmed Vests Red Tagged 39¢
$1.00 Lisle Gloves now Red Tagged at 49¢
Regular $2.98 Trimmed Hats Tagged 98¢
Regular $3.98 Trimmed Hats for... 1.98
Regular $4.98 Trimmed Hats Tagged 2.98
$4.00 Black Silk Petticoats Tagged at 2.98
$5.00 Black Silk Petticoats Tagged at 3.98
$6.00 Black Silk Petticoats Tagged at 4.98

Just for Men

Usual $1.50 Madras Pajamas.... 89¢
Usual 19c Cotton Half Hose at.... 9¢
$1.25 Jersey Bathing Suits now.. 89¢
25c Wash Ties You Get For..... 9¢
25c C. M. C. or Boston Garters.. 19¢
39c Balbriggan Underwear now.. 24¢
$6.50 Leather Suit Cases now.... 4.98
$1.50 Percale or Madras Vests.. 95¢
25c, 35c Lisle Suspenders now... 19¢

Price Cuts on Boys' Wear

$2.00 and $3.50 Russian and Sailor Suits Tagged at.... 1.89
$4.00 and $4.50 Wool Worsted Suits Tagged at..... 2.89
$5.00 and $5.50 Wool Cheviot Suits Tagged at..... 3.89
$6.00 and $6.50 Fancy Worsted Suits Tagged at..... 4.89
Boys' Regular $1.50 Wash Suits Are Tagged at..... 95¢
Boys' Regular $2.50 and $3.00 Wash Suits Tagged at. 1.45
Boys' Regular 50c Blouse Waists Are Tagged at..... 39¢
Boys' Regular $1.00 Khaki Trousers Are Tagged at.... 79¢

Shoes for All

Men's $4.00 Pat. Colt Oxfords... 2.79
Men's $3.00 Pat. Colt Oxfords... 2.19
Men's $3.00 Rus. Calf Oxfords... 2.19
Boys' $3 "Hard Knock" Shoes.. 1.50
Women's $3.50 Rus. Calf Oxfords. 2.89
Women's $3 Tan Calf Oxfords.. 2.39
Women's $2.25 Rus. Calf Oxfords. 1.89
Women's $2.25 Pat. Colt Oxfords. 1.89
Women's $1.25 White Canvas Ties 79¢

REDUCED RATES TO WHITE MOUNTAINS

The reduced rate to the White Mountains, from Sept. 12 to Oct. 3, gives an opportunity to those with a limited amount of money to take in the beauties of the Granite State at a season when the foliage presents a magnificent view. George F. Marsters, tourist and ticket agent, No. 298 Washington street, has arranged a series of tours under escort Sept. 12, 15, 19, 22 and 26 at exceedingly low rates. These tours include the Merrimac Valley, Bethlehem, a coaching trip through the Franconia Mountains, Profile Lake, "The Old Man of the Mountains," the "Flume" and Pool, Bretton Woods, summit of Mt. Washington and Crawford Notch.

Boston American Daily Home Magazine

THE HIGH CALLING OF FATHERHOOD

By ELLA WHEELER WILCOX

Copyright, 1908, by American-Journal-Examiner

THERE could be no more important work for a nation than the establishing of institutions and the training of men and women for the proper knowledge of the right generation of human beings.

New York City provides a fund for a large aquarium. The Zoo is another city institution where young animals are protected before birth and after, and should the male animal indicate dangerous tendencies toward his mate before the birth of the young or afterward toward his offspring, he is at once placed where he cannot do damage.

No stock breeder would permit his brood animal to suffer injury at such a period; she is protected in every way in order that her offspring may be strong and well.

Yet all over the United States expectant mothers are left to the careless and ignorant treatment of men who know no more about the responsibilities of fatherhood or of prenatal influences than they know about the social possibilities of Mars.

In the lower walks of life, where people are crowded in small rooms and obliged to live in close quarters, expecting mothers are forced to endure the odors of cheap drink and tobacco and to bear taunts and insults from intoxicated husbands who have never been told that a woman is sensitive to an abnormal degree at this period of her life; and in the higher walks thousands of mothers are suffering from neglect and indifference or from refined abuse from husbands who are college graduates and who occupy important positions.

It would be an admirable undertaking for the Government to establish in each large city a free institution, where such women could pass two or three hours each day in cheerful surroundings, and three or four months, at a nominal price, if unfortunately situated at home.

Issue Diplomas in Fatherhood.

Whatever the original expense such an undertaking might necessitate, it would be saved in a generation by the lessening of disease and crime and poverty among the masses.

Added to this, each college should be obliged to add a department through which every young man must pass before granted a diploma. The most skilled physicians should be employed as instructors in this department. It is quite as important in the world that young men know what it means to propagate the species as that they become such expert athletes that Yale conquers Princeton at football or Harvard Princeton at baseball.

Many cases may be found, if the annals of the courts were studied, where men graduated with brilliant honors from famous colleges proved brutal husbands to wives who were expectant mothers. The man's brain had been filled with all kinds of knowledge save that which gave him an understanding of fatherhood and motherhood.

However disillusioned or enraged he may become with a woman he has chosen as his wife, there is not a man in a million who would misuse at any time unborn child once he understood the vital influence of the mother's mind upon it during these months.

Women are beginning to understand these matters, and mothers are awakening to the fact that daughters in the future must be reared along these lines if they ever contemplate marriage.

But how is it possible for a mother to give her child wholesome and sane and healthful prenatal conditions if men continue to walk in blind, black ignorance, and if the laws of the land make no provision for the mother's protection and offer no asylum for her retreat from disastrous environment at this important time.

It is the great work of the future, the vital subject of the present. Not until the intelligent and educated classes realize this, and call science to aid in the education of men as fathers, can we hope for a marked improvement in the human race.

A woman said recently: "Many and many a poor wife does not have the considerate treatment accorded her which is given the female horse or dog. Of all the animals in the world there is no male that treats his mate as inconsiderately as does man, especially at the time in her life when she most needs his care. I sometimes think that the State should, for its own protection, look after poor women in that condition; that idiots, etc., are produced by ill-treatment of the mother before she bears the child.

Determine the Child's Future.

Now, a personal word to you, Mr. Expectant Father.

Your wife is to bear you a child. Whether you are pleased or otherwise, you are her collaborator in parenthood, and you are the father of an unborn soul.

Just how are you treating the mother of that helpless soul?

Upon your attitude to your wife depends in a large degree the future of your child. The mother's mind is like a chisel at work day and night, awake or asleep, fashioning the mind, shaping the body of her child and yours.

If you are tender, loving, considerate and patient, you are causing the best qualities of the human heart to be given to your son or daughter.

If you are harsh, irritable, impatient and selfish, you are awakening the unworthy side of your wife's nature and giving your offspring a disposition and temperament which mean distress for itself and others.

What would you think of a man who was having a new mansion built, and who stood at one side and threw stones into the plate glass windows and ink upon the fresh paint and struck knives into the newly papered walls? Would you not think he was insane and deserving of a strait-jacket?

Yet if you were saying unkind or cruel words to your wife; if you are misusing her in any way, or wounding her feelings, or failing to give her the tenderest care and protection and love at this time, you are doing a far more insane and reckless act than the wrecking of a house would indicate.

You are marring an immortal soul, besides leaving scars upon the heart of the woman you chose to be the mother of your children.

Science is doing much to exterminate dangerous insects and reptiles and savage beasts from the earth. It is being done in the interests of humanity, it is said.

America Needs Missionaries.

But the most dangerous beast to humanity to-day, the most awful monster on earth, is the father who maltreats and misuses the mother of an unborn child.

Yet they are allowed to live and thrive by hundreds in every class of society. Little or nothing is done to educate men in this matter.

Money is being sent to Japan and India, where motherhood is regarded as sacred, to convert the heathen to our religion, while our own Christian men are crushing the souls out of expectant mothers every day in the year, either by indifference and neglect or absolute cruelty.

There is no time in life when a woman so needs the friendship of her husband as during this wonderful prenatal period.

If his heart is with her and he is unselfish, thoughtful and kind, and full of sympathy, then the months are the most beautiful, the most holy, the most sublime that can come to mortal.

If he is the reverse, they are one continual Gethsemane.

No man, however sympathetic or wise in scientific knowledge, can form the least idea of the condition of a woman's nervous system at this time.

It is an experience only mothers can understand.

Not one man in a hundred thousand ever hears the prenatal period referred to before he enters upon the duties of fatherhood himself.

Your education in this matter was probably neglected. I am trying to give you a kindergarten lesson right here.

For the sake of your unborn child, if not for the sake of human decency and the wife you married, let that I have said sink in, and make you treat your child's mother with affection and kindness until your baby is born.

Then, if you cannot develop enough manhood to keep up the treatment, I hope she will take her baby and go away where she can bring it up peacefully.

If you save a man sticking pins into a small, helpless baby in its cradle, would you not knock him down? Well, every time you say a cruel, mean word to your wife you are doing an act like that—a coward's act. Shame on you!

ELLA WHEELER WILCOX.

When a Girl Spends All She Has on Clothes

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

THE girl twisted herself about on tiptoe, blew a kiss from her perfectly gloved finger tips, and swept a low curtsey to the Spinster Lady.

"Well," she said, "how do you think I look? Do you like my pretty clothes?"

"Yes," was the troubled answer, "I do, very much; but, Bertha, dear, didn't that frock cost a small fortune?"

"Now, dearie, don't look solemn and preach. It did cost a lot, but after this I'm going to be horribly economical. It was so smart I just had to get it."

"Child, you know your own business best, but, remember, dear, that after all you are merely a business woman like the rest of us, with no rich relatives to fall back on, and only yourself to depend on."

"Oh, the grind of poverty," pouted Bertha. "I hate it so, and I do love pretty things."

Always a "Rainy Day" Ahead

"Of course you do. What woman does not? But if you spend all your money on clothes now, it means that you have nothing left to fall back on in time of need; and if you should not marry, you would be an object of charity. How would you like that?"

"I'd hate it, but after this I really mean to be less extravagant."

"You have said that so often; and the next time you imagine that you need a new hat away go all your vows of economy."

"You wait and see! You won't know me! I'll wear all my last year's clothes, and look a perfect frump," with a wry face.

"No need for that. You could dress very nicely, and," with an admiring glance, "suitably, on half of what you now spend.

"Let me tell you of a case I have in mind. You remember Clara ——, who held a very good position. She lived up to every cent of her salary, which was fine. Last week I subscribed to a fund gotten up by her friends to send her for six months to the Adirondacks."

"What was the matter?"

A Needless Object of Charity

"She had broken down, and the doctor said her only chance was complete rest and change. She had not one cent saved, and it was a choice between begging or dying."

"Horrible!" shuddered Bertha. "I almost think I'd choose to die."

"No, you wouldn't. Life is sweet. But if Clara had saved one-quarter of her money she would have been in a position to take a rest without begging."

"Of course, I may marry," suggested Bertha.

"Yes. I hope you will; but even then don't you think it would be nice to have a little bank account of your own, and not to be obliged to go to your husband for every little sum you wanted?"

"I'm going to begin this very day," said the girl, "and to prove it I am in earnest I will send back the parasol to match this suit which I had sent up on approval at cost $5, and that $5 bill is going into the savings bank this very day."

"That is the way to talk," said the Spinster Lady. "Hoodoo, my future Madame Cressen."

Expert Hints on Beauty

BY THE PROFESSOR

INGROWING NAILS

DEAR PROFESSOR:

Will you kindly tell me of something that will cure ingrowing toe nails? I have had them for the past year. They are very sore and trouble me very much. DISCOURAGED GIRL.

THE "nail" which grows in is not the nail at all, but a hardened piece of cuticle which forms at the corner of the nail and is pressed down into the flesh by the thick nail. It is absolutely necessary that this be removed before the soreness will cease. This is best done the first time by a chiropodist, but one can be one's self if you are very careful. Take a sharp cuticle knife and work gradually at this piece of cuticle until you have removed it piece by piece without causing the toe to bleed. It extends back to the corner of the nail, and it is a delicate piece of work to accomplish the removal. Then bush into the cavity plenty of soft cream and little flakes of cotton until it is packed. Be sure that the instrument you use have been dipped in peroxide, and rub the surrounding parts with the peroxide often while you work. Keep the nail always rubbed up from the flesh by means of cream-soaked cotton and you will never have much trouble with it. Attend to it regularly before the piece of hardened cuticle has time to grow to any appreciable size and you will have no further trouble.

AIN'T IT AWFUL MABEL?---By JOHN E. HAZZARD

Author of the Original Verses

Copyright, 1908, by John E. Hazzard

BREAKING THE BOOR
ALMOST AWAY
MISS CROOK
SERVICE BULLET
FRAU LOUISE
HIS LOVED HELP FOR MANY MONTHS
SPECIAL TODAY
I'LL SEND HER A FEW BOOKS TO FEED HER MIND ON
I BOT TO BORRY SUMPN TO GET EATS WITH
GIVE THE BOYS ANOTHER BALL AND HAVE ONE YOURSELF
GOSH BOY YOURE A REGULAR TORE TELLER
HA HA
THE STORY OF THE SHIPPY FLAT— NOTHING IN IT HEE HEE
FUNNIEST I EVER READ
SOME GUYS FIND OUT THINGS TO READ WHEN FOOD IS WHAT YOU REALLY NEED
WHEN SUMMER COMES VER FRIENDS IS FEW
JPENDS HIS FATHER'S DOUGH FER BOOZE

Say, Mabel, ain't it beastly true
When Summer comes yer friends is few?
An' jes' the time you need 'em, too!
Ain't it awful, Mabel?

An' don't it make you sore indeed
When some guy sends you things to read,
When food is what you really need?
Ain't it awful, Mabel?

Many's the rose I had to take,
When inside was an awful ache
Fer lack of havin' sirloin steak.
Ain't it awful, Mabel?

An' I've seen many a fellow choose
To spend his father's dough on booze,
When I was mighty short on shoes.
Ain't it awful, Mabel?

Girls, Be Honest!

Lessons in Sincerity, No. 4—The Concealed Knock

By ESTHER STARR

THE old adage is wise: "If you haven't anything good to say of a man, speak not of him at all." That is the guide-post to kind thinking.

But if you cannot think kindly of a person, and cannot keep silent, by all that's honest take out your little hammer and "knock" openly, candidly. "I'll gladly take it back if anybody can show me that I am wrong, but this is what I think."

That is the brave, manly way. Why not the brave, womanly way, too? Why should we be too cowardly to stand for our opinions?

Most girls veil their "knock" with an imitation charity, and some are so fair that they can make their sugar-coated bitter criticisms pass for real sweetness of character.

John says very nice things about Sue, "She's for him," Scott.

"Yes-es," replies Amy reluctantly, after a protracted struggle.

"What makes you say it like that?" asks the blinded man, "don't you think she is nice?"

"Oh, yes! She's nice," answered Amy in a troubled tone that makes the deluded man say to himself, "I think Amy! She's as sweet she just can't say anything unkind about anybody. I wonder what Sue does that isn't nice?"

And sweet little Amy has injured Sue more viciously than if she had spoken words of blackness about her—and she has basely protected herself. She has "said" nothing, and feels holy—the little hypocrite!

But Amy is always found out, sooner or later. All men are not fools. Some day she will meet the clear-sighted, right-minded fellow who will say to her the polite equivalent of "put up or shut up."

And young man, here is a tip for you: Whenever you hear a girl begin a critical speech with the words, "I hate to speak ill of another girl," trust her not; she's fooling thee.

If she hated to speak ill she wouldn't do it, unless in some circumstances, for the right's sake, she had to. And then she'd do it frankly; and if she was sorry you'd know it by many signs.

Sometimes a sweet girl, who believes herself honest and wants to be honest, will wrap a compliment daffily about the keen blade of malice.

"I think she is just lovely," she will say enthusiastically. "She is a splendid girl! Of course, I couldn't do most things quite as she does; but then all of us are not alike, and some people look at some things differently——"

That girl has her claws pulled back into the fur, but they are sharp. Look out for him!

Scat!

GIRLS!

Join the American's

HONESTY LEAGUE

* * *

The Password is

"SINCERITY"

That is all you need to be a member.

Advice to the Lovelorn

By Beatrice Fairfax

WILL CONSENT IN TIME

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

I am a girl nineteen years of age. I have been going with a young man for three months. He has asked me to marry him, and, as I see no objection to him, I have told him to wait for two years as I see if I would not gain their consent, and if at the end of two years I could not convince my folks of his merits and overcome their objection (which, by the way, they do not know themselves, but say they just don't like him). I will then marry him. Do you think I have done right for two years? I would surely love him, but I love him so dearly I cannot give him up.

B. C.

IF he is worthy in all respects, your parents' objections seem rather unreasonable, and I am sure that in time they will realize that fact themselves and give their consent. Tell them that all you ask is a chance to prove the young man's worthiness, and ask permission to have to the world's end. Of course it is hard to be obliged to wait for two years, but that you will you cannot give him up, but that you will wait until time has shown that you are decide between them.

ALL A MATTER OF LOVE

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

I am a young lady twenty years old, and just back from Atlanta, Ga., where I met a young man of thirty came from Colorado on business for a month and fell in love with me. He is very handsome, and we had a date; he asked me to marry him, and as I had given him to be very fond of him I consented. He said he would return in August and would then marry me and take me back to Colorado with him to live. Do you think I am making a foolish step in going so far from home, away from my relatives and friends? As I have always lived in New York and as he has not very much money, it will be quite impossible for me to visit them for a long time. The time is drawing near when I must decide, and I am very anxious to have your advice on the subject.

E. R.

MY dear, it depends entirely on how much you care for him. When a girl really loves a man she is willing to go with him most of us would find that we have more to be thankful for than to grumble at. That absence of occupation is not responsible for much of the unhappiness that you cannot expect admiration if you never take any trouble to deserve it.

Are 7 in 8 Married Couples Unhappy?

HYMEN, the little god of matrimony, has wandered the storms of controversy over such questions as "Is Marriage a Failure?" and "What Are the Causes of Marital Unrest?"

Just now he is confronted with the most serious crisis of his existence. More mud has been thrown at him than ever before in the discussion of this question:

Are seven out of eight married couples unhappy?

What do YOU think about it? Here are some of the answers already received:

Is One in One Thousand Happy?

Editor BOSTON AMERICAN:

Dear Sir—I have read the article asking if seven husbands out of eight are sorry they married; I would like to know if you can find one out of a thousand that is not sorry after he married, especially in this epoch.

J. J.

Too Few Marry Deliberately.

Editor BOSTON AMERICAN:

Dear Sir—Marriage at first is always happiness to all right couples, but there will be found only one couple in eight that married after careful deliberation. The other seven, quickly discover that they lose patience and lust. Such natures easily become despondent, and their personal appearance and attitude will soon show indifference. This state of affairs soon causes the strongest mental body to drift away from a weakling which, as time goes on, will make its presence loathsome. If married couples, while courting, had studied each other's good and bad qualities and not made unreasonable allowance for weakness, and had seen more of each other energetically, their common sense would never have permitted a marriage. There is an old maxim, "Be sure you are right then go ahead." Only one in eight observes this rule. The others marry because they are selfish and only desire to possess just to keep some one else away.

ROBERT J. N.

It's All Up to the Man.

Editor BOSTON AMERICAN:

Dear Sir—It is not very often that I take up my time in writing newspapers regarding the marriage question, but for once in my life it is all up to the man. I have been married for some time, and find it the only thing. I take home candy and other delicacies before I was married; I also give my wife enjoyments which she must like. Any man doing this will have a happy home as no woman fails to appreciate a good husband. So under the circumstances I would say to the man carry out after marriage what he did before, and even more, and there will be no such thing as unhappy marriages.

B. L.

YOU WILL FIND SOME RARE VALUES in children's gulmpes at Jordan Marsh's to-morrow for only 79 cents. A large gulmpe made in various styles, some with laces, hamburg insertion and fine hemstitching, that were formerly sold for prices from 49 cents up as high as 95 cents, will all be marked to the one price. There are many beautiful little gulmpes on this lot, in sizes from 2 years to 4 years, that will be found unusual bargains.

IN THE BELT DEPARTMENT AT James A. Houston's you will find a lot of ladies' night gowns on sale at A. Shuman's for 49 cents that are excellent values. They are made of fine quality cotton, cut good and full, and have a square yoke of fine tucking with V neck and sleeves trimmed with hemstitched ruffle. This is a good gown with an extra wear and is a bargain at this price.

Economy Cook Book Free

Jeweled Blankbook Given for Every Recipe Printed

Address all recipes to the Economy Editor, Boston American, No. 80 Summer street, Boston.

CANTALOUPE GLACE

THOROUGHLY chill the desired number of cantaloupes, cut in half lengthwise, scrape out seeds and fill the hollow with vanilla ice cream. Place the halves together firmly and place on ice. When ready to serve, a knife run between the halves separates the fruit and slices the cream.

MRS. A. J. CURREY.

No. 2 Brookline street, Lynn.

JELLY ROLL

ONE cup sugar, one cup flour, three eggs, one tablespoonful soda, one teaspoon cream tartar. Spread this and bake in quick oven. Turn from pan while warm and spread with jelly and roll in a piece of cheese cloth. Allow cloth to remain on till cold.

MRS. A. CALKINS.

West Lubec, Me.

CHICKEN PUDDING

CHOP the raw white meat from one chicken, add one pint of bread crumbs with a cup of rich milk over the fire to cook a moment. Take from the fire and add the chicken gradually; add teaspoon of salt, a dash of pepper and the yolks of three eggs. Mix well and then add the whites, bake about twenty to thirty minutes in a moderate oven.

MRS. B. F. BUKER.

No. Sterling, Conn.

HURRY PIE

TAKE light bread, cut slices one inch thick and as large as you wish and cut off the crust. Put the slices in a plate and spread a layer of fruit, either preserved or stewed, over them; then put a few spoonfuls of cream over and flavor as your choose.

MRS. MULLEN.

No. 2,545 Massachusetts av., Cambridge.

FRUIT WEDDING CAKE

ONE pound flour, one pound sugar, one pound butter, two pounds currants, one pound raisins, one and one-half pounds citron, one ounce of mace, one ounce of cinnamon, four ounces of cloves, eight eggs, wine glass brandy, one-half ounce extract of rose.

MRS. GEORGE P. HUNT.

Middleboro.

Toilet Hints That Make for Beauty

SMALL wisps of hair will stay in, curl the face a wash rag which is not scalded much longer if, just before the hair is curled with the tongs, the locks are dampened with bay rum. This often proves very helpful on damp days.

* * *

Steaming is not recommended for delicate skins. A better method of cleansing is provided by the application of alternate hot and cold cloths. This treatment should continue for ten minutes. Never use on nice lustreless the nails.

* * *

Never get the idea that little things are trifling; they make just the difference between a woman who is beautiful because well-groomed looking and a beauty whose looks are ruined by carelessness.

* * *

A very fine nail polish is made of three parts of French chalk to one part of pulverized orris powder. A very little of the polishing powder is sufficient to produce a high degree of lustre.

Tomorrow's Best Bargains

Money-Savers for Thrifty Shoppers Selected by an Expert

AN ODD LOT OF BOYS' suits, made of fine quality thibet in washable materials, for boys from three to seven years old, that were made to sell for $1.25, will be placed on sale at Filene's Basement today at Bridge's store for 49 cents each. These are all nicely made suits of percale, cheviot front and rear striped effects, some with collar stripe and others of cadet blue with white trimmings.

YOU WILL FIND SOME RARE VALUES in children's gulmpes at Jordan Marsh's to-morrow for only 79 cents. A large assortment made in various styles, some with laces, hamburg insertion and fine hemstitching, that were formerly sold for prices from 49 cents up as high as 95 cents, will all be marked to the one price. There are many beautiful little gulmpes on this lot, in sizes from 2 years to 4 years, that will be found unusual bargains.

A SPLENDID VALUE IN a black voile skirt may be had at Wolf's "My Clothier" for only $3.98. This large skirt is a very graceful model of twenty-one gores, full plaited, and has two straps of black satin at bottom. It is a very dressy model and is really worth $5.98.

YOU WILL FIND A LOT of fine tucking with V neck and sleeves trimmed with hemstitched ruffle. This is a good gown with an extra wear and is a bargain at this price.

sample elastic belts on sale at 63 cents each to-morrow only for $1 up to $2 per sp[illegible]. The lot contains black, green, white, brown and a large assortment of fancy colors, in plain, embossed and studded elastic, also a few Persian effects, all having mounted gilt buckles, some with fancy buckles and fancy two-piece front buckle.

A STYLISH LOT OF [illegible] sample sets of ladies' and misses' [illegible] at Wolf's "My Clothier" for only $3.98. This is a large assortment mounted gilt buckles, some with fancy buckles and fancy two-piece

The Sad, Sad Story of a Lost Friendship

By KENNETT HARRIS

"I FEEL sad," said the Sage of the Suburb. "I don't look any sadder than I feel. I'm afraid that I have lost the friendship and esteem of my next-door neighbor. Just because I happened to be in an ugly mood I have wounded his feelings in the most brutal manner. There's a breach between us that I fear time will never heal, and I have myself to thank for it."

"That's too bad," said the Fifty Foot Fronter, sympathetically. "I rather inferred that there had been some trouble between you from a remark he made. I didn't pay much attention to it at the time, but I guess he doesn't feel as cordial toward you as he might."

"He's always been very friendly and neighborly with me," said the Sage of the Suburb, "and I've always tried to be the same up to last Friday. No doubt it was all the more of a shock to him on that account.

"I had always given him reason to believe that I was decently accommodating. I have tried to convey that impression from the time that he moved in and I loitered to him over the back fence to ask if there was anything that I could do to help him settle. He responded quite frankly to my overtures, and that friendly bee he brewed my stepfather, my hammer and a pound or two of nails, a little lumber that I happened to have by me, for some shelves that he wanted to put up, and some odds and ends of groceries that he had forgotten to order.

"Toward evening he came over after some tobacco, and absentmindedly put my pouch in his pocket and took it back with him when he went. He was very pleasant and friendly.

"I've always found him so," agreed the Fifty Foot Fronter.

Always Neighborly Before

"Yes; he has been uniformly neighborly," said the Sage. "He carried me most of my carpenter's tools in that first few days, and I've got them nearly all back in good order, with the exception of a few nicks in the chisels and planes and a little of rust, such as tools naturally get when they've been left out of doors in the rain.

"It's oxidation does it," observed the Fifty Foot Fronter. "You can't help it."

"On Sunday morning I called to one from my bedroom window and wanted to know if I didn't have a couple of collar buttons that weren't working. I had, and of course I was delighted to let him have them. There was an implied flattery in the assumption that I might have extra collar buttons, you know. Very few men have. I guess that I've been far too grasted that I would be glad to lend them. He recognized a good fellow, you know.

"Anybody would, I should think," said the Fifty Foot Fronter, encouragingly.

"Thank you," said the Sage. "Yes, I try to be. I'm a good fellow, too. He has often told me that I was welcome to anything that he had. A mighty sociable fellow, and he was in my little office often in the evenings. Once in a while he'd take a cigar from my private box.

"He didn't buy a lawn mower because mine was always ready to handle at need, and it wasn't any trouble to step over and get it. He used my hose and my step-ladder to bring it back. He'd always bring things back. He borrowed my gum boots several times when it's been wet and muddy, and a man wouldn't borrow anybody else's boots. I don't think I wouldn't. I'd have to like a fellow pretty well before I did it. He was very particularly friendly in him."

"Of course you did," murmured the Fifty Foot Fronter.

"He came with razors. He's borrowed my razors when his own were dull."

Had to Draw a Line Somewhere

"Tooth brush?" inquired the Fifty Foot Fronter.

Not that I can remember just now. Of course, a few dollars now and then, when he "happened to be out of change and couldn't cash a large check."

"That was where I hurt his feelings. I'm sorry that I should have done so on any account, but it made me feel a little more that mere money was involved. It gives me a sort of chilly and creepy manner. I'd be wanted was $25, and I could have let him have it just as well as not.

"He came to me with the smile of friendship on his face, and I met him with coldness, relying implicitly on my sympathy for his temporary embarrassment, and it must have been like a slap in the face to that fellow, when I turned him down, and turned the back on him in chilly and grotesque manner that I did.

"I presumed that I was feeling ugly, you know. I expect you've felt that way sometimes, haven't you? Anyway, he went off without getting the money, and I could see that I'd made a mistake. I'll owe a week now, and he hasn't been around to borrow a single thing.

"By the way, what was it that he said to you that made you think he was a little sore?"

"Oh, nothing much," said the Fifty Foot Fronter. "He just said that you were a cheap skate."

Humanisms

HUNGRY poets are not satisfied with empty honors.

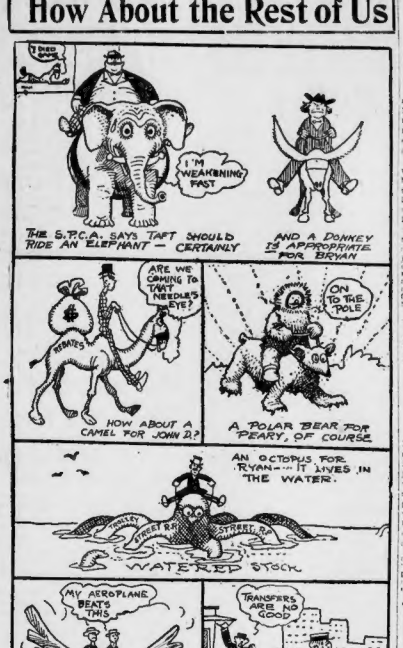
The less a man says the more guessing his wife has to do.

The only way to crush an egotist is to pay no attention to him.

When one good term begets another we shall have perpetual motion.

The man who jumps at conclusions seldom lands where he expects to.

If Taft Can't Ride a Horse How About the Rest of Us



I'M WEAKENING FAST
THE S.P.C.A. SAYS TAFT SHOULD RIDE AN ELEPHANT — CERTAINLY
AND A DONKEY IS APPROPRIATE FOR BRYAN
ARE WE COMING TO THAT NEEDLE'S EYE?
REBATES
ON TO THE POLE
HOW ABOUT A CAMEL FOR JOHN D.?
A POLAR BEAR FOR PEARY, OF COURSE.
AN OCTOPUS FOR RYAN — IT LIVES IN THE WATER.
WATERED STOCK
MY AEROPLANE BEATS THIS
TRANSFERS ARE NO GOOD
THE WRIGHT BROS. WILL BE SATISFIED WITH NOTHING BUT A BIRD.
SHANKS MARE FOR THE COMMON PEOPLE.
JOHNSON

A thought or two unintentionally suggested by President Angell of the Massachusetts S. P. C. A.

CRUISER YANKEE HERE.

The auxiliary cruiser Yankee, Commander Charles G. Marsh, from Admiral Evans's son-in-law, is at the navy yard for the completion of repair work left undone during her previous stay here.

PROCTER & GAMBLE (P&G) NAPHTHA SOAP

To Wash Flannels

P. & G. Naphtha Soap is ideal for that purpose.

Read these directions:

Brush and shake flannels free from dust. Make a suds in lukewarm water. Let the flannels soak ten minutes. Meanwhile, make a strong soap suds in a quart of warm water, using a soft brush to get the soap off the cake. Squeeze and press the flannel in the soapy water; if any soiled parts appear, stretch the part on a smooth surface and rub the strong suds into the cloth with the brush. Use a wringer for flannels; do not twist them. Put flannels through a second light suds if they are much soiled, always having each water to be used no warmer than the first. Rinse until water is clear, using two or three waters if necessary and adding a little soap to each water if it is hard. Stretch garments into shape and hang them to dry. Underwear will need no pressing, but dress goods should be taken while damp and ironed till dry with a warm (not hot) iron. Iron the wrong side of the material, if possible; if not, cover material with a cotton cloth of the same color and press until dry.

P. & G. Naphtha Soap is sold by good grocers everywhere.

The price is 5 cents a cake.

REMOVED MY FRECKLES

I will show you how to remove yours FREE

For years I tried almost everything known, vainly without success. Skin specialists and doctors said I would take them to the grave. I fooled them all.

I cured myself by a simple discovery. I will send you free the prescription that cured me. You will write me. It took off my freckles and the freckles of thousands of others. It will remove yours. It is guaranteed. Write to-day.

MRS. E. C. WHITE, 746, Dept. Z, BUFFALO, N.Y.

FLEET MENACE TO NO POWER, SAYS PRESIDENT

REPLIES TO WELCOME MESSAGE FROM SYDNEY, WHERE THRONGS CHEER SAILORS.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Aug. 21.—Upon the arrival of the American fleet at Sydney, New South Wales, the President received, through the British charge d'affaires, the following telegram from the Governor-General and government of the Commonwealth of Australia:

"Australians, hundreds of thousands of whom are gathered on the shores of Sydney harbor to welcome the battleship fleet of the United States, at this moment entering the eastern gateway of this continent, unite in cordial greetings to President Roosevelt. The people of the Commonwealth gratefully appreciate the generous response to their invitation by the President and citizens of the great republic, and rejoice in the opportunity afforded by this demonstration of the might of American naval power to express their sincere admiration of your sailors and their ships and affection for the country whose glorious flag they hope to see always floating beside that of their mother land."

When Secretary Forster returned from a night visit to the President at an early hour this morning, the President sent this telegram in response:

"OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Aug. 21, 1908.

"The British Charge d'Affaires, Manchester, Mass.:

"Through you I have just received the cordial and kindly message from the governor-general and government of the commonwealth of Australia, and I desire to express in my turn to the governor-general and government and through them to the entire people of the whole commonwealth of Australia the appreciation which the American people feel for the finely generous hospitality to the American fleet.

"The people of this republic hold in peculiar esteem and admiration the people of Australia, and it is a very real pleasure for me, on behalf of the nation, to accept the generous hospitality proffered by Australia to the fleet as the message of peace, for the American navy is a menace to no power, but, on the contrary, as we believe, an asset of high importance in securing the peace of justice throughout the world.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

PUT VETO UP TO ALDERMEN

Before leaving for Provincetown today Mayor Hibbard issued a call for a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen next Monday at 3 p. m. to draw names for the jury list. At the meeting Alderman Brand will make an attempt to have the Board adjourn to the Committee on Public Improvements to take action on the Mayor's veto of the order allowing the Union Freight railroad a free and perpetual franchise to run trains over the new Northern avenue bridge.

Eight members of the Board have voted at recent meetings to keep this order "buried" in the Committee on Public Improvements until after the next municipal election, when they hope to round up more easily the nine votes to override the veto.

CHELSEA SELLS $400,000 BONDS

Bids for the issue of $400,000 worth of fifty year 4 per cent. bonds by the city of Chelsea were opened by the Board of Control to-day and the successful bidders announced. The entire issue will be taken by Perry, Coffin & Burr and E. M. Furnald of Boston, who will pay a premium of $31.50 on each $1,000, or approximately $12,600 for the issue.

There was a great deal of interest in the outcome of the bond issue, as it was the first indication of the attitude of financiers since the fire. The Board of Control expresses gratification over the result, saying that the premium paid was as large as any city in the Commonwealth would have received.

It is estimated that private building operations aggregating $1,250,000 are now going on in Chelsea.

TO PARDON 500 AT DEER ISLAND

Following his visit to the House of Correction at Deer Island yesterday, Mayor Hibbard has decided that the granting of pardons to 500 "short term" prisoners there is the best method for relieving the crowded conditions at the institution. There are now about 1,500 prisoners at the island. The appropriation for this year was framed for a population of 1,000. About 300 inmates are sleeping unguarded.

From Superintendent Cronin the Mayor learned that there are now 328 prisoners who do not live in Boston.

BUILDERS MUST DO WORK AGAIN

Building Commissioner Arthur G. Everett to-day ordered a dozen contractors to tear down and rebuild the foundations of houses which they are erecting in various parts of the city. The order followed a personal tour of inspection by the Commissioner and discovery that many houses were being built have "wealthier foundations."

The inspection by Commissioner Everett is a result of the collapse of a building at No. 37 Greenock street, Jamaica Plain, two weeks ago, in which fourteen men narrowly escaped death.

How a bride of fourteen is a model little housewife. Pretty, romping Mrs. "Willie" Kersten suddenly puts aside dolls and short skirts and is making every-day life in her little bird's nest flat an ideal honeymoon. See the SUNDAY AMERICAN.

SOCIETY GIRL'S RECORD SWIM

NEWPORT, Aug. 21.—Miss Vera F. Gilbert, the only child of C. P. H. Gilbert, of Ochre Point and New York, who is a debutante, very attractive, and holds the record for the most perfectly gowned young woman here, swam from Sporting Rock Beach to Hazard's Beach, one and three-quarter miles, in one hour and ten seconds. This beats all records made by other society girls, including Miss Arthur Scott Burden (Miss Cynthia Roche), Miss Ethel Burger, daughter of Samuel F. Burger; Mrs. Eugene Hale Oliver Eunice Perry), and Mrs. F. Yale Smith (Miss Annie Best).

THIRD STORY FALL IS FATAL

Benjamin Roberts, twenty-nine years old, of No. 203 East Third street, South Boston, fell from the third story window of his home while walking in his sleep last night, died at the Carney Hospital early to-day. He leaves a wife.

The accident occurred shortly after 3 o'clock. Just before that time neighbors had seen Roberts sitting in the window apparently dozing. His wife was talking with a friend in front of the house when she heard the thud of his body striking. Rushing to the rear of the house she found him unconscious.

John Hancock.

UPON the Declaration of Independence his name may be read without spectacles. It stands out the strongest, boldest, finest signature.

In the most realistic sense John Hancock pledged life and fortune to finance the Revolution in its earlier stages.

He held investments in banks, breweries, distilleries, stores, hotels, and owned a fleet of ships engaged in the rum, wine and oil trade. The seizure of one of them (for evading the revenue laws) precipitated the Boston Massacre. He was strong-hearted, full of enterprise, patriotic and bold of spirit. Over many a foaming glass of Boston Ale and hot punch he often declared, "I glory in publicly avowing my eternal enmity to tyranny."

REFERENCES: Hubbard's "Little Journeys," p. 166-189. Proceedings Am. Antiquarian Soc., 15, 323, 327 John Hancock, His Book, page 124.

Budweiser

The Natural Drink of America

The most popular beer in the world. There is less profit to the dealer who sells it, because it costs more money at the brewery than any other beer made.

A royal brew of malt and hops whose absolute sovereignty has never been challenged.

Families Supplied by

GROCERS

Should Your Dealers Not Carry BUDWEISER in Stock—Please Phone Us.

Bottled Only at the
Anheuser-Busch Brewery
St. Louis, U. S. A.
CORKED OR WITH CROWN CAPS

S. S. PIERCE CO.
Telephones: { Main 6170 / Back Bay 2202

JACOB WIRTH CO.
Telephone: Oxford 211

NEWS OF LABOR.

Boston Building Trades Section of the American Federation of Labor will hold an important meeting to-night at No. 380 Harrison avenue, to act upon a report by the committee on constitution. Secretary Albert E. Pike has requested that all delegates attend this meeting.

A report on the strike at the new Museum of Fine Arts will also be made to-night. The 300 union men who quit work because of the presence of non-union painters and iron workers, have returned to work after being out one day.

William H. Walsh, business agent of Brookline Carpenters No. 1238 has been chosen marshal of the Carpenters' Division in the Labor Day parade. The staff officers will be announced at the next meeting of the committee Tuesday night.

LABOR NOTES.

The Labor Day committee of the Boston Central Labor Union will meet next Monday night at Wells Memorial Building, No. 987 Washington street.

A meeting will be held to-night at No. 28 Cross street by Cutters' No. 28 to complete plans for the Labor Day parade.

Resolutions protesting against the prevailing conditions in a Quincy shop and boycotting the product of the firm of Manchester No. 264, it is claimed that bathrobes are being built under union conditions and at a lower less rate of wages.

All carpenters of Boston and vicinity and those connected with the crowds of Electric Illuminated autos who are to parade, are requested to meet at headquarters, No. 30 Hanover street, at 9 o'clock Labor Day morning for formation.

Carpenters' District Council has elected the following delegates to the Carpenters' Grand Council of Eastern Massachusetts: Samuel F. McAffrey of Cambridge No. 441, William H. Walsh of Brookline No. 1238, Hugo McKay of East Boston No. 218, C. N. Kimball of Ship and Mill Hands No. 1,410 and J. E. Eaton of Dorchester No. 790.

A special meeting of Cabinet and Mill Men No. 1,824 will be held next Tuesday night at No. 29 Mayhew street to complete arrangements for the parade.

MEETINGS TO-NIGHT.

Grand Council of Carpenters of Eastern Massachusetts at No. 30 Hanover street.

Stationary Engineers No. 10 at No. 514 Fremont street.

Boiler Makers No. 250 in Naomi Hall, No. 724 Washington street.

Car Workers, Boston Lodge No. 85, at No. 104 Canal street.

Iron and Brass Molders No. 106 at No. 694 Washington street.

Lithographers No. 3 at No. 987 Washington street.

Bollermen No. 428 in Room No. 9, No. 905 Washington street.

Advisory Board of Bricklayers No. 2 at No. 380 Harrison avenue.

Carpenters No. 805 in Rot Men's Hall, corner of Market street and Chestnut Hill avenue, Brighton.

Carpenters No. 878 in Fairview Hall, No. 41 Poplar street, Roxbury.

Steam Railroad Engineers' Assembly No. 1741, Boston & Maine Railroad, at Monument Hall, Charlestown.

FRANK R. SHEPARD IS WELCOMED HOME

A welcome home dinner was given to Frank R. Shepard, manager of the Fox bakery, who returned from Europe on the Cymric with his family last week, at the American Hotel Wednesday night by forty-five of his friends and heads of departments of the bakery. Mr. Shepard was during the evening presented a beautiful French clock by J. J. Barron.

Letters of regret were read from Mr. Preston, treasurer of the R. H. White Company, George Whiting of D. Whiting & Sons and a number of others. Among those present were E. C. Campbell of H. A. Johnson & Co., J. A. Ferguson of the Ferguson bakery, Messrs. Gretter, Abbott, Elbert, Ray and a number of others from the Fox bakery. E. J. Goulston and others. Mr. Shepard entertained the gathering with reminiscences of his European trip. A number of speeches were made, welcoming Mr. Shepard on his return.

The most gentle of Nature's laxatives put into candy form. That's Cascarets. Made to be taken in dainty doses, when you don't feel at your best.

A cure for the blues—for the grouch—for bad temper—Cascarets.

For the cause of most of these troubles lies in the bowels. A Cascaret tonight means a cheery day tomorrow. Six bright days for ten cents. Are they worth it?

Don't think of Cascarets as a physic. They are candy tablets, as good as they are gentle.

Their effect is the same as the effect of some foods. They stimulate the bowels to natural action.

Those who have learned what is best carry a box in the pocket. They take one as soon as they need it.

Don't have a bowel wash-day. Don't take physics in large doses and rarely.

You wash your face at the first sign of uncleanliness. Why not be as clean with your bowels?

You know by the symptoms when your bowels need help. One Cascaret right then puts a stop to them.

You can just as well avoid these little ills—just as well keep at your best.

Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure you get the genuine, with CCC on every tablet. The price is 50c, 25c and

TEN CENTS PER BOX

787

THEATRES.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE
Kirk's at 8: 30c, 50c, 75c, 1.00. Mats. Tues., Thurs., Sat. 25c at 2. Mats. 1500 reserved at 25c. The Modern Jekyll and Hyde
HIS TERRIBLE SECRET
Next Week—Prince of Spendthrifts.

THEATRES.

BOWDOIN SQUARE THEATRE
Moving Pictures daily, 1.30 to 2, 7.30 to 8 and between the acts. 2 and 8 p. m., the great melodrama,
HOW LONDON LIVES
Any seat in the house, 25c
Next Week—"Streets of New York."

PALACE
ADAMLESS BIJOU BURLESQUERS
To-Day, 2:15

AMUSEMENTS.

READVILLE
Grand Circuit Meeting
On: Week, Beginning Monday, Aug. 24
$50,000 Derby
Tuesday, Aug. 25
Admission on all days, $1.00
Reserved seats for Derby Day, $2.00; in boxes, $5.00. Other seats on day of this race, 50 cents and $1.00.
Carriages and automobiles admitted free. A few reserved parking spaces at $5.00 each. Order reserved seats at track office, Readville, or hotel ticket offices.
Special Race Trains direct to Grand Stand and return after races. Racing begins at 2:30 each day.

AMUSEMENTS.

Wonderland
REVERE BEACH . . . 1 TO 11 O'CLOCK
Miss Sadie Knowlton
IN HER DARING DASH OF DEATH
On a Wheel Down a Long Chute Into a Shallow Tank of Water, Twice Daily.
TRY ONE OF OUR FAMOUS
Fish Dinners 75c
—AND—
Broiled Live Lobster 75c
ONLY FOUR WEEKS MORE OF THE SEASON
Wonderland

THEATRES.

GLOBE Mat. Sat. 25-50 Eve. 25-35-50-75-1.00
FISKE The Sweet Singer NORA McNAMARA
SEE SAW O'HARA
In the Romantic Irish Play
DION O'DARE
Mon. Mat.—W. H. Turner, Composer and the Rest

COLONIAL THEATRE
TONIGHT AT 8
SECOND WEEK
RAYMOND HITCHCOCK
In Folly's Funniest Frolic, The
MERRY - GO - ROUND
Mats. Wed. and Sat. at 2

TREMONT THEATRE
FIRST TIME IN BOSTON NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT
SEATS SELLING NOW
FOR
Mr. Henry W. Savage's Original Production of the Merry Widow
(DIE LUSTIGE WITWE)
Reigning Operatic Success of the World

Murray and Lane
BOSTON THEATRE
Proprietor
Performance Continuous—12 M. Until 12:30 P. M.
The current program also includes Charles Miller and Company; Four Arabs; Edwin Father Monroe Tromey; Hibbert and Warren; "Last of the Regiment"; Leon Beard; Vocal Vocal; Carew and Burnes; Joe Cook and Brother; Frederick and "Dan," and the Kinetograph.

PARAGON
PARK EN LUXE and PALM GARDEN
NANTASKET BEACH
Continuous Vaud. Attractions. Concerts by Maryland Band. Biggest and Best Shore Resort. Cheese High Diver.
FOR THE FISHING GROUNDS
Steamer King Philip, Captain Edward W. Dixon, leaves Commercial Wharf daily and Sunday at 10 A. M. Fare $1.00. Lines, bait and chowder free.
PROVIDENCE JOY LINE
$2.40 TO NEW YORK
Via Rail and Boat
DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY
Ticket Office, 214 Washington St.
GLOUCESTER AND CAPE ANN.
NORTH SHORE ROUTE
Round trip 75c. Central Wharf, Foot State St. Elevated Stairs. Week days 10 A. M., 2 P. M. Returning leave Gloucester 2.45 P. M. Sundays leave Boston 10.15 A. M., leave Gloucester 3.15 P. M. Music.
E. S. MERCHANT, Mgr. B. & G. S. S. CO.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
TODAY Ladies' Day At 3:15
CHICAGO
Derrick, Cooley Sr., Walsh & Dineen
314 W. 08.
FOR THE FISHING GROUNDS
Fast Steamer Satellite, Capt. Sorensen, will leave north side of Central wharf at 10 A. m. daily and Sundays. Lines, bait and chowder free. Fare $1. Fine accommodation for ladies and children.
$150.00 IN GOLD PRIZES

Castle Sq Daily at 2 & 8 Tel Tremont 5
W. H. GILLESIAN & JOHN CRAIG, Lessees and Managers
OPENS FRIDAY EVE., AUG. 28
The John Craig Stock Company in
THE ROAD TO YESTERDAY
Prices 15c, 25c, 35c, 50c, The
BOX OFFICE NOW OPEN
Down-town Ticket Office, 11 Temple Place

PARK THEATRE
Reopens Aug. 24
ANDREW MACK
ARRAH-NA-POGUE
SEAT SALE PROGRESSING

5 TREMONT ROW
STAR COOLEST THEATRE IN BOSTON
Admission 10c All Seats Free

LEXINGTON PARK
Dancing Pavilion, Zoological Gardens, Rustic Theatre. 50 acres of Pine Grove land. The Real Amusement Park. Athletic Field. Restaurant, etc.

BASS POINT AND NANTASKET
STEAMERS LEAVE OTIS WHARF, 400 Atlantic Ave. 9.30, 11 A. M., 12.30, 2.30, 5.30, 8.15, 9.15, 9.30 P. M. FARE 35c.

75c BOSTON to FALL RIVER or PROVIDENCE
Special TROLLEY SERVICE
Daily Except Sunday. The best way to reach NEW YORK
Five nights boats to NEW YORK
Fine scenery, no dust, no dirt.
Tickets and information at Passenger Dept., Old Colony St., Dr. Cor. 208 Washington St., Boston. Phone 6350 Main or Walker-Rintels, Inc., Park St.

FOLLOW THE CROWD TO NORUMBEGA PARK
Protected from Rain
Open Air Theatre
Fun and Vaudeville
Afternoons 2.30. Evenings 8.00.
2nd Week. Free Attraction, J. W. Gorman's Wonderful Diving Horses, "Lucky" and "Queen," Afternoon and evening.

WHOLE WORLD OF SPORTS COVERED FOR THE BOSTON AMERICAN BY ITS CORPS OF EXPERTS

PLENTY OF TRACKS FOR BIG AUTO RACES

By J. C. KERRISON.

With the Vanderbilt Parkway well under way, the Savannah course practically completed and announcements that Lowell and Philadelphia have agreed to throw open their parkways for automobile races, there seem to be no lack of roads to hold high speed races on.

As a matter of fact, there seem to be more roads than racing cars in sight, and unless entries come in faster than they have up to the present time some of these projected high speed affairs will fall through from lack of cars.

In this connection neither the Vanderbilt Cup race nor the Grand Prize will call for the Automobile Club of America at Savannah is overcrowded with starters, and unless things pick up within a day or so it will not be necessary to hold an elimination race for the Vanderbilt Cup.

On paper there are five entries for the Vanderbilt, including a Mercedes, Chalmers-Detroit, Mora and Chadwick. Of these I hear that both the Mora and Chalmers-Detroit cars are doubtful starters, and neither may be ready in time for the elimination race for the American cars, as the Mercedes would represent Germany in the race. It is said that both the Thomas and Locomobile companies have no outer two cars, but up to date they have not come over with the cash.

It is claimed, however, that while the Mora people have given up all idea of building a special car for the Vanderbilt race, they will be represented by one of their stock six-cylinder type of autos. So far as the Chalmers-Detroits people are concerned, it is said that they never entered a car for the Vanderbilt race, but at one time there was talk of building a car which idea has since been abandoned.

Now that the Automobile Club of America has announced that it will offer $8,000 in cash to be divided between the first five drivers in their Grand Prize race at Savannah, it is up to the A. A. A. or W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., to offer a similar sum, or say, $10,000, to the drivers who take part in the Vanderbilt Cup race, for if they don't there will be few drivers who will risk disqualification in the race at Hempstead for the glory of racing under A. A. A. colors without a cent of cash in sight, in case the A. A. A. cannot get any one else to drive. Harry Wright and R. H. Fergusson, ex-banker of New York, or some of the latter's drivers to pilot some of their racing cars.

The new motor racing association, it is said, has decided to insure its coming sixty-hour hour automobile race at Brighton Beach against rain, the same as was done at Elkwood Park on July 4. The premium, it is said, will amount to $1,000 for $5,000 insurance.

DELANEY SAYS KAUFMAN IS THE COMING CHAMP

Al Kaufman and Stanley Ketchel are two new pugilistic stars who aspire for honors in the middleweight and heavyweight classes. Both are young, sturdy fellows, each twenty-two years old, and in both years that they have been before the public Ketchel has never been defeated, while Kaufman has only met with one reverse—that by Jack O'Brien in seventeen rounds. In less than one year after the young Californian had turned professional Billy Delaney tried him out against the clever Philadelphian in the middle of the seventeenth round, after which he had rendered Kaufman well left-hand jabs, Delaney threw up the sponge, thoroughly satisfied that his man could take care of himself against all comers. He realized that the "Frisco lad possessed all the qualifications of a coming heavyweight, and when he was convinced that Kaufman's heart was in the right place he proceeded to nurse him for his heavyweight mantle. He passed up Burns and Johnson for a while, saying that they lacked age and experience. Since then Kaufman knocked out Dave Harry, on October 11, 1907, Delaney has kept him under cover, and soon as a series of elimination fights were announced to develop a real heavyweight, Kaufman was announced as the first candidate.

Kaufman's success over big Battling Johnson, in Los Angeles, proved that he is made of championship timber. It again brings Billy Delaney in the spot light, Delaney is the man who discovered and developed Jim Corbett and Jim Jeffries into world beaters, and now he believes he has in Kaufman another fighter who will be a worthy successor of these great gladiators.

Battling Nelson, besides holding the honor of the lightweight championship and being a fierce and clean fighting man, is recognized as one of the cleverest men on the ball-rolle tracks and at the matinee races, the horses are started flying. From a standing position it looks probable that from the judges' stand, they score to the wire. If the starter gets a fair chance to catch them lined up, or going in their stride and they are fairly bunched, he sends them away.

But frequently the horses act badly—so the drivers act badly—and they will score seven and eight times, before they are sent away and sometimes even up to fifteen and twenty starts are scored.

Clever drivers, with strong horses, can often wear out fleeter and better animals by forcing unfair starts on the latter.

And some of these are so clever that they escape punishment.

The solution of this difficulty in the opinion of experienced horsemen will be brought about by adopting the handicap system of racing, as per the English Association Trotting Derby at Redville. In this event the horses are to be given the word at practically a standing start, thus doing away with tiresome scoring.

O'TOOLE TO FACE DOVES FOR REDS SEPTEMBER 19

CINCINNATI, Aug. 21.—Twenty-seven innings without a run.

Eleven hits in three games.

Only one hit in one game.

That's the consecutive record recent made by Ralph Savidge, the Reds' new twirler, with the Memphis team.

In these three games Savidge shut out Nashville, tooted as the Southern League pennant winners, 2 to 0, striking out 11 times and holding the Volunteers down to five hits. He gave only one base on balls in this game.

New Orleans was his next victim, the Pelicans being downed 4 to 1. Five hits were made off Savidge, who also struck out four men and gave three bases on balls.

Memphis was Savidge's next victim. Only one hit was made off Savidge in this game. He struck out five men and gave three bases on balls.

Cliff Blankenship's information" concerning the Reds' pitchers is that Martin O'Toole, the Brockton hurler, will pitch his first game for the team at Boston on September 19. His record to date is 20 twenty-four victories and eight defeats, which puts him at the head of the New England League twirlers.

Pat Ragon, who comes to the Reds from the Giants, is one of the game with a battered right hand, the result of stopping a line drive with his bare paw. He expects to resume operations early next week.

Pitcher Gasper of the Wheeling (Va.) team can't join the Reds until September, as his club is fighting for the pennant, principally because of Gasper's good work on the rubber.

All Diseases Cured

By expert specialists, oldest in years, largest in experience, most reliable and cheapest. Blood, skin, stomach, bowel, kidney, bladder, nervous diseases, weakness, varicose veins, piles, rupture and kidney complaints and skin diseases cured to stay cured. No loss of time. Advice free. Medicine sent free by mail.

Office hours, daily 9 to 5, Sundays 10 to 1.

DR. HALLOCK CO.

114 Court St., Boston, Mass.

Offices located 60 years at the same old stand Court and Stoddard sts. Oldest in the country.

I CURE MEN

MY METHODS are STRICTLY MODERN, scientific and free from obsolete. I keep abreast of the times. SKILL and UP-TO-DATE EQUIPMENTS, and I am an EXPERT in curing men.

Nervous Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Piles, Fistula, Rupture and Kidney Troubles.

Hours, Daily 8 a. m. to 1 p. m., 2 to 5 p. m. Sundays 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.

DR. WEINSTEIN

718 Tremont St., Boston, Mass.

Near Hotel Touraine.

DR. ROTHFUCHS

Grad. Harvard Medical School. Specialist in acute and chronic diseases and weaknesses of men. Cures to stay cured. Blood poisoning, Syphilis, Skin Diseases, Incurable cases a specialty. PAY NO MONEY UNTIL CURED. Consultation free. DR. ROTHFUCHS, 7 Essex St., Boston. Hours 9 to 5. Sundays, 10 to 1.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

HOW THE CLUBS STAND.

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Detroit	67	42	.615
St. Louis	62	48	.564
Philadelphia	60	50	.545
Chicago	59	50	.541
Cleveland	58	51	.532
BOSTON	53	56	.486
Washington	43	72	.374
New York	42	72	.368

RESULTS YESTERDAY.

Boston 5, Cleveland 4.
New York 4, Detroit 3.
Philadelphia 5, Chicago 1.
Washington 2, St. Louis 0.

GAMES TO-DAY.

Chicago at Boston.
St. Louis at New York.
Cleveland at Philadelphia.
Detroit at Washington.

N. E. LEAGUE.

HOW THE CLUBS STAND.

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Worcester	70	40	.636
Lawrence	68	41	.624
Haverhill	66	42	.611
Brockton	58	51	.532
Lowell	51	57	.472
Fall River	41	68	.376
Lynn	38	70	.352
New Bedford	34	74	.315

RESULTS YESTERDAY.

Lowell, 2; Brockton, 1.
Haverhill, 6; Fall River, 3.
Lynn, 5; New Bedford, 4.

GAMES TO-DAY.

Brockton at Worcester.
Haverhill at Lynn.
Fall River at Lawrence.
New Bedford at Lowell.

THE BOSTON AMERICAN

Published Daily and Sunday at 80 Hanover Street, Boston, Mass.

NEW ENGLAND NEWSPAPER PUBLISHING CO.

Entered as second class matter, June 4, 1907, at the postoffice at Boston, Mass.

Price: Daily, One Cent; Sunday, Five Cents. Terms: Postage included for the United States (outside of Boston) and Mexico:

Daily only:
One year $3.00
Six months 1.50
One month ..... .25
Sunday only:
One year 1.00
Six months ..... .50
Daily and Sunday:
One year 4.00
Six months 2.00
One month ..... .35

Do not buy any copy of this paper unless you see the name of the publication on the first page.

OLD COLONY BIG CLUB HAS BIG CARD

SOUTH WEYMOUTH, Aug. 21.—The race committee of the Old Colony Driving Club has arranged an excellent series of races for the matinee tomorrow at the Fair Grounds. India Panis will meet E. C. Jordan in the feature event of the card. J. E. Sweedeman, a prominent member of the Dorchester Driving Club, makes his debut in the matinees here, starting Pensive Maid against Nina and Ida. A C. A. singles for the glory of racing under A. A. A. colors without a cent of cash in sight, in case the A. A. A. cannot get any one else to drive. Harry Wright and R. H. Fergusson, ex-banker of New York, or some of the latter's drivers to pilot some of their racing cars.

The summary:

Class A, trot and pace—India Panis, b. g. by Direct (2.05½), C. E. Jordan, Jr., Cambridge 1 1 1
Class B, trot and pace—Pensive Maid, br. m., by Direct (2.05½), J. E. Sweedeman, Dorchester 2 2 2
Class C, trot and pace—Nina and Ida, b. m., by Nutwood Wilkes, Ring Bros., Boston 3 3 3
Class D, trot and pace—Ring Bros., ch. g., by Wilkes, Ring Bros., Boston 4 4 4
Class E, trot and pace—William Ivo, ch. g., by Eagle Bell, Jr., John T. Reid, Inc., Boston 5 5 5
Class F, trot and pace—Patricia, ch. m., by Chas. Lee, Jr., McKeesie, Dunleith, Boston 6 6 6
Class G, trot and pace—Black Bess, blk. m., by Henry Baker, Stratford, Conn. 7 7 7
Class H, trot and pace—Peruvia Maid, br. m., by Chas. Fancher, Boston 8 8 8
Class I, trotting—Queen Lil, b. m., by H. Boss, Dolly Lincoln, b. m., by Chas. Starling, Boston 9 9 9
Class J, trot and pace—Jack Hall, br. g., by A. A. Litchfield, Clarkson, Inc., Boston 10 10 10
Class K, trot and pace—Yankee Girl, b. m., by Henry Baker; Bob Rob, b. g., A. S. Mack; Helen Dare, b. m., J. W. Lincoln 11 11 11
Class L, trot and pace—Rebellion (three year), blk. m., by E. Greenleaf; Lady Bella, ch. f., A. Oliver; Student, b. g., T. Mackenzie 12 12 12

PETER JOHNSON IS TRAINING COLTS

One of the official timers at Kalamazoo was Peter V. Johnson, the veteran trainer, who makes his home in the "Celery City." The man who brought out Peter the Great (2.07¾), is still active, and is training a fine-looking foal at the Kalamazoo track which are the property of H. D. Streeter, one of the best known horsemen of old paper by Direct Hal, and out of the dam of Peter the Great. This fellow is a rugged, handsome colt, and 2:10 is fairly easy for him right now. Probably one of the best yearling stud colts by Ringen is now in the charge of Johnson. He is a sturdy, good-gaited, handsome youngster, and his dam is also the dam of Peter the Great (2.07¼).

GILCHRIST CO. VS. CONCORD.

The strong baseball team of Gilchrist Company will play the Concord Knights of Columbus team at Concord to-morrow. Gilchrist has already defeated the strongest mercantile teams, and an interesting game is expected, as Concord won the championship in its league. Battery for Gilchrist is McLaughlin and Gebhardt.

TRACK CUT INTO LOTS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Brighton Beach race track, over which for more than a decade the great Brighton Handicap and other rich features have been contested, has been sold and will be at once converted into building lots. The land is the most valuable on all Coney Island.

WANT GAMES SATURDAY.

The Bonnet A. C. of West Quincy want games away from home Saturday with any 17-18 baseball teams in the State. Phone Milford 1025-1, between 11:30 and 12:30.

The Cottage A. C. of Dorchester is without a game for to-morrow and would like to arrange one with a strong 17-18-year-old team. Address, C. Passanter, John Feeno, No. 254 Cottage street, Dorchester.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

HOW THE CLUBS STAND.

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Pittsburg	69	42	.622
Chicago	68	43	.604
New York	67	46	.593
Chicago	61	46	.570
Philadelphia	57	53	.518
Cincinnati	55	55	.500
BOSTON	47	63	.427
Brooklyn	46	64	.418
St. Louis	40	71	.360

RESULTS YESTERDAY.

Chicago, 10; Boston, 2.
New York, 6; Pittsburg, 4.
St. Louis, 4; Philadelphia, 0.
New York, 2; Cincinnati, 0.

VOTE FOR YOUR FAVORITE BASEBALL PLAYER.

Cut out the coupon, write the name of your favorite player on any of the National or American League teams on the top line, and the name of your favorite player on any amateur team on the bottom line. Mail it to the Baseball Editor of the BOSTON AMERICAN. This coupon will be printed only in the baseball and final editions of the AMERICAN.

Professional Player .....
Team .....
Amateur Player .....
Team .....

BIG RACE IS HARD TO DOPE

By ED. COGSWELL.

With the announcing of the handicaps for the $5,000 Americus Trotting Derby to be decided at Readville next Tuesday came the usual discussions among horsemen as to the penalties imposed on the seventy-three trotters entered in the big race.

Out at the Readville track there was a big gathering of the clans at this event, and the general verdict was that the handicappers did excellently in the placing of the horses; in fact, nearly as well as the critics could have done themselves under like conditions.

However, it was considered that at the 2:10 mark the three-year-old trotter, Ubiu, owned by George Sanders and in the stable of Bob Proctor, ought to win with ease, a factor in the event. He has been a trial horse for the last quarter in 29½ seconds, and his admirers believe that he is up to a mile in 2:06. With the amount of speed it is certain that he should cut up those handicapped in front of him, nine being placed on the marks back of him will have a stiff proposition to overtake him in the dash of one mile and a quarter.

Hamburg Belle Gets Advantage.

It was wondered, too, that the men doing the handicapping did not place Hamburg Belle at the limit mark with Sonoma Girl, Highball and Sweet Marie. It is certain that she has showed as much, if not more, than these horses this season. Of course, Highball has gained a record this year of 2:03¾, but since that time he has been on the shelf through lameness.

Sonoma Girl has not had a race this season, and for that reason should not be expected to be at her best, when in Fall only meant that she was in 2:05¾, the exact time made by Hamburg Belle on three separate occasions to the past few weeks. Sweet Marie has plainly demonstrated that she is not the mare of two years ago, and racing around 2:06 appears to be about her measure.

Margaret Ono at all right on the 2:07 mark, but it looks like Willes Heart has a shade the better of it at the 2:08 mark. In the last race at Readville he was not up to beating Sweet Marie, but only showed a few short of work for, so far as he was capable to carrying he clip he gave her a stiff race. Since that he has been winning, and in his last start the critics considered that he was up to racing right close to 2:05. At the 2:08 mark it seems, will bring about a race that Willes Heart will have to be counted on the day of the race.

Sterling McKinney, with the way he has behaved in the most of his engagements, has a tough job on his hands in beating his opponents from the 2:09 mark, though it is hard to see that the handicapper could have done otherwise than placing him where they did.

Amy Brooks Must Improve.

Amy Brooks will, too, have to come a whole lot in order to gather a slice of the big money at the 2:06 mark. Had this mare held her form it would have been possible for her to have started at the 2:05 post and had a chance, but from all reports down the line she has gone so far off true form that it seems impossible who can secure a piece of the purse.

Bervaldo at the 2:10 mark is a lesson that the handicappers did not make a mistake job. This trotter has been racing over the half-mile tracks in Pennsylvania and the story goes that he was jogging in much better than 2:20, but that his connections have all along been leary of having him show too much, for the effect it might have on his getting in the Derby. At the 2:10 mark he will have to do some tall racing, and if, with this penalty, he happens to scoop in the $20,000 that goes to the first horse, many people will be in a complaint made.

If the story of the experts, who have sized up the horses, can be relied upon, there is not a trotter placed on the 2:15, 2:14 or 2:13 mark, with the exception of Blutsie, owned by Joe Allen Ferry and now in the stable of John Young, that has a look for either of the three first moneys in the Derby, as the three leading horses are likely to come from the faster list of horses, even though they are compelled to start in the rear of those on the marks named.

However, it will not be known till Sunday just what the line of trotters in the Derby will be, as the final payment of $200 in the stake comes due Saturday. From indications it is anticipated that about forty of the horses will be kept in the races by their owners and trainers, which must mean that the race will be divided into two trial heats, and the first six horses in each will then be eligible to starting in the final for the fortune involved.

RAILBIRDS ARE WATCHING FOR THESE HORSES

Four trotters in the Grand Circuit, which the rail-birds have watched with considerable interest, have not started yet, but they are high-class if appearances count for anything. One is that fast, well-made stallion, Allen Winter, by Ed Winter (2:12), in the stable of Lon McDonald. This good trotter, report says, has been sold by Miss Bearton to George H. Sherman of Port Henry for a good price, and that he can beat 2:12 consideringly is generally believed.

Mike Bowerman and any youngster he brings along will necessarily be viewed with interest since his record-breaking four-year-old General Watts (2:09¾) and this year in Springer Todd, a bay two-year-old colt, which can surely head a trotter.

Al Kalamazoo, Cherie has stepped his Admiral Dewey colt High Admiral, and he looks to be a coming wonder, for with his mile in 2:16 he was not all out.

Gus Macey's handsome chestnut filly, Dorothy Macey, is one of those fleet-cornered, rapid-fire trotters that can fairly fly, and there are many who believe that her conquests will add still greater fame to the Dunfermline stables.

BILL ARMOUR NERVOUS.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 21.—Bill Armour, former manager of the Cleveland and the Detroit clubs and now owner and manager of the Toledo club, will retire as bench manager at the close of the present season. Nervous strain from excitement during games is the cause. He will handle the business end in the future and do his own scouting for players in Summer.

DONAHUE WILL HAVE HARD JOB

Young Donahue, one of the cleverest boxers the Hub possesses, will have an elegant chance to boost his ring record next Tuesday night when he meets Jim Bonner at Armory A. A. He likes the kind who come to him, as he knows how to side in the wallops and can measure his blows perfectly.

Bonner is a tough one, as he has already proved in the local arena, but Donahue has faced just as hard game and his cleverness should thwart all of Bonner's rugged style.

Donahue has many loyal supporters amongst the Roxbury members of the club, and they will be on hand to encourage Nigger to do his utmost.

A majority of the fistic followers about town believe that Bonner is too strong and too hard a scrapper for Donahue. When the Pennsylvanian is in the ring he never stops for an instant, but adopting the famous style of Battling Nelson, he goes after an opponent continuously, never seems to tire, and rushes an opponent around to stand up and exchange.

ATTELL SAYS KETCHEL COULD DEFEAT BURNS

BY W. W. NAUGHTON.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—Regarding Stanley Ketchel, the Sonoma young fighter, the current of expert opinion acts all the one way now. When this Michigan fellow began knocking out his opponents in short order, doubts were expressed by some of the wiseacres as to whether he would keep up his winning licks. Faults were found with his style of hitting and with his system of defence, but now all this is changed.

"That fellow will surely lick Tommy Burns," said one of the crowd coming out of the Coliseum the other night. "Yes, and Jack Johnson," put in another.

Abe Attell is among those who have changed their ideas respecting Ketchel. "He will defeat Burns as sure as you live," said Abe, and he said it vehemently. "I never put one fighter who had command of so many punches. He can hit from any kind of an angle. He is the greatest fighter that ever lived."

It may be that Ketchel's next fight will be with Billy Papke at Los Angeles (4), but if Ketchel is willing enough to go, but if it is true that Papke wants him to weigh 154 pounds, the match may be considered cancelled.

"He can make 158 pounds for Papke, but no less," said Manager Joe O'Connor, "and you can say for me that I prefer eight-ounce fighting to any other style." chimed in Ketchel. "When I made weight for Davis in this East it affected the force of my punches."

GLENVALES TO PLAY ASHLANDS

The Glenvales and Ashlands cross bats tomorrow at the National League grounds for the ninety-seventh championship of West Roxbury. There is a big rivalry between the two teams and a large following of rooters will be on hand to cheer respective nines to victory.

FAST PACER DEAD.

M. H. Richardson, Lime Rock, Ct., has had to lay down the young pacer Invincible (4), by Direct (2.05½), Heatherbloom dam of Reliance, 2:11¼). Thordale (2:22¾). He was a very promising youngster, having shown quarters in 33 seconds, and a half in 1:07. He was developed and trained by Willard Holsapple, Copake, N. Y.

110 STORES MILL-ENDS STORES 110

OPPORTUNITY

CLEARING HOUSE FOR MILL ENDS

Now knocks at your door. The most sensational tailoring event that Boston has ever known. A sale that puts all other bargain offers in our line in the kindergarten class.

After months of dickering we have just consummated a deal with a number of the foremost woolen manufacturers that is the crowning achievement of our business career.

This notable transaction involves the disposal to us each season, at a fraction of their value, of thousands of lengths varying from 1¼ to 4 yards each—termed mill-ends—which constitute the sample lines of the manufacturers' various selling agents.

It means unheard of values for you and an increased volume of business for us that will tax our facilities—great as the recent extensive alterations to our building have made them—to the utmost.

As the agents are now taking orders for Spring 1909, their fall samples are being returned to the mills which have just shipped us the first consignment now on sale.

It contains fabrics of the highest grades, the retail values of which range from $5 to $10 per yard. Every fashionable weave, pattern and coloring is represented from plain blacks, blues and neat dark mixtures to the tan, brown, green and olive effects that appeal to ultra fashionable dressers.

Suit, Overcoat to Order $7

No bankrupt, antiquated, shopworn, moth-eaten stock of "has-been" or "never-was" tailors can seek refuge here.

They are brand new up-to-the-hour goods, made for this fall wear, the counterparts of which may be seen in exclusive high priced shops this season.

It is to your decided advantage to see this exhibit. Even if not ready to order call anyway and get posted on what's what for Fall wear.

Trousers $2

OUR WINDOW DISPLAY IS WORTH GOING OUT OF YOUR WAY TO SEE

SIX LITTLE TAILORS

Established 28 Years Ago

177-179 Washington Street

OPEN EVENINGS Next Door to Ames Building NEAR STATE ST.

110 STORES MILL-ENDS STORES 110

PIANOS AND ORGANS PIANOS AND ORGANS

Henry F. Miller
Piano Warerooms
SPECIAL ALTERATION SALE

We are about to make alterations in our warerooms, and in order that workmen may have room for operations we must dispose of a number of used pianos of various makes, and for the next ten days we will offer from this stock

UNPRECEDENTED BARGAINS:

1 Ivers & Pond	2 Kranich & Bach	3 Schubert
1 Chickering	1 Schomacker	1 Conservatory
3 Hallet & Davis	1 Emerson	1 Decker Bros.
1 Steinway	3 Hardman	1 Mason & Hamlin

and many others, including several Henry F. Miller slightly used and second-hand Uprights and Grands.

We make special instalment terms during sale, which begins Aug. 19 and continues until Aug. 29, inclusive. Warerooms open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Pianos all distinctly marked at lowest selling prices.

HENRY F. MILLER & SONS PIANO CO.

395 Boylston St.—Near Arlington St.

Buy Pianos from Us

Save $100 to $300

We guarantee the above saving on the best known pianos of the world. Many of them are used only a few months of high-grade pianos of world renowned makers were forced to the wall by the Piano Trust. They were sent to us to auction, and we will let you at prices far below cost. Pianos rating from $300 to $500 on sale tomorrow.

McPhail..	$86
Schmer..	$101
Merrill..	$90
Steinway..	$75
W= Bourne	$60
Haines Bros.' Upright..	$58
Hallet & Davis Upright..	$65
Huntington Upright..	$60
Ivers & Pond Upright..	$76
Jacob Bros.' Upright..	$68
Kranich & Bach Upright..	$92
Martin Bros.' Upright..	$57
Mason & Hamlin Upright..	$72

Steinway and Boston Upright Grands at a sacrifice. Take any Washington St. car.

Roxbury Storage Salesrooms
2111 Washington St. (Cor. Williams)

We Will Sell You Any Make Piano $1 Down and $1 a Week

Mark's One Dollar Piano Plan is the most liberal price list if you like, just come to us and we will deliver the piano you select to your home without delay. Write or call today for free illustrated catalogue and price list. FRANK L. BARNARD Piano Mfg. Co., 657 Washington St., Opposite Boylston St.

MONEY TO LOAN

Sold, 12½c. a line. Display, 20c. a line.

Do You Want Money

IN 5 MINUTES after identification? I loan on furniture, pianos, organs, horses, carriages, etc., without removal. Business strictly confidential. The oldest in Boston. Do not attempt to borrow elsewhere until you see me. Can arrange financial positions to meet your notes when due.

ALLAN A. HOOKER
Room 6 178 Washington St.

STRICTLY LEGAL LOANS
We Do What We Advertise to Do

We loan money on any kind of furniture, pianos, horses, automobiles, stocks, life policies and any available property. You are careful in how you loan to get the best value for your money. Why not borrow with the same care? We offer advantages not to be had elsewhere. Promptness, legal forms and private offices. Our rates are reasonable. Is not your present loan unsatisfactorily arranged? Then, if in a hurry, call on us. If possible, We'll get it for you. Better still, write or 'phone. Why not remove his policies; money on all severalty.

Dexter Loan Co., 47 Court St., Room 12

THIS MEANS YOU!

COULD you use money if you could get it at a low rate of interest without publicity? If so, call and see us. Furniture, pianos, horses, etc. Any amount up to $1,000, at an hour's notice. Lowest rate of interest. Loans repaid in small payments, more money advanced. Call in and talk it over in private office. 10 State St. LEGAL LOAN CO.

NO ONE REFUSED.

We loan money on furniture, pianos, horses, carriages, etc., without removal. Call and see us before borrowing elsewhere. Rates reasonable. Business strictly confidential.

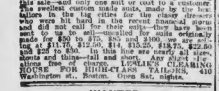
GLOBE LOAN CO.,
511 Washington st., opp. Shawmut.

MONEY loaned to reliable people on their personal notes. Business strictly confidential. 41 low rates. HUB LOAN CO., 41 Tremont street. Room 1001.

LOANS on pianos, furniture, pianos, teams, notes, etc.; short notice and lowest rates; confidential and reliable. H. W. BOWEN, Room 1501.

BUSINESS MEN can borrow on their note; private party. Rm. 52, 112 Devonshire st.

TAILORS' CLEARING HOUSE.



CLEARING HOUSE FOR HIGHCLASS TAILORS
410 Washington St. (Entrance next Avon)

One-half price cash sale for next ten days—everything to be sold out—entire stock changed during sale—and only one suit or coat to a customer. The reason for this sale is because we have the tailors in the big cities for the classy dressers who want to be in the correct financial style and did not call for their suits—they have been left on our hands—and we must sell them. Suits made to order from $40 to $60 during this sale, $19.75, $12.50, $14, $15.25, $18.75, $22.50 and $25 to $30. Also in this sale we have pants, vests and thing—tail and coat. Any article else, same price. LESLIE'S CLEARING HOUSE FOR HIGH-CLASS TAILORS, 410 Washington st., Boston. Room 1001.

WANTED.

LEGAL STAMPS

SCRIPT for cash in any quantity, 20c. per hundred; all coins are good. 626 Washington st., room 66.

SMALL chest of carpenter's tools; must be standard make and reasonable. T. S. Boston American.

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—On Sunday, Aug. 16th, Spring Hill, Roxbury, Mass., auto highway, lady's hand bag, containing sum of money, valued as keepsake; liberal reward. A 771 Boston American.

LOST—Lady's twin diamond ring, valued as a keepsake; liberal reward. A 771 Boston American.

TALKING MACHINES.

PHONOGRAPH RECORDS wanted; highest prices paid; NEW ENGLAND RECORD EXCHANGE, 2,012 Wash. st.

DETECTIVES.

LICENSED and bonded private detective, secures evidence; successful, strict confidence. Lock Box, 3372, Boston.

SAFES.

SAFE WANTED—Will buy a modern safe, must be cheap, 2 doors preferred; dimensions, safe and price. W. ALDROP, 147 Hanover st., Boston.

BOARD AND ROOMS

Sold, 12½c. a line. Display, 20c. a line.

SUMMER VISITORS TO BOSTON.—Pleasant rooms, first floor, with private bath, $4 per day; $4.50 with 2 in room; suites, one and $1 day; $2 to $3 per room-use only.

HOMELIKE, attractive, cool rooms, $2 to $3, up; bath; screens, open plumbing, shower bath; 10 minutes' walk; refined; permanent, 27 W. Newton st., room 1.

TO LET—Near Park st., clean, pleasant two-room suite for housekeeping; other rooms $1 up; running water, 14 Cherry st.

ROOMS for ladies before and during confinement. MATRON M. A. BROWN, 940 5th st., S. Boston.

AT VERMONT HOUSE, 40 Lynde st., West End—Rooms day, 50c. to $1; week, $2.50 to $5.50.

AT 407 MASS. AV.—Furn. rooms, from $2 to $5; use light housekeeping suite.

AT 63 WEST RUTLAND SQ.—Nearly furnished rooms, cen. hot and cold water, bell, summer prices.

MASS. AV., 569—Nicely furn. up. square and sunny, hot and cold water, bell, all cons.

DOVER ST., 50—Nicely furn. up. and alls rooms; all con.; near Washington st.

ELEGANT large, cool front rooms (piano); $2.50, $3, $3.50, $4, $5. 412 and 420 Tremont st.

SUITE and square rooms, $2.50 up; all conveniences hot water; bell. 30 W. Newton st.

2 ROOMS and kitchenette, $3.50; furnished; continuous hot water, steam heat, tel.; $1 per week. 178 Boylston street.

5 CONCORD SQ.—Neat, clean side room, good bed, clean home, $1.50 week.

15 EATON ST., nearly for light housekeeping rooms, for sewing people only; also side room.

16 HOLYOKE ST.—Light front and back bay; 3 and 4; water; for an and side room, bath room for use or suite; dining room, 4; 4 and 5, on 1st.

28 DWIGHT ST.—Kitchen with two bedrooms for light housekeeping, only respectable people wanted; also parlor and front suite; all newly painted; also papered and fitted suites; $9 per week.

39 BOWDOIN ST., near State House—2 connecting rooms, bath; transients accommodated.

39 APPLETON ST.—Well cared for rooms to let or work.

54 WALTHAM ST.—Front side rooms; also large furnished, sunny bedroom, housekeeping, gas stove.

59 WARREN AV.—Parties visiting Boston will find excellent rooms, $1 per day.

139 APPLETON ST.—Rooms, $1 per day; tel. Tremont 1803-2.

219 COLUMBUS AV.—Newly furnished above rooms, all conveniences. Suite 18, Hoffman House.

686-687 TREMONT ST.—Newly furnished parlor suites, with rooms; reasonable.

1486 WASH. ST.—Connected rooms for light housekeeping; hot water, gas, bath; reasonable.

HOUSES AND APARTMENTS.

CHOICE APARTMENT, 6 rooms, large piazza, steam heat, $21 per month, 20 Sherman, Roxbury. Inquire for key at 28 Sherman street, suite 2.

10 open house, Appleton st., $40 month.
10 open house, Appleton st., $40 month.
14 open house, Northampton st., $40 month.
14 open house, Northampton st., $40 month.
10 room house, Northampton st., $40 month.
10 room house, Northampton st., $40 month.
From Appleton st., $40 month.

TO LET—$21 per month; suite of 6 rooms; modern improvements. Inquire at suite 1, 2-9 Bedford st.

TO LET—A sunny flat, 5 rooms and bath; 121 Ellis st., Roxbury. Inquire of JOHN F. CALLAGAN, 110 State st.

RENTS in Winthrop—$20, $22, $25, $30, $37, $38, $40, $45, $46. CHASE & CHASE, 89 Broad st., Winthrop Centre.

SUMMER RESORTS.

BOARDERS WANTED—Special rates for Aug. and Sept. for sons of Lake Sunapee; good table, fine location. Address Box 1, Sunapee, N. H.

WANTED—Camping site, for one tent, balance summer; southern, with country, preferred; state price, advantages, privileges, location. P 1 Boston American.

FOR balance of season, furnished cottage at Sandwich, cheap. Address P 732 Boston American.

HELP WANTED.

Set solid, 10c. per line; displayed, 30c. per line.

HELP! HELP!

Do you need any? You can get intelligent, experienced help quickly by sending or telephoning your ad. to the AMERICAN'S quick help service. Telephone 5180 Main.

MALE

Extra Salesmen

R. H. WHITE CO. REQUIRE Extra salesmen for all departments. To persons qualifying, permanent positions will be given. Apply Friday and Saturday, 8:30 to 12 M., at Superintendent's office.

PRACTICAL ELECTRICITY SCHOOL

NEXT TERM opens Sept. 8; most successful school; best equipped; endorsed by electrical experts in New England; common school education sufficient; day and evening sessions. Send for catalogue. HAWLEY ENGINEERING SCHOOL, 113 Huntington ave., Boston.

UNCLE SAM requires men who are capable of PASSING EXAMINATIONS with HIGH marks. Your name and address on a postal mailed to-day will bring you FREE, Bulletin 1, Inquire of MASSACHUSETTS CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOLS, 194 Boylston st., Boston, Mass., brings you valuable information on CIVIL SERVICE, RAILWAY MAIL, IMMIGRANT INSPECTORSHIPS and other positions. WRITE IT NOW. We can give you the necessary instruction.

MEN learn the automobile business; driving, repairing, selling; $25 to $50 a week. EASTERN AUTO MOBILE SCHOOL, 62 Warren av., Boston.

BOSTON real estate firm wants ready man to take charge branch office; collect rents, show property, etc.; must be experienced in real estate business; $300 cash required, secured by real estate and satisfactory bond. Address, with references, P 1, Boston American.

ENGINEERS and firemen; Hawley Engineering School opens during August for regular vacation; 6 weeks' course; $25; graduates assisted to positions; $60 to $100 per month; day and evening classes; forties guaranteed; illustrated school catalogue free. HAWLEY ENGINEERING SCHOOL, 121 Haverhill st., Boston. Always open.

ENGINEERS AND FIREMEN instructed for license at the only recognized and reliable school; one small class. STEAM ENGINEERING SCHOOL, 121 Haverhill st., Boston. Always open. JAMES LEAHY, M. E., instructor.

JOB PRESSMAN can secure steady work at good wages; must be reliable; capable of handling high grade light tone and color work on 10 inch PRESS; state experience. Address PRESS, Rand, McNally & Co., Printing Press Builders, Chicago.

MEN WANTED, good wages; under 30, carry 145 pounds, for lumbering and firemen on railroads in the woods; permanent; expenses paid; $2.50 to $100 monthly; promoted to conductor or engineer; 10 hours; 1,000 men wanted. Number 46, room 59, 69th floor.

MEN WANTED at once to learn to drive and repair automobiles; positions paying $25 to $50 a week guaranteed; we have calls for men in all parts; full course $25; send to-day for free booklet. THE AUTO SCHOOL, 1 Park square, Boston; 28 Market sq., Providence, R. I.

WANTED—Men, between the ages of 21 and 35, for U. S. Marine Corps; must be native born citizens; good character; an opportunity to see the world; good pay, clothing, rations, quarters, medical attendance. Apply at 18 Custom House, Boston.

WANTED—Railway mail clerks; postoffice clerks; carriers; $1,000 yearly; examination held soon; specimen questions free. FRANKLIN INSTITUTE, Rochester, N. Y.

SITUATIONS WANTED—Male.

AN 8 YEAR'S experienced man wants a position as a chauffeur; can run and care for auto; or a workingman; has managed from 50 to 75 helpers. MATHEW J. QUINN, 1 Irving ave., New Bedford, Mass.

A YOUNG Irishman wishes position in private family; good references. M 765, Boston American.

CHEF and wife want a situation; man must and can cook; wife can do plain sewing; private family, country hotel, rest., institution, or school, all year or summer; best of references; state wages. Address H. W., 31 Tyler st., Boston, Mass.

CHAUFFEUR and gardener wants position, driving or repair. First car or any kind considered under 40h.p. 24 Hillcrest rd., Cambridge, Mass.

CARPENTER work done; jobbing and new work at moderate prices. E 752, Boston American.

GOOD BAKER WELTER wants situation in New Hampshire or Maine. Address D 768, Boston American.

INTERPRETER and jeweler, Italian-American young man, 23, reliable, well recommended, desires employment. LAVINIO, 40 Commercial st.

MIDDLE-AGED MAN of 36, like light work, painting, gardening, etc.; strictly temperate; best of references; fair wages for good place. J. HARRIMAN, 39 Cambridge st., Boston.

SITUATION WANTED—By single, exp., strictly temperate, middle-aged man as gen. helper, or stable or horse man; out of Boston. GILMAN, 12 Cleveland st.

WANTED—By gardener, position in private family; good references. T 764 Boston American.

AUTOMOBILES.

WANTED
CADILLAC or FORD.

WILL pay cash for a few good second-hand '09 or '08 cars. Address P 1, Boston American.

10 GASOLINE RUNABOUTS and touring cars, 1908 models, 4 cylinder, 30 h.p., 2 passenger; will sell at the following prices: Pope-Toledo, $1,000; Pope-Hartford, $1,000; Reo, $1,000; we have also under our exchange proposition a number of 1907 models; Pope-Toledo, Pope-Hartford and many other standard make gasoline cars, with top, windshield and lamps, $500 to $600. 304 Columbus av., Boston.

FORD COUPELET, all in fine running order, fully equipped, $325. MASS. AUTO CO.

90 GROUT touring car, 30-40 h. p., fully equipped, $1,000. 1908 Studebaker, $1,000.

'07 MAXWELL speedster, equipped with top, glass front, gas lamps, elegant finish; $650. MAXWELL-BRISCOE, 52 Church st., Boston.

1908 Cadillac touring car in good order. FRANKLIN SQ., Tel. connection.

$125 BUYS steamer, carry four people. FRANK AUTO CO., 51 Myrtle st., Boston. Tel. 475 Tre.

$125—BUYS Oldsmobile, artillery wheels, 1907 model, 20 H.P.

Side Entrance Body, $15.00; Back Decks, $5.00; Gasoline Tanks, $5.00; Speed Horns, $2.00; Cylinder Coils, $5.00; Searchlights, $5.00; Inner Tubes, $2.00 all sizes. EASTERN AUTOMOBILE EXCHANGE, 62 Warren av., near corner Tremont and Berkeley sts., Boston.

NEW THOS. 30 seconds, 30-35 h.p., $1,250; 30-35 h.p., 4 cylinder, $1,000. SOUTH END AUTO CO.

$15—JONES speedometer, cost $75; rare bargain. SOUTH END MOTOR CO., 32 E. Concord st.

MAXWELL RUNABOUT, with top, extra tires and lamps, $350. 1907 model. Tel. 1907 Back Bay.

RAMBLER, slightly damaged by fire, a bargain, $1901. 45 Stanhope st., off Huntington ave.

IF YOU WANT TO BUY, SELL OR RENT

Real Estate

IF YOU WANT TO BUY OR SELL YOUR BUSINESS, IF YOU WANT HELP, BOARD OR A SITUATION, IF YOU HAVE ANY SPECIAL WANT, YOU CAN SUPPLY IT THROUGH THE CLASSIFIED COLUMNS OF THE

Sunday American

FEMALE

EXTRA HELP

R. H. WHITE CO. REQUIRE Services of extra help in all departments. Persons of marked ability will be given permanent positions. Apply 8:30 to 12 M., Friday and Saturday, to Superintendent's office.

100 GIRLS WANTED AT ONCE TO LEARN BOOKBINDING AND MILLINERY. POSITIONS GUARANTEED.

WE TEACH shorthand, typewriting, including touch system; bookkeeping and penmanship; cutting and making all kinds of garments; millinery, including making and trimming hats; and all other work and branches pertaining; many graduates now holding positions; day and evening sessions; enrolling now; 50 per cent. of our spring graduates secured positions paying from $12 to $18 per week. Here are from 1 a. m. to 5 p. m. Evening sessions, 7 to 9:30 p. m. Terms reasonable. Call or write for free catalogue. Open all summer. Reliable and most reliable dressmaking and millinery school in Boston. Lessons given in dressmaking and millinery. BOSTON DRESSMAKING AND MILLINERY COLLEGE, 241 Tremont st., Boston Mass.

SPINNERS

ON HOPE yarn, good pay; steady work. SEWALL & DAY MILL, 358 Western av., Brighton.

LADY wanted to sell Beautiful hand beads; sample by mail 10c. J. B. WILSON, 1 Bromfield st., Room 1, Boston.

PHOTOGRAPHS any size on postcards; 6 for 25c. 1 Arlington st., Arlington.

SCHOOL girl, age between 14 and 16, to help in small store farm; state wages. L. C. AVERY, Natick.

WOMEN AND GIRLS—$1 per hour working for us at your own home; no canvassing; we furnish everything on a postal card; state your proposition does not interest us. Address, with stamp, ROYAL MANUFACTURING CO., 26 Custom House st., Providence, R. I.

WANTED—Ladies at once, all or part time, to sell Dr. Scott's Electric Hair Brush. Sells on sight. Big profits. Write for terms and free sample. Send 2c. stamp. DR. SCOTT, 124 Fulton st., New York.

WANTED—Ladies at home, all or part time, to do light laundry work; clean, reliable work, $1.50 to $3 daily; can furnish reference; work guaranteed; send 2c. stamp for particulars. Address Manager, 1 Huntington av., Boston.

ENGINEERS AND FIREMEN instructed for license at the only recognized and reliable school; one small class. STEAM ENGINEERING SCHOOL, 121 Haverhill st., Boston. Always open. JAMES LEAHY, M. E., instructor.

JOB PRESSMAN can secure steady work at good wages; must be reliable; capable of handling high grade light tone and color work on 10 inch PRESS; state experience. Address PRESS, Rand, McNally & Co., Printing Press Builders, Chicago.

MEN WANTED, good wages; under 30, carry 145 pounds, for lumbering and firemen on railroads in the woods; permanent; expenses paid; $2.50 to $100 monthly; promoted to conductor or engineer; 10 hours; 1,000 men wanted. Number 46, room 59, 69th floor.

GIRL WANTED at once to learn to drive and repair automobiles; positions paying $25 to $50 a week guaranteed; we have calls for girls in all parts; full course $25; send to-day for free booklet. THE AUTO SCHOOL, 1 Park square, Boston; 28 Market sq., Providence, R. I.

A GERMAN WOMAN would like to keep house for gentleman or widower. Address GERMAN, 1 Lincoln st., East Boston.

WANTED—Girl to work every day's work of any kind; would like home situation if there is any; wages $3 per week. Apply at 18 Custer st., Dorchester.

A RESPT. LADY would like position to care for children; can go out of town. Address P 761, Boston American.

A YOUNG woman (col.) washer day's work; experienced, references, drop card, no callers. 37 Tyler st.

A YOUNG woman wants general work by the day or hour. 37 Tyler st., Boston.

A MIDDLE-AGED woman would like place in family to do light work; is a good cook, and will take care of children. M. H. 63 Carver st.

A RESPECTABLE young woman position in reputable family; good home preferred to good wages. CARRIE, 1 Bromfield st.

EXPERIENCED colored woman would like position as housekeeper for widower or bachelor. MRS. 40 Porter st., Boston. Mass.

A YOUNG girl wants sewing and washing done, short waist and children's work would do. MRS. A. BAKEFIELD, 1 Bromfield st., Cambridge.

MIDDLE AGED lady with small girl wishes situation as housekeeper for widower or bachelor in small family. LADY, 1 Bromfield st., Cambridge.

CHEF of excellent ability, colored, would like day's work; will go out of town; please write, MRS. LOVELL, 2 Bromfield st.

NEAT, reliable, colored woman would like position as housekeeper; is a good cook; best of reference; city or suburbs. CARE MRS. SMITH, 57 Dudley st., Roxbury.

TRAINED NURSE—Looks after babies before and after confinement, etc.; strictly temperate; moderate charges. Tel. 3 S. S. Boston American.

A LADY wishes position as housekeeper for bachelor or widower's family preferred. Address H, 191 West Brookline st., Boston.

WORK WANTED—By a respectable woman by the day; washing and ironing preferred. 61 Northfield st., Boston, Mass.

A WORK WANTED—By young woman; sewing or cleaning. MRS. A. C., 247 Gold st., S. B.

BUSINESS CHANCES.

Set solid, 12½c. per line; displayed, 20c. per line.

GROCERY STORE—Exceptional proposition; fine location; owner must sell; price low. B. E. CO., 1 Bromfield st., room 1.

RENT $50—WARREN AV.

LODGING HOUSE—Tremont corner; 4 rms.; fine location; rent $50; price $300; must be sold. BEACH & CO., 278 Washington st.

$125—PERIODICAL STORE, 1 room connect, rent $15. The busy bee, SIMONDS, 724 Washington.

$250—CIGAR STORE, news depot, periodicals, school supplies, busy stock, fine business. SIMONDS.

$800—ICE CREAM, soda, confectionery store, rent with $1,200, all age complete with. SIMONDS.

$1,000—GROCERY, 11 elegantly fitted rooms, all rented, $30 month; must be sold. SIMONDS.

LOOK, LOOK, READ—4 lovely little stores, 4 rooms each, $175. $200, $225, $250. SIMONDS.

COUNTRY STORE in the best town in Central Mass.; doing fine trade; $700 a year; best reason for selling; will invoice about $1,500; price, liberal terms. B. E. CO., 1 Bromfield st., room 1.

KNIGHT & CO., 278 Washington—Rooms for lease; suitable for the Winter season; to responsible parties only; rents reasonable. Call and secure your dates. HARRY ROSEN, Manager.

$2,500 HALF interest in liquor saloon in Roxbury; owner wants good partner; will sell to partner. R. L. CASEY, 28 School st., Boston.

$600—CANDY store, confectionery store, rent $15, good trade. HAYDEN, 255 Washington.

LODGING HOUSE—14 rooms, rent $46, will sell for $350; must be sold. BEACH & CO.

FOR SALE—News and periodical store, ready for customers; low rent. 127 O st., So. Boston.

BARBER SHOP.

$450 WILL BUY 3-chair shop; netting 25 per cent; over $25 per week, a well man can make $40 per week; rent $15; 5 years' lease; this is a very light shop and very busy rest, present owner has other business. BEACH & CO., 278 Washington st.

$650—LODGING HOUSE, near State House; 20 rooms, sweet and clean. SIMONDS, 724 Washington st.

$460—LODGING HOUSE, 12 rooms; $40 rent; clearing $115; your own price. SIMONDS, 724 Washington.

$1,200—HALF DOWN, 17-room lodging house, near Dewey square; rent $70; clearing $150. SIMONDS, 724 Washington st., Boston.

LODGING HOUSES, all over South End and Back Bay; some must be sold; others must be higher rent month. R. B. SIMONDS.

FOR SALE—Lease of store and fixtures; must be sold at once as I am about to leave the city; have been in business for a number of years; a good business for a little money; will take mortgage for part. Call at 20 Eliot st., Boston.

$150—CIGAR and candy store, lady owner rents 5 rooms; rent $15; a bargain. SIMONDS.

$100 SECURES cheapest branch bakery in large town; doing good business; liberal terms. B. E. CO., 1 Bromfield st., room 1.

$1,000—LODGING HOUSE, 30 rooms; rent $100; clearing $200; must be sold; other business reason for sale; investigate and you will buy. BISHOP & CO., 278 Washington st.

LODGING HOUSE—Rent $50; will invoice; must be sold; other business reason for sale; investigate and you will buy. BISHOP & CO., 278 Washington st.

LODGING HOUSE—14 rooms, rent $46, will sell for $350; must be sold. BEACH & CO.

FOR SALE—News and periodical store, ready for customers; low rent. 127 O st., So. Boston.

DEATH NOTICES.

BAKER—In Dorchester, Aug. 19, Edna Irving, daughter of Irving and Mary Baker, aged 1 month. Funeral from the residence of her mother, 1 Ashton terrace, Dorchester, Saturday, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. At rest.

COYNE—In South Boston, Aug. 20, Agnes F., wife of Patrick and Mary Coyne, 2 Dorchester st. Funeral from parents' residence, 393 24 st., Friday, Aug. 21, at 8:30 a. m. Services at St. Peter's church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited.

DUNN—In Boston, 19, Mary A. Duffey, wife of Thomas Dunn. Funeral from residence of her sister, Miss Mary Duffey, 1 Dorchester st., Saturday, Aug. 22, at 8:30 o'clock. Services at St. Augustine's church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited. New York papers please copy.

HEALEY—In Boston, Aug. 20, Esther, daughter of the late Matthew Healey. Funeral from her late residence, 7 Gleason st., Brighton, Saturday, Aug. 22, at 8:15 a. m. Services at St. Columbkille's church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited to attend.

HOLLAND—In Boston, Aug. 20, Catherine, beloved wife of Thomas J. Moyer. Funeral from her late residence, 1 Bowdoin Central sq., Reading, Saturday, Aug. 22, at 8:30 o'clock. Services at St. Agnes' church at 9 o'clock. High mass of requiem. Relatives and friends invited to attend. Interment at Reading. Carriages will meet 8:15 train from Boston.

LOWELL—In Winchester, Aug. 20, Capt. John G. Lowell, U. S. A., aged 72 yrs.

Services Saturday at 11 a. m. at the residence of his son, Rev. Percival Lowell. Train leaving North Station at 9:45 a. m.

MACKEY—In Boston, Aug. 19, Margaret (Kelly), daughter of James and Rose Kelly, and beloved wife of Thomas F. Mackey. Funeral from her late residence, 17 School st., Charlestown, Aug. 21, at 8:15 a. m. High mass of requiem at St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited to attend.

MARSH—In Boston, Aug. 19, Mary Ann, widow of Thomas Marsh. Funeral from her late residence, 6 Grove st., Saturday, Aug. 22, at 8:30 a. m. Services at St. Peter's church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited to attend.

MURPHY—In Boston, Aug. 19, Catherine, beloved wife of John and Mary Murphy, aged 2 years.

Funeral from parents' residence, 384 24 st., Friday, Aug. 21, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited.

DEATH NOTICES.

REYNOLD—In Somerville, Aug. 20, Walter G., husband of Isabel (Bowen) Reynold, aged 39 yrs. Funeral from late residence, 23 Austin st., Somerville, Saturday, Aug. 22, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited to attend. Burial at Cambridge.

SWEENEY—In Newton, Aug. 19, Julia W., beloved wife of William F. Sweeney, aged 39 yrs.

Funeral from her late residence, 30 Jefferson st., Brighton, Saturday, Aug. 22, at 8:15 a. m. High mass of requiem at the Church of Our Lady at 9 a. m. Relatives and friends invited to attend.

WAHL—In Roslindale, Aug. 18, Bertha S., wife of Charles A. Wahl, 85 yrs., 4 mos., 6 ds. Funeral from her late residence, 4 Wren st., Roslindale, Saturday, at 2 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited to attend.

ESTABLISHED 1859.

J.S. WATERMAN & SONS
Incorporated
UNDERTAKERS
2326-2328 Washington st., corner Union Park
Adjoining Dudley Street Terminal Station.
Personal attention to all funerals.
Carriages and Limousines furnished.
The privacy of each casket is carried in plain sight.
Established prices for all work.
Advice and information given.
Lady assistant, if desired, for ladies.
Chapel for funeral services without charge.
George H. Waterman, President
Frank W. Waterman, Treasurer
TELEPHONE ROXBURY 72.
Funeral or Cadet Autos, "Undertaker, Boston."

CLOTHING.

LARGEST VARIETY

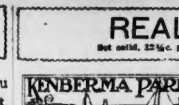
OF GENTS' slightly worn custom clothing in Boston; made by leading tailors; students' clothes, suits from $2.50 up; coats and vests from $1.50 up; Fall and Winter overcoats from $1.75 up; coats from 25c. up; pants from 75c. up. HARRIS & CHESTER, 30 Dutton st., Bowdoin square; near Terminal; open evenings until 9; Saturdays until 11.

AUCTIONS.

ACCORDING TO LAW—Unredeemed pledges sold at auction Tuesday, Aug. 25, 1908, at M. S. ROSENBAUM, 20 Shawmut av., Boston, Mass., at 10 a. m. sharp.

REAL ESTATE.

Set solid, 12½c. per line; displayed, 20c. per line.



NANTASKET BEACH
GREAT LAND SALE
OF
SHORE LOTS and BUNGALOW SITES
Bathing, Boating and Fishing
AT YOUR DOOR
Prices $130 Upward
$5 Down, $5 Monthly
Call at No. 1 Beacon street, Room 26, Boston, or TEAM AT NANTASKET BEACH, Kenberma Park, Nantasket, for the 10:30 and 1:30 boats from Rowes Wharf.

EVERY DAY THIS WEEK
Edmund M. Warren Realty Co.
1 BEACON ST., Boston, Mass.
106 MAIN ST., Brockton, Mass.
298 WESTMINSTER ST., Providence, R. I.

EXCHANGE.

RENTAL PROPERTY, Medford, 9 families; income $1,080 yearly; price $14,000; equity $2,300; will exchange for good room, store, auto or any property. Address P 1, Boston American.

FREE AND CLEAR CITY

INVESTMENT property; assessed for $23,000; will exchange for equity. E. S. EATON, 28 School st., Boston.

One Hour From Boston.

BORDERS on Lake Cochichewick, meadow covered both sides by river hay; fruit, asparagus; 14 rooms; 2 baths; hot water heat; open plumbing; 2 tenements; 2 stables; 1½ acres; 1½ acres; substantial cottage 7 rooms, stable, homeplace, splendid location; price $4,000; terms to suit. WARREN A. PERLEY, 4 Pt. F. LELAND 313 Devonshire st.

$250 DOWN must be sold this week; house of 7 rooms, bath, set tubs, hot water heat, open plumbing, wired for elec. lights, and set for range; lot 50x100; fine corner; only $2,750; $250 down, balance on easy payments. SWIFT & CO., 1 Beacon st., Room 1101, Tel. 1107 Main.

90 ACRES, $900—$300 DOWN.

7 MILES from Boston; 1 hour from business; 2 hours for 100; fruit and berries; fine soil. See it. W. SWIFT, Room 1101, 1 Beacon st., Boston. Tel. 1107 Main.

A LITTLE home, newer house before offered, on main roadway road and fast trolley, 16 miles from Boston; 6 rooms, bath, set tubs, hot water heat, open plumbing, wired for electric lights, open plumbing, h. and c. water, hot-water heater, set for range, stable, chicken house, tool house, workbench and other buildings; everything first-class; land enough for a garden and chickens to pay cash; a rare bargain for someone. JOSIAH CHASE & CHASE, 89 Broad st., Winthrop Centre.

READING—Estate of 2½ acres, near electrics and station; 8 rooms and bath; fruit extensive, well-built house with large piazza, 10 large rooms and bath; stable and other buildings; $6,000 per cash; will sell on easy terms. WM. H. BROWN, 1,008 Tremont Building, Boston.

HANCOCK—Fine 10-room house with or without improvements. Will be in good locality after Sept. 1. Apply to owner, WM. H. BROWN, 1,008 Tremont Building, Boston.

$4,500 BUYS a real estate agency, with or without improvements. Will be in good locality after Sept. 1. Apply to owner, WM. H. BROWN, 1,008 Tremont Building, Boston.

FOR SALE—Lot, corner 72 Child st., Jamaica Plain, all sizes; furnace heat, open plumbing; easy terms. JOHN F. CALLAGHAN, 110 State st.

FOR SALE—Lot 100x100, Lexington, Mass., near electrics and station; $1,000; terms to suit purchaser. WM. H. BROWN, 1,008 Tremont Building, Boston.

TRANSFER—Buy your lot from owner and save commission; 2 lots, Dorchester, Neponset, Milton, Quincy, Braintree, Weymouth, Hingham, Hanover, Hull, Scituate, Marshfield, Duxbury, Kingston, Plymouth, Bridgewater, Brockton, Abington, Rockland, Hanson, Whitman, Hingham, Cohasset, Norwell, Pembroke, Hanover, Norwell, Hanover, Hanson, Whitman, Abington, Rockland, Brockton, Bridgewater, Plymouth, Kingston, Duxbury, Marshfield, Scituate, Cohasset, Hingham, Weymouth, Braintree, Quincy, Milton, Dorchester, Neponset, Boston, Mass. Send for free booklet. Address P 1, Boston American.

FOR SALE—Maine, N. H., Mass. and Conn. farms, all sizes and prices; easy terms. GETCHELL, 325 Tremont st., Boston.

REAL ESTATE MORTGAGES.

Set solid, 12½c. per line; displayed, 20c. per line.

ARCHITECT will loan money on 2nd mortgage, or real estate, to brokers. G 8, Boston American.

BARTLETT'S NEW TOWN.

AT NORBONAY LAKE, Hamilton, 72 miles south, a thing never heard of in our own season, such a thing never seen; $150 lots, $5 down, $1 per week; $100 lots, $3 down, $1 per week; $50 lots, $2 down, $1 per week; on the promenade, 4 rows of beautiful shade trees; ideal spot for bungalows and summer homes; fine boating, bathing and fishing; easy to reach from Boston; build a little cottage of your own; land for speculation; 1 hour to Boston. A. DAN HAM, 7 Water st., Boston.

Half Acre Farms, $190
Bungalow Sites, $19
$2 Down, $1 Week

$25 bonus to builders. No restrictions; wide building; any interest, any time. Over $15,000 worth sold Saturday and Sunday at 11. G. W. BARTLETT, 80 Court st.

SEASHORE LOTS

ON WATER FRONT at Hanley's Neck, 2 to 5 acres a lot, $5 down, $1 a week; 2 miles from Rockland, 30 from Boston; fine bathing, boating; every one has cottages built in last 12 months; beautiful shade trees; ideal spot for bungalows; fine beautiful shore resort along entire South Shore; fine boating and bathing; easy to reach from Boston; send for information and a little cottage of your own. HAM & WATER, 7 Water st., Boston.

WINTHROP.

IN CHURT PARK, single house, $300 down; 2 new 2-family houses, $1,000 down; fine estate with 2 houses, 10 rooms each; 1 with bath; fine stable; a number of fine estates at Highlands; 1 single cottage at Winthrop Hill, $500 down; new house at Centre ideal in every way; a beautiful lot, 100x100, with fine shade trees; $2,500; land for sale at the Centre from $4,000 to $8,500. CHASE & CHASE, 89 Broad st., Winthrop Centre.

SLIGHTLY OUT OF REPAIR.

4-FT. BRICK HOUSE; good location, East Boston; will sell on easy terms; $1,000 down; easy terms. C. E. JENNINGS, 1,026 Old south bldg.

$100 DOWN, $100 BUYS.

20 ACRES, with 10 fruit trees, 2 grapevines, 2 rooms, in splendid section; 30 days only; $100 down, $100 buys it; 1 hour from Boston; 2 hours for $100; 2 miles to station over good road; good local, river and ocean view; 1 mile to Hull; $100 down; substantial cottage 7 rooms, stable, homeplace, splendid land for a garden and chickens to pay; $2,500. F. P. L

EDITORIAL PAGE OF THE BOSTON AMERICAN BOSTON, AUGUST 21, 1908

THE BOSTON AMERICAN

60 AND 62 SUMMER ST., BOSTON, AUGUST 21, 1908

How to Publish a Book

Answer to "Poor and Ambitious"

Copyright, 1908, by American-Journal-Examiner

A man, who signs his letter "Poor and Ambitious," wants to know how he can publish a book that he has written.

Many others ask the same question. "Poor and Ambitious" wants to know if it would help him any to get his friends to subscribe for two hundred dollars' worth of copies and go to a publisher with that order.

As a general proposition, if the publisher will not publish your book at his own risk, it is better to leave it unpublished.

To publish a book, paying for the printing, plates and all the rest, is an expensive undertaking. It is scarcely fair to friends to ask them to invest their money in advance on something that they may not want. The best plan would be to have the book carefully typewritten and send it to a few publishers to whom it would appear to be best suited. If they all refuse it, the advice would be to try something else.

It is not true that publishers do not read books submitted to them. They do read them. They can often tell at a glance that they don't want them, painful as that may be to the authors' feelings. Occasionally, of course, they reject the best, or, at least, those that would be the most profitable, as in the case of "David Harum."

But remember that, even if your book isn't printed, the writing of it has done YOU good. Write another, try the publishers again, but have some other occupation, some regular business. The greatest of writers have had some material money-earning occupation in addition to writing—at least, in the beginning. Shakespeare managed a theatre; Milton was in politics.

Before Cutting You—

Doctors Must Have Your Permission. Courts Have Decided That

Copyright, 1908, by American-Journal-Examiner

A lady sends in the following question:

"Will you please let me know whether any hospital is allowed to perform a serious operation which usually results fatally without asking the consent of a patient or her husband? This was done and the party died."

Under the law, as we understand it, a doctor has NO RIGHT TO PERFORM AN OPERATION ON ANY ADULT WITHOUT THAT PERSON'S CONSENT.

We believe that in a recent court decision it was decided that doctors had no right to operate on a woman, although the husband HAD given his consent. The court held that the husband's consent was not sufficient authority, that the doctors had no right to act without the consent of the woman herself, and she recovered damages.

There are circumstances, however, under which it would be extremely dangerous to forbid doctors to exercise some discretion.

Surgeons in hospitals, as a rule, are able and conscientious men. Stories about their performing operations for amusement or to gratify curiosity are largely, if not entirely, shameful slanders.

Very often patients are taken to the hospital in a condition that makes death absolutely certain without the performing of an operation.

For instance, a man is picked up on the street with his skull crushed; he is unconscious; he cannot consent to an operation; if the operation is delayed he will surely die. Nobody could question the right of the doctor under such conditions to perform the operation at once. He would be neglecting his duty if he failed to follow his own judgment.

However, when there is any doubt involved, when the operation is not imperatively called for, doctors are compelled to get the consent of the patient in the case of adults, and the consent of parents or guardians in the case of children. And when doctors fail in their duty or exceed their authority they should be held to account. Relatives of the woman mentioned above might well be guided by the opinion of some good doctor who has their confidence.

THE HALL-ROOM BOYS

Copyright, 1908, by American-Journal-Examiner

WHEN YOU GET THROUGH THERE BOYS, YOU CAN TAKE THE EVENING OFF I DONT THINK THERE'S ANYTHING ELSE FOR YOU TO DO.
OH THANK YOU MR. PAZAZ.
AWFULLY KIND OF YOU SIR.
1
GEE—THERE'S MISS HAZEL THE LITTLE PEACH WE MET THE OTHER NIGHT I THINK I'LL GO OVER, TAKE A WALK WILL YOU FERD?
TAKE A WALK NOTHING, I'M IN ON THIS AS WELL AS YOU ARE. YOU CAN'T FREEZE ME OUT, WE'LL BOTH GO
2
AH-MISS HAZEL- PLEASED TO MEET YOU AGAIN HOW DO YOU FEEL AFTER THE DANCE LAST EVENING?
ALL ALONE MISS HAZEL? MAY I SIT BESIDE YOU?
3
MR PAZAZ WANTS MR. FERDINAND TO COME IN AND HEAD TO HIM—
WHO—ME?
SURE FERDIE, YOU'RE THE BEST PEACER. UNCLE ALWAYS PREFERRED YOU!
4
YES, WE'RE STOPPING HERE WITH OUR UNCLE, HE'S VERY RICH Y'KNOW AND OF COURSE AS WE ARE HIS HEIRS, WE LIKE TO HUMOR HIM. HA-HA! POOR FERDIE—I DON'T BLAME HIM FOR HATING TO LEAVE SUCH CHARMING COMPANY.
OH YOU FLATTERER.
5
MR. PEACIVAL, I'VE BEEN LOOKING FOR YOU EVERYWHERE WHY WERE YOU NOT AROUND TO TAKE ME OUT? MY RHEUMATISM IS VERY BAD TO-DAY, AND I HAD TO HIRE THIS PORTER TO DO YOUR WORK. BE MORE CAREFUL IN THE FUTURE SIR OR WE WILL HAVE TO DISCHARGE YOU.
H.B.M.
6

THEIR EVENING OFF DOES NOT PROVE ALL PLEASURE

Cultivating the Farmers

The Significance of President Roosevelt's Action in Naming a Commission for that Purpose

By CHARLES FERGUSON

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT has created an extraordinary commission to investigate the social conditions of American farms.

This may be well meant, but it is a mistake. The sensible farmers of the country, after they have had time to take in the full import of this unprecedented action, will resent it.

Underneath all the fine statesmanlike phrases in which Mr. Roosevelt broaches his project in his open letter to the chairman of his commission lies the fact that the President regards our agricultural population as a prosperous peasantry, well furnished in the gross things of the flesh, but lacking the amenities of life and needing to have their manners keyed up.

Mr. Roosevelt makes it very clear that his commission is designed not to help the farmers to farm better, but to help them to be more civilized. He says: "I doubt if any nation can bear comparison with our own in the amount of attention given by the government, both Federal and State, to agricultural matters. But agriculture is not the whole of country life. The great rural interests are human interests, and good crops are of little value to the farmer unless they open the door to a good kind of life on the farm."

What Virtuous Zeal, Indeed!

WHEN one enters with sympathy into Mr. Roosevelt's state of mind, conceiving with what virtuous zeal he has flung himself upon this crusade for a cleaner, higher yeomanry, it seems inconsiderate, even cynical, to suggest obstacles.

With what philosophic shrewdness he has discerned that agriculture is the basis of the state!

How high-minded to realize that, after all, the life is more than meat—that it is not enough to cultivate the fields, we must also cultivate the farmers.

How indignantly he must have repudiated all thoughts of low expediency, arising unbidden in his meditation—as that this move might out-Cincinnatize the Sage of Fairview!

And with what noble simplicity of speech he throws open "the door to a good kind of life on the farm," in words of one syllable, intelligible in the remotest rural districts!

Nevertheless we are compelled to believe that Mr. Roosevelt has made a grave mistake. It is still possible for him to blunt the invidious edge of his error by adroitly initiative; it does not depend upon Presidential patronage.

"the sordid social life" of Newport, Fifth Avenue and the Riverside Drive, and another to improve the "low conversation" of trades unions. But these would be desperate expedients. And his best course, having "walked right in" to an impossible situation, would be to turn around and "walk right out again."

No "Little Father" Wanted

THE truth is that the American people have no continuing use for a "Little Father." Uncle Reuben's whiskers are not so ragged as they are said to be; and even if they were, he would object to having them trimmed by the State barbers of the Capitol.

Democratic government, as it is understood by most of us in this country, is an economic concern, a business partnership, not a Browning club or a Sunday school class. Of course, it is understood also, by those who take time to think whole thoughts, that the achievement of honesty and efficiency in the national business will give us all a moral uplift and better our manners.

But it is a cardinal point in American politics, signalized by the separation of the Church from the State, and in a thousand other ways, that the spiritual goods must not be intruded upon anybody.

And this is a precept not only of democratic politics, but of universal good breeding. It is bad manners to make a dead-set to improve anybody's manners or morals. In social converse people must be left to take their moral uplifts as a by-product.

Inherited Mental Habit

THIS principle has been respected for unnumbered ages in aristocratic circles, as applied to the members of their own set. But aristocrats have considered it perfectly proper to attend to the manners and morals of peasants and working people.

Now the meaning of America's proclamation of equality and independence is that everybody in this country has been taken into the "upper class," and nobody is to be talked down to any more.

Mr. Roosevelt is perhaps to be excused for his inheritance of the lordly mental habits of the Hudson River patrooons. Yet his opening of the "door to a good kind of life on the farm" is a gross Barbarism.

The higher life for farmers, as well as for the rest of us, waits upon local and

Little Editorials from the People

HAVE YOU ANY OLD LITERATURE TO DONATE IN A GOOD CAUSE?

Editor BOSTON AMERICAN:

If any of your readers have illustrated papers or magazines or phonographs, may I ask for them to be sent prepaid to Captain Abbott Walker, Nauset Life-Saving Station, North Eastham, Mass.?

These men live in a desolate section of the Cape, and if anything has made you laugh, or made you happy, pass it along the Cape Cod coast. ALBERT E. GEORGE.

Nauset Lighthouses, North Eastham, Mass.

FOXY QUILLER BUG SOLVES A PROBLEM

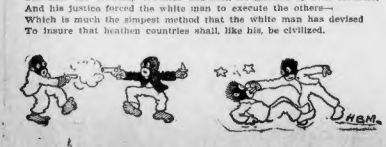
Copyright, 1908, by American-Journal-Examiner

The Isle of Wobbley-Woodle

By Wex Jones

THE Isle of Wobbley-Woodle was a very peaceful place;
The natives were a happy lot, a most contented race;
They lived on fish and breadfruit; they never had a fight;
But the beggars weren't civilized, which was very far from right.
So a cruising gunboat came along and gave the people fits;
The king was put in irons, and the town was blown to bits.
A governor was landed, and the island was annexed,
Whereby a slower nation, which had watched the Isle, was vexed.

A TAX was put on property to pay the soldiers' keep,
And sermons preached in Woodle till the natives fell asleep.
A trader opened up a store with a stock of guns and gin,
And the Wobbley-Woodles took to both, and took to them like sin.
Attired in Europe's cast-off clothes, some drank themselves to death,
While others found a bullet held an outlet for the breath.
Till half the Wobbley-Woodles had been slaughtered by their brothers,
And his justice forced the white man to execute the others—
Which is much the simplest method that the white man has devised
To insure that heathen countries shall, like his, be civilized.



GRAFTO THE MONK HAS A SURPRISE PARTY

Copyright, 1908, by American-Journal-Examiner

HELLO? SURPRISE PARTY AT GRAFTO'S HOUSE? YES, I'LL COME AND BRING CAKE, SURE—WHO IS THIS,—WHAT?—HELLO,—CENTRAL, YOU CUT ME OFF—
SURPRISE PARTY?—GRAFTO'S HOUSE? SURE, I'LL BRING SANDWICHES,—WHO'S THIS TALKING—WHAT?—WHO—HELLO!———GONE!
DOWN AT GRAFTO'S?—SURPRISE? I'M TO BRING SOMETHING TO DRINK? ALL RIGHT,—SAY—WHO IS THIS—WHO—SAY—
SURPRISE PARTY? GRAFTO'S HOUSE TO-NIGHT? I'M TO BRING CIGARS?—FINE!—SAY, WHO'S THIS—HELLO!—
SUBWAY DOWN TOWN
GENTLEMEN, I THANK YOU FOR THIS HONOR!
GOOD SPEECH, GRAFTO.
SAY, WHO GOT THE PARTY UP YOU SMITH?
MAYBE JONES DID
DID YOU GET IT UP ED?
I'LL WAGER GRAFTO GOT IT UP HIMSELF!!